መጽሐፈ፡ አብቲሊስ፡ ※ The Book of Abtilis

Introduction

The Book of Abtilis is the last of the 4 Books of the Sinodos (vide infra); together with the Book of Gitsew, it provides two versions of one body of law, governing the conduct of the clergy – Abtilis is the fuller of the two, and covers the same ground at greater length. The book names itself: its incipit reads that it is the "Sinodos of the Holy Apostles, which Clement narrated concerning Peter his teacher, and that it is called Abṭelisāt, and that their number is eighty-one."

The Ge'ez text presented here is that of Allesandro Bausi, from the TEI collection[§]. He provides two recensions of the work: one of 81 canons (presented herein as the main text) and one of 80 canons (most of which is included in the footnotes, where it is referred to as the Second Recension). We also provide the (Bohairic) Coptic text, as transcribed by Henry Tattam[∇]. The English text closely follows that of Breandan Lumpkin's translation.[¶]

Authorship and Dates

Church tradition attributes the text of the Book of Abtilis to the Twelve Apostles. Within the Ethiopian tradition, the sections of the Sinodos are sometimes colloquially referred to as the Books of Clement. This implies they were pseudo-historically communicated by St Peter to his disciple, Clement of Rome.

However, modern textual scholarship establishes that the Sinodos is a compilation of pseudepigraphal church orders, local council decrees (such as Nicaea, Antioch, and Laodicea), and liturgical statutes. The text was written by anonymous Christian redactors in Egypt and the Levant, who compiled various traditional early Christian pseudo-apostolic rulings into singular volumes.

CANON OF ABTILIS 1

[i] It tells us what is proper: how many bishops must be present for the office of an archbishop. For, this is not accomplished apart from the presence of their assembly of bishops and the presence of the metropolitan[ii], who is the pāppās[iii]. And it speaks again of those who are in that place; and it gives charge to the people by the counsel of their elders.

CANON OF ABTILIS 1

[i] Second Recension: Concerning the ordination of a bishop, an archbishop, and princes: bishops must be present for the ordination of an archbishop, because this cannot be accomplished without the presence of the assembly of bishops and the presence of the metropolitan, who is the bishop. Furthermore, it is announced to those who are in that place, and he commands the other people upon the advice of their elders. (በእንተ፡ ሚመተ፡ ኤጲስ፡ ቆጶስ፡ ወሊቀ፡ ጳጳሳት፡ ወስፍን፡ ይደሉ፡ የሀልዉ፡ ኤጲስ፡ ቆጶሳት፡ ለሚመተ፡ ሊቀ፡ ጳጳሳት። እስመ፡ ኢይትፈጸም፡ ዝንቱ፡ ዘእንበለ፡ በህላዌ፡ ጉባኤሆሙ፡ ለኤጲስ፡ ቆጶሳት፡ ወህላዌ፡ መጥረብሊጥ፡ ዘውእቱ፡ ጳጳስ። ወይነግር፡ ካዕበ፡ ለዘ፡ ሀለዉ፡ ውስተ፡ ውእቱ፡ መካን፡ ወየአዝዞሙ፡ ለካልኣ፡ ሕዝብ፡ በምክረ፡ መላህቅቲሆሙ።)

[ii] Here, 'metropolitan' translates መጥረብሊጥ (Greek μητροπολίτης); that this canon requires the presence of the metropolitan as well as the assembly of bishops, treating the two as distinct requirements, is the mark that distinguishes this recension from the shorter Apostolic Canons, which know only the bishops at an episcopal ordination. The clause stands in the 2nd Recension too (vide supra), so it belongs to the Abtilisāt as such.

[iii] We leave ጳጳስ as 'pāppās'; here, the text uses it to gloss መጥረብሊጥ but, in Canon 2 it stands beside ሊቀ፡ ጳጳሳት፡ as a distinct person, so it cannot be rendered 'archbishop' or 'bishop' without collapsing a distinction the text itself keeps.

[i] If there is a man whom they have brought to be ordained bishop, let it be by the consent of all the people of his country, and let it be a pāppās[ii] or an archbishop who ordains him. And let two or three bishops[iii] be present for his office; for, this is what increases his favour. But the office of a presbyter and of a deacon and of whoever is lower than that belongs to that bishop alone; and let him ordain them into their ranks according to the order of their priesthood, and let it be by the consent of those who share with them.

[i] The Second Recension reads: And, if a man is brought to be appointed as a bishop, and this takes place with the approval of all the people of his region; and let him be a bishop or an archbishop, whom they appoint, and let there be present for his consecration two or three bishops; for, this is what adds dignity to him. And the appointment of a priest and a deacon, which is inferior to that of a bishop, he alone may ordain them into their ranks according to their clerical order; and let him do so with the approval of those who share with them. (እመቦ፡ ብእሲ፡ ዘአምጽእዎ፡ ከመ፡ ይሠየም፡ ኤጲስ፡ ቆጶስ፡ ወይኩን፡ ዝንቱ፡ በሥምረተ፡ ሰብአ፡ ብሔሩ፡ ኵሎሙ። ወይኩን፡ ጳጳስ፡ አው፡ ሊቀ፡ ጳጳሳት፡ ዘይሠይሞ፡ ወየሀልዉ፡ ለሢመቱ፡ ኤጲስ፡ ቆጶሳት፡ ክልኤቱ፡ አው፡ ሠለስቱ፡ እስመ፡ ዝንቱ፡ ውእቱ፡ ዘይዌስኮ፡ ሞገሰ፡ ወሢመተ፡ ቀሲስ፡ ወዲያቆን፡ ወዘይቴሐት፡ እምውእቱ፡ ኤጲስ፡ ቆጶስ፡ ባሕቲቱ፡ ይሢሞሙ፡ ውስተ፡ መዓርጊሆሙ፡ በሥርዐተ፡ ክህነቶሙ፡ ወውእቱ፡ ይኩን፡ በሥምረተ፡ እለ፡ ይሳተፍዎሙ።)

[ii] ጳጳስ is left as ‘pāppās’; here it stands beside ሊቀ፡ ጳጳሳት፡ (‘archbishop’) as an alternative minister of the ordination, and so cannot be the same person. The canon reserves the ordination of presbyters, deacons, and the lower orders to the single bishop, against the collegiate requirement for an archbishop in Canon 1.

[iii] The quorum for an episcopal ordination is ክልኤቱ፡ አው፡ ሠለስቱ፡ (‘two or three’) bishops, besides the pāppās or archbishop who performs it.

[i] The Second Recension reads: If either a bishop, a priest, or a deacon transgresses the law of Christ during the offering and presents upon the altar honey or milk, or if instead of drinking wine he offers a drink of sugar, or of something brewed with fire, or anything else – and nothing whatsoever of birds, or of beasts, or anything else is to be sacrificed, save the offering which our Lord Jesus Christ commanded, of pure wheat bread, fine and fresh, and pure wine from clusters which are gathered from the vine – whosoever among them does any of these things other than this shall be deposed from his priesthood and they shall not receive him. And they shall offer again the first fruits of grain in its season, and the first fruits of the harvest, and clusters of grapes in their season when water fills them and they ripen and there is a set time for it, on the feast which is named the Feast of John, and they shall bring them up to the altar and offer them upon it. And the grain-offering shall be in its season, and other than this it is not fitting to offer, nor is it proper to bring into the altar anything at all of oil, save the oil of chrism which is prepared for it as God commanded, and the oil of olive which they pour into the lamps, and sweet-smelling incense of sweet fragrance, which is cinnamon and stacte at the time of the liturgy and prayer, and when they light them. (እመሂ፡ ኤጲስ፡ ቆጶስ፡ አው፡ ቀሲስ፡ አው፡ ዲያቆን፡ ዘተዐደወ፡ ሕገ፡ ክርስቶስ፡ በውስተ፡ ቍርባን፡ ወአቅረበ፡ ዲበ፡ ምሥዋዕ፡ መዐረ፡ አው፡ ሐሊበ፡ ወእመሂ፡ አቅረበ፡ ህየንተ፡ ስቴ፡ ወይን፡ ስቴ፡ ሶካር፡ አው፡ እምአምያስ፡ ዘግቡር፡ በእሳት፡ አው፡ ባዕደ። ወኢምንተሂ፡ እምአዕዋፍ፡ አው፡ እንስሳ፡ ወኢባዕደ፡ ዘይሠውዑ፡ ዘእንበለ፡ ቍርባን፡ ዘአዘዘ፡ እግዚእነ፡ ኢየሱስ፡ ክርስቶስ፡ እምኀብስት፡ ንጹሕ፡ ስንዳሌ፡ ሠናየ፡ ሐዲስ፡ ወወይነ፡ ዘንጡፍ፡ እምአስካል፡ ዘይነሥኡ፡ እምሐረጉ። ወዘገብረ፡ ዘንተ፡ ዘእንበለ፡ ዝንቱ፡ እምኔሆሙ፡ ይስዐር፡ እምክህነቱ፡ ወኢይትወከፍዎ። ወያቅርቡ፡ ካዕበ፡ ሠዊተ፡ ሰብለ፡ በጊዜሁ፡ ወእክለ፡ ቀዳሜ፡ ፍሬ፡ ወአስካለ፡ ወይን፡ ካዕበ፡ በጊዜሁ፡ አመ፡ ይመልኦ፡ ማይ፡ ወይጥዕም፡ ወቦቱ፡ እምርተ፡ ጊዜ፡ በበዓል፡ ዘስሙይ፡ ውእቱ፡ በዓለ፡ ዮሐንስ፡ ወያዕርጉ፡ ውስተ፡ ምሥዋዕ፡ ወያቅርቡ፡ ቦቱ፡ ወሰብልሰ፡ በጊዜሁ፡ ወዘእንበሌሁሰ፡ ኢመፍትው፡ ያቅርቡ፡ ወኢይደሉ፡ ያብኡ፡ ኀበ፡ ምሥዋዕ፡ ምንተኒ፡ ቅብአ፡ ዘእንበለ፡ ቅብአ፡ ሜሮን፡ ዘግቡር፡ ሎቱ፡ ዘአዘዘ፡ እግዚአብሔር፡ ወቅብአ፡ ዘይት፡ ዘያኀትዉ፡ ቦቱ፡ መኃትው፡ ወዕጣነ፡ ጽንሓሓት፡ ዘመዐዛሁ፡ ሠናይ፡ ዘውእቱ፡ ቅንአት፡ ወሰሊኖት፡ በጊዜ፡ ቅዳሴ፡ ወጸሎት፡ ወሶበ፡ ያርኅዉ።)

A cluster of grapes, again, in its season, when its sweetness has come – and that is at the appointed feast which is called the feast of John the Baptist – let them bring up a cluster on the altar, and let them offer with it an ear of grain in its season. The first fruit and the ear of grain are reckoned. But, apart from this, it is not proper that they bring anything to the altar, nor any oil, except the lamps that give light, and the oil of mērōn that is prepared, which God commanded, and oil of olive for kindling, and incense of sinhāh[iii] of good fragrance, which is qin'at and salīhot, at the time of the liturgy and of prayer, and when they open.

[i] All that the faithful have vowed for their souls – the first of their fruits and the firstborn of their animals, of sheep and of goats and of oxen – let them bring to the church, as God commanded; and of the fruits of the trees likewise, and whatever resembles this. And let them bring them to the church or to the dwelling of the bishop[ii], for it is his portion, and he himself has authority over it for the service of the church; and let him not bring up anything of it on the altar. And let the bishop be the one who divides for the presbyters according to their ranks and their service, and let the presbyters divide for the deacons and for all the servants of the church.

[i] The Second Recension reads: All the faithful who bring [offerings] for their souls bring the first fruits and the firstborn of their livestock to the church, as God commanded. And, likewise, from the fruits of the trees and what resembles this, they bring them to the church or to the residence of the bishop, because it is his portion and he has authority over it for the service of the church. And they shall not offer anything of it upon the altar; and let the bishop be the one who distributes them to the priests according to their ranks and their duties, and the priests likewise shall distribute them to the deacons and to all the lay ministers of the church. (ኵሉ፡ ዘበፅዑ፡ መሃይምናን፡ በእንተ፡ ነፍሶሙ፡ ቀዳሜ፡ ፍረያት፡ ወበኵረ፡ እንስሳሆሙ፡ ያምጽእዎሙ፡ ኀበ፡ ቤተ፡ ክርስቲያን፡ በከመ፡ አዘዘ፡ እግዚአብሔር። ወእምፍረያተ፡ ዕፀው፡ ካዕበ፡ ወዘይመስሎ፡ ለዝንቱ፡ ወያምጽእዎሙ፡ ኀበ፡ ቤተ፡ ክርስቲያን፡ አው፡ ኀበ፡ ማኅደረ፡ ኤጲስ፡ ቆጶስ፡ እስመ፡ ውእቱ፡ መክፈልቱ፡ ወለሊሁ፡ ሥሉጥ፡ ባቲ፡ በእንተ፡ መልእክተ፡ ቤተ፡ ክርስቲያን። ወኢያቅርቡ፡ ዲበ፡ ምሥዋዕ፡ እምኔሁ፡ ወኢምንተኒ፡ ወይኩን፡ ኤጲስ፡ ቆጶስ፡ ዘይከፍሎሙ፡ ለቀሳውስት፡ በበመዓርጊሆሙ፡ ወመልእክቶሙ፡ ወቀሳውስትኒ፡ ይክፍልዎሙ፡ ለዲያቆናት፡ ወለኵሉ፡ ላእካነ፡ ቤተ፡ ክርስቲያን።)

[i] If a bishop or a presbyter or a deacon puts out his wife from his dwelling under pretext of continence, and thinks that to approach her is pollution[ii]: it is by her consent and his consent, of the two who were joined, that they go out to monasticism. And if they are such as have forgotten it and make excuses, it is not permitted to them, for that is as though they hated one another. And whoever does such a deed, let the people depose him and let them forbid him his speech; and if he is obstinate in this, let him go out from his office and let him be cut off.

[i] The Second Recension reads: *It is not permitted for a man to dismiss his wife under the pretext of asceticism. It is not lawful for a bishop, a priest, or a deacon to put his wife out of his dwelling under the pretext of asceticism and going toward monasticism, and to separate himself from her. [i] For, it is not proper for bishops, presbyters and deacons who are appointed to the service of the church to take up work from the labour of the world. And, if they do thus, let them not be cast out but let them be fed from the goods of the church. [ii]

[i] The Second Recension reads: Concerning the priests. They shall not be sent on secular service, except for the altar. Let no one among the bishops, priests, and deacons, who are appointed for the service of the Church, seek any worldly business or labour. And if anyone does thus, he shall be deposed again and fall from his office. (በእንተ፡ ካህናት። ኢይትለአኩ፡ ዘእንበለ፡ ለምሥዋዕ። ኢይጎሥሥ፡ መኑሂ፡ እምኤጲስ፡ ቆጶሳት፡ ወቀሳውስት፡ ወዲያቆናት፡ እለ፡ ትኩላን፡ ለመልእክተ፡ ቤተ፡ ክርስቲያን፡ ግብረ፡ እምግብረ፡ ዓለም። ወለእመ፡ ገብረ፡ ከመዝ፡ ይትመተር፡ ካዕበ፡ ወይደቅ፡ እምኂመቱ።)

[ii] The main text's apodosis is lenient, and the 2nd Recension is severe for the same act. The main text can be read either as sparing the cleric who has taken worldly work, or as explaining why he need not take it – the church maintains him; the Ge'ez does not decide between the two.

[i] The Second Recension reads: Concerning the Passover. If a bishop, or a priest, or a deacon, or any one of the clergy of the church celebrates the Passover before the night and day have passed, and enquires into this, let him be likened unto the Jews and celebrate the Passover with them on the same day, rather than on the Sunday which occurs after the Passover of the Jews, let him be deposed from his office and cast out from it. (በእንተ፡ ፋሲካ። እመሂ፡ እጲስ፡ ቆጶስ፡ አው፡ ቀሲስ፡ አው፡ ዲያቆን፡ አው፡ አሐዱ፡ እምላእካነ፡ ቤተ፡ ክርስቲያን፡ ዘገብረ፡ ፋሲካ፡ እምቅድመ፡ የዐረ፡ ሌሊተ፡ ወመዓልተ፡ ወየጎሥሥ፡ በዝንቱ፡ ይትመሰሎሙ፡ ለአይሁድ፡ ወይገብር፡ ምስሌሆሙ፡ ፋሲካ፡ በአሐቲ፡ ዕለት፡ ዘእንበለ፡ በዕለተ፡ እሑድ፡ ዘይከውን፡ እምድኅረ፡ ፋሲካ፡ አይሁድ፡ ለይትመተር፡ እምሢመቱ፡ ወይትገደፍ፡ እምኔሃ።)

[i] If a bishop, presbyter, deacon, or one of the servants of the church has not drawn near and has not received the oblation with the people at the time when they complete the liturgy, let him declare his reason and his sickness; and, if there is a reason for which his holding back at that time is proper, and not at another, let them forgive him. But, if he does thus and it becomes a habit to him, let them put him away and let them drive him out from the people; for, he has become an example and a stumbling-block to many, and he makes it appear of the priest who consecrates the oblation as though he had not consecrated it with a pure mind and in right faith, and as though he were in doubt. [ii]

[i] The Second Recension reads: Concerning the one who rejected the offering. If a bishop, or a priest, or a deacon, or one of the laymen of the church, who has neither offered nor received the offering with the people at the time they finish the liturgy, shall be questioned concerning the reason, [let them examine] his reason and his illness. And, if he finds a reason on account of which he leaves at that time, and not for another cause, let them forgive him. But, if he makes excuses for himself and it becomes a custom for him, let them remove him and let him be cast out, because he has become a stumbling block to the people; and let them consider concerning the priest who offered the offering as though he did not offer it in a pure mind and with a right faith. (በእንተ፡ ዘአበየ፡ ቍርባነ። እመሂ፡ ኤጲስ፡ ቆጶስ፡ አው፡ ቀሲስ፡ አው፡ ዲያቆን፡ አው፡ አሐዱ፡ እምላእካነ፡ ቤተ፡ ክርስቲያን፡ ዘኢቀርበ፡ ወኢተመጠወ፡ ቍርባነ፡ ምስለ፡ ሕዝብ፡ በጊዜ፡ ይፈጽሙ፡ ቅዳሴ፡ በምክንያት፡ ለይጠየቁ፡ ምክንያቱ፡ ወሕማሙ፡ ወለእመ፡ ረከበ፡ ምክንያተ፡ በዘየኅድግ፡ ይእተ፡ ጊዜ፡ ወአኮ፡ ባዕድ፡ ይስረዩ፡ ሎቱ። ወለእመ፡ አመክነየ፡ በእንቲአሁ፡ ወኮኖ፡ ልማደ፡ ይትገሐሥዎ፡ ወይሰደድ፡ እስመ፡ ኮነ፡ ዕቅፍተ፡ ለሕዝብ፡ ወያስተማስል፡ ላዕለ፡ ካህን፡ ዘቀደሰ፡ ቍርባነ፡ ከመዘ፡ ኢቀደሰ፡ በኅሊና፡ ንጹሕ፡ ወበሀይማኖት፡ ርትዕት።)

[i] If any man of the faithful enters the church at the time of the liturgy and hears the holy scriptures, and does not endure until they complete the prayer and the liturgy, and does not receive the oblation, let him be driven out[ii] from the church, for he has corrupted the law and has despised his standing before the heavenly King, the King of flesh and of spirit.

[i] The Second Recension reads: Concerning those who do not remain until the completion of the Liturgy. If there is a man among the faithful who enters into the church at the time of the Liturgy, and hears the Holy Scriptures, and does not have patience until they complete the Liturgy, and does not receive the Holy Communion, let him be cast out of the church, because he has broken the law and despised his standing before the heavenly King. (በእንተ፡ ዘኢይቀውም፡ እስከ፡ ተፍጻሜተ፡ ቅዳሴ። እመቦ፡ ብእሲ፡ እመሀይምናን፡ ዘቦአ፡ ውስተ፡ ቤተ፡ ክርስቲያን፡ በጊዜ፡ ቅዳሴ፡ ወሰምዐ፡ መጻሕፍተ፡ ቅዱሳት፡ ወኢተዐገሠ፡ እስከ፡ ይፈጽሙ፡ ቅዳሴ፡ ወኢተመጠወ፡ ቍርባነ፡ ይሰደድ፡ እምቤተ፡ ክርስቲያን፡ እስመ፡ አማሰነ፡ ሕገ፡ ወአስተሐቀረ፡ ቁመቱ፡ ቅድመ፡ ንጉሥ፡ ሰማያዊ።)

ABTILIS 14

[i] If any presbyter or deacon or others of the priests abandons his place and his church – the place where a bishop or an archbishop or a pāppās ordained him – but does so on his own authority, that he may seek profit and acquire honour from the people of that country, let his office be deposed from both places together, and let him not be reckoned in the number of the priests; but let his station be in the church with the faithful. And all the more: if the bishop has called him to return to his place, and he has not done this and has not answered to turn back to his place, let him be deposed from his priesthood and from their congregation, and let his dwelling be with the faithful; for, he chose to cut the order of the priesthood; and let him be as the people of the faithful. [ii]

ABTILIS 14

[i] The Second Recension reads: Concerning that it is right that priests should not be removed from their places. If there is a priest or other clerics who have abandoned their place and their church, the place where the bishop, archbishop, or patriarch appointed them, without his permission – rather, of their own accord, in order to seek material gain or to acquire glory from the people of that region – he shall be removed from his office in both places together, and he shall not be counted in the number of priests, but his standing in the church shall be with the lay faithful. And all the more so if the bishop called him to return to his place, and he did not do this and disobeyed the command to return to his place, let him be separated from the priests and from their assembly, and let his standing be with the faithful in the church, because he loved to sever the bond of the priesthood; let him be like the believing people. (በእንተ፡ ከመ፡ መፍትው፡ ኢይትዋለጡ፡ ካህናት፡ እመካኖሙ። እመቦ፡ ቀሲስ፡ አው፡ ባዕዳን፡ ካህናት፡ ዘኀደገ፡ መካኖ፡ ወቤተ፡ ክርስቲያኖ፡ መካነ፡ ኀበ፡ ሜሞ፡ ኤጲስ፡ ቆጶስ፡ አው፡ ጳጳስ፡ አው፡ ሊቀ፡ ጳጳሳት፡ ዘእንበለ፡ ያብሕዎ፡ አላ፡ በትእዛዘ፡ ርእሱ፡ ከመ፡ ይኅሥሥ፡ በቍዔት፡ አው፡ ያጥሪ፡ ክብረ፡ እምሰብአ፡ ውእቱ፡ ብሔር፡ ይሰዐር፡ እምሚመቱ፡ እምክልኤሆን፡ መካናት፡ ኀቡረ፡ ወኢይትኈለቍ፡ ውስተ፡ ኍልቈ፡ ካህናት፡ አላ፡ ይኩን፡ ምቅዋሙ፡ በቤተ፡ ክርስቲያን፡ ምስለ፡ መእመናን። ወፈድፋደሰ፡ ለእመ፡ ጸውዖ፡ ኤጲስ፡ ቆጶስ፡ ከመ፡ ይግባእ፡ ኀበ፡ መካኑ፡ ወኢገብረ፡ ዘንተ፡ ወኢተሰጥዎ፡ ከመ፡ ይትመየጥ፡ ኀበ፡ መካኑ፡ ለይትፈለጥ፡ እምካህናት፡ ወእምነ፡ ማኅበሮሙ፡ ወይኩን፡ ምቅዋሙ፡ ምስለ፡ መእመናን፡ በቤተ፡ ክርስቲያን፡ እስመ፡ አፍቀረ፡ ይምትር፡ ማእሰረ፡ ክህነት፡ ለይኩን፡ ከመ፡ ሕዝብ፡ መእመናን።)

[i] If any man has married a woman of hire, one whom he took afterwards in fornication and in adultery, of which we have spoken,[ii] or a pagan woman, or one who is under suspicion: it is not proper for him to be a bishop, nor a presbyter, nor a deacon, nor anything lower than these of the ranks of the priesthood.

[i] The Second Recension reads: Concerning a priest who marries those whom it is not fitting for him to marry. If a man marries a divorced woman, or a repudiated one, or an adulteress, or a maidservant, or a widow, or a relative, it is not fitting for him to be a bishop, nor a priest, nor a deacon, nor any inferior clerical order. (በእንተ፡ ዘአውሰበ፡ ዘኢይደልዎሙ፡ ለካህናት። እመቦ፡ ብእሲ፡ ዘአውሰበ፡ ብእሲተ፡ ማእሰበ፡ አው፡ እንተ፡ ደሐርዋ፡ አው፡ ዘማዊተ፡ አው፡ አመተ፡ አው፡ ምርዕተ፡ አው፡ እሕዝተ፡ ኢይከውኖ፡ ይኩን፡ ኤጲስ፡ ቆጶስ፡ ወኢቀሲስ፡ ወኢዲያቆን፡ ወኢዘይቴሐት፡ እምኔሁ፡ እመዓርገ፡ ክህነ።)

[i] If any man has married two sisters, or has married the daughter of his sister or the daughter of his brother: it is not proper for him to be ordained bishop, nor presbyter, nor deacon, nor anything of the ranks of the priesthood; and let him be driven out from the people, and he has no portion with the faithful. [ii]

[i] The Second Recension reads: Concerning him who contracts an unlawful marriage. If there be a man who has married two sisters, or has married the daughter of his sister, or the daughter of his brother, it shall not be allowed to him; he shall be deposed from any rank of priesthood, and he shall be expelled from the church, and he shall have no portion with the faithful. (በእንተ፡ ዘአውሰበ፡ ዘኢመፍትው። እመቦ፡ ብእሲ፡ ዘአውሰበ፡ ክልኤተ፡ አኃተ፡ አው፡ አውሰበ፡ ወለተ፡ እኁቱ፡ አው፡ ወለተ፡ እኁሁ፡ ኢይከውኖ፡ ይሠየም፡ ወኢምንተኒ፡ እመዓርገ፡ ክህነት፡ ወይሰደድ፡ እምቤተ፡ ክርስቲያን፡ ወአልቦ፡ መክፈልተ፡ ምስለ፡ መእመናን።)

[i] The Second Recension reads: *Concerning eunuchs. ABTILIS 21

[i] The Second Recension reads: *Concerning one who castrates himself. [i] The Second Recension reads: Concerning one who has defiled himself after the priesthood. If there is a man among the priests who has recently defiled himself after the priesthood, let him be cut off from his office and driven out of the church for three years, because he has become an enemy to his own life and has loved the death of his soul. (በእንተ፡ ዘጎጸወ፡ ርእሶ፡ እምድኅረ፡ ክህነት። እመቦ፡ ብእሲ፡ እምካህናት፡ ዘጎጸወ፡ ርእሶ፡ ሐዲሰ፡ እምድኅረ፡ ክህነት፡ ለይትመተር፡ እምኒመቱ፡ ወይሰደድ፡ እምቤተ፡ ክርስቲያን፡ ሠለስተ፡ ዓመተ፡ እስመ፡ ኮነ፡ ፀረ፡ ለሕይወቱ፡ ወአፍቀረ፡ ሞተ፡ ነፍሱ።)

If there is a believer who has mutilated himself, let him be cast out of the church for three years, because he has become an enemy to the creation of God and a murderer of his own soul*. [i] Whether a bishop, or a presbyter, or a deacon, or one below them in the degrees of the priesthood, who has been found in fornication, or in a false oath, or has stolen: let him be cut off from the priesthood, and let him not be driven out[ii] from the church; for, God said in the Scripture, “God does not take vengeance twice for one offence.” [iii]

[i] The Second Recension reads: Concerning a priest who is found in evil. If a bishop, or a priest, or a deacon, or anyone of lower clerical rank is found in fornication, or has sworn falsely, or has stolen, let him be cut off from his priesthood, but let him not be driven out of the church, nor let him remain among the priests, but within the church; for, God says in the Scripture, “God will not forgive the same sin a second time.” (በእንተ፡ ካህን፡ ዘይትረከብ፡ በእኪት። እመቦ፡ ኤጲስ፡ ቆጶስ፡ አው፡ ቀሲስ፡ አው፡ ዲያቆን፡ አው፡ ዘይቴሐቶሙ፡ እመሳርገ፡ ክህነት፡ ዘተረክበ፡ በዝሙት፡ ወመሐለ፡ በሐሰት፡ አው፡ ሰረቀ፡ ለይትመተር፡ እምክህነቱ፡ ወኢይሰደድ፡ እምቤተ፡ ክርስቲያን፡ ወኢይሀሉ፡ ውስተ፡ ካህናት፡ አላ፡ ውስተ፡ ቤተ፡ ክርስቲያን፡ እስመ፡ እግዚአብሔር፡ ይቤ፡ በመጽሐፍ፡ እግዚአብሔር፡ ኢይትቤቀል፡ ካዕበ፡ በአሐቲ፡ አበሳ።)

[ii] This canon sets two of the penalty verbs against one another: ይትመተር (‘let him be cut off’) is imposed, while ይሰደድ (‘let him be driven out’) is expressly refused. Rendering both by one English phrase would destroy the canon's argument.

[iii] The quotation (እግዚአብሔር፡ ኢይትቤቀል፡ ካዕበ፡ በአሐቲ፡ አበሳ) is given as Scripture but not attributed to a book; the sentiment answers to Na 1:9.

[i] If any man has entered into the church and received the priesthood out of righteousness(?), we command that he marry, if he has desired this; but, for any other, no.

[i] The Second Recension has a rather different (and, in some ways, more coherent) text for this canon: *Concerning the ordination of a priest. Abtilis 29

[i] If any bishop has sought protection for his office with men outside, and with princes, and with the rulers of this world, that they may support him over the office of the church; and he desires to weaken the people of God, pure and holy, whom the pure vessel bore, which is holy baptism; and he exalts himself over them by what is not fitting; and he makes himself a church which was not his, and over which he is not appointed: and likewise, a church in which there is a chief priest, and priests under the hand of that chief priest, and that bishop has stretched out his hand to the rule of that church and to the rule of its priests, or of monks, that is, a monastery, without the authority of their own chief priest: he is accursed and excommunicate, and let him be cut off from the church of God, he and all those who helped him in this and supported(?) him in it.

[i] The Second Recension reads: Concerning the acquisition of priesthood through the agency of power. If there is a bishop who has secured his appointment through outsiders, or rulers, or worldly authorities, in order that they might assist him against the order of the Church, and he desires by this means to weaken the people of God – the pure and holy whom the pure vessel has borne, which is holy Baptism – and exalts himself over them improperly, or establishes for himself a church that is not his own and over which he is not appointed, and in that church there is another high priest and priests beneath that leader, that bishop shall fall from the order of that church and from the authority of its priests, or the monks who are there without the order of that leader who is theirs: he is condemned and accursed, and he shall be cut off from the Church of God, both he and all those who assisted him in this and sustained him in it. (በእንተ፡ ዘይመሥጥ፡ ክህነተ፡ በእደ፡ ኀይል። እመቦ፡ ኤጲስ፡ ቆጶስ፡ ዘተማሕፀነ፡ በእንተ፡ ሚመቱ፡ በሰብአ፡ አፍአ፡ አው፡ በመኳንንት፡ አው፡ በሥዩማነ፡ ዓለም፡ ከመ፡ ይርድእዎ፡ ላዕለ፡ ትእዛዘ፡ ቤተ፡ ክርስቲያን፡ ወይፈቅድ፡ በዝንቱ፡ አድክሞ፡ ሕዝበ፡ እግዚአብሔር፡ ንጹሐ፡ ወቅዱሰ፡ እንተ፡ ወለደቶ፡ ንዋይ፡ ንጽሕት፡ እንተ፡ ይእቲ፡ ጥምቀት፡ ቅድስት፡ ወይትሌዐል፡ ላዕሌሆሙ፡ በዘኢይደሉ፡ አው፡ ይሬሲ፡ ለርእሱ፡ ቤተ፡ ክርስቲያን፡ ዘኢኮነ፡ ዚአሁ፡ ወኢሥዩም፡ ውእቱ፡ ላዕሌሃ፡ ወባቲ፡ ይእቲ፡ ቤተ፡ ክርስቲያን፡ ሊቀ፡ ካህናት፡ ካልአ፡ ወካህናተ፡ እምታሕተ፡ ውእቱ፡ ሊቅ፡ ለይደቅ፡ ውእቱ፡ ኤጲስ፡ ቆጶስ፡ እምትእዛዘ፡ ይእቲ፡ ቤተ፡ ክርስቲያን፡ ወእምትእዛዘ፡ ካህናቲሃ፡ አው፡ መነኮሳተ፡ ዘህየ፡ ዘእንበለ፡ ትእዛዘ፡ ውእቱ፡ ሊቅ፡ ዘዚአሆሙ፡ ውጉዝ፡ ውእቱ፡ ወርጉም፡ ወይትመተር፡ እምቤተ፡ ክርስቲያኑ፡ ለእግዚአብሔር፡ ውእቱኒ፡ ወኵሎሙ፡ እለ፡ ረድእዎ፡ ላዕለ፡ ዝንቱ፡ ወባልሕዎ፡ ቦቱ።)

[i] The Second Recension reads: *Concerning a priest who treats a canonical sentence lightly. If there is a priest whom a bishop has deposed on account of blasphemy that he spoke, or known sin, or whom he found guilty by judgment, or the withdrawal of that bishop who is pure from blemish and defilement, in righteousness and goodness according to the law; and [if] he makes light of it and acts as his own master, and takes from the people, and divides the church of God into two parts, let him be cut off from the house of God, because he loved office for himself and abandoned the commandment to the bishop when it was fitting for him [to obey]. [i] If any presbyter or deacon has been deposed by a bishop on account of a word of denial which he speaks, or of blasphemy against God, under pretexts of office: let none of the bishops receive him. But if he who deposed him be one who has resigned, or has fled, or has died, then it is permitted to the man appointed in his stead, and permitted also to another, to look into his case; and he who looks into his case shall go by the track of his law.

[i] The Second Recension reads: *That a bishop may not receive one whom another has excommunicated. If there is a priest or deacon who has been deposed by a bishop on account of a word of denial or blasphemy against God, it shall not be lawful for other bishops to receive him, unless the one who deposed him has moved away, or been deposed, or died. ABTILIS 32

[i] Let not a bishop receive any stranger from among presbyters and deacons who have come from distant provinces, and let them not perform the order of the priesthood, unless they have a letter of authority such as befits them. And, if they have a letter, let inquiry be made into their conduct; and, if faithful and righteous men have borne witness for them in truth that the matter is as they say, let them receive them with a good reception. And, if they have not borne witness for them accordingly, let them give them what they require, and let them not be joined with the children of the church; for, such a thing happens often, by imposture: men write letters for them while they do not know their manner of life with exact knowledge.

[i] The Second Recension reads for this canon: Concerning bishops. A priest from another place shall not be received except by a letter of recommendation from his region. A bishop, priests, and deacons shall not receive another bishop, priests, and deacons who come from distant regions, nor shall they treat them as clergy, unless they possess a letter of recommendation as is fitting for them. And, if they possess a letter, they shall examine their conduct; and, if trustworthy and good people testify to them as they say, they shall receive them with a good welcome. However, if people do not testify to them in this manner, they shall give them what they wish, but they shall not be counted among the children of the Holy Church, because many are like these, who write books for them without knowing them with true knowledge. (በእንተ፡ ኤጲስ፡ ቆጶሳት። ኢይትወከፉ፡ ካህነ፡ ባዕደ፡ ዘእንበለ፡ በመባሕት፡ እምብሔሩ። ኢይትወከፍ፡ ኤጲስ፡ ቆጶስ፡ ካልአ፡ ኤጲስ፡ ቆጶስ፡ ወቀሳውስት፡ ወዲያቆናት፡ ባዕደ፡ እለ፡ መጽኡ፡ እምበሓውርት፡ ርሑቅ፡ ወኢይረስይዎሙ፡ ከመ፡ ካህናት፡ ዘእንበለ፡ ዳእሙ፡ ለእመ፡ ቦሙ፡ መጽሐፈ፡ መባሕት፡ በዘ፡ ይደልዎሙ። ወእመሰ፡ ቦሙ፡ መጽሐፈ፡ ይጠይቁ፡ ግብሮሙ፡ ወእመ፡ ኮንዎሙ፡ ሰማዕተ፡ ሰብእ፡ መእመናን፡ ወጌራን፡ በከመ፡ ይብሉ፡ ይትወከፍዎሙ፡ በሠናይ፡ ተወክፎ። ወእመሰ፡ ኢኮንዎሙ፡ ሰማዕተ፡ በዘከማሁ፡ የሀብዎሙ፡ ዘይፈቅዱ፡ ወኢይደመሩ፡ ምስለ፡ ውሉደ፡ ቤተ፡ ክርስቲያን፡ ቅድስት፡ እስመ፡ ይከውን፡ ዘከመ፡ እሉ፡ ብዙኅ፡ ዘይጽሕፉ፡ ሎሙ፡ መጻሕፍተ፡ እንዘ፡ ኢያአምርዎሙ፡ ጥዩቀ፡ አእምሮ።)

[i] And it is fitting for a bishop that he know what befits him. For it has been commanded him that he set himself in order again, and that he do so over all the people, that God may know this with him. And if it be so, let him do everything by his own will; and let him be one who knows the honour of the elders who are over him, whether archbishop or metropolitan; and let him do nothing except by their counsel, but rather what all the people of his country and of his office desire, for it is this that makes his work and his place upon the throne good. And again, it is fitting for the archbishop and the metropolitan to honour the bishops. And if the archbishop desires to appoint a metropolitan, let him bring one from among the bishops who are within his office; and that also is a great matter.

[i] The Second Recension reads for this canon: Concerning the humility of a bishop and the observance of what is fitting for him. It is fitting for a bishop to know what is proper for him, if he desires what we have commanded, and to regulate himself accordingly, and to set himself right before the people so that God may be with him. And if it is thus, let him do nothing of his own will, but let him know the honour of the superior who is over him, whether he be a bishop or an archbishop, and let him do nothing of his own will except for minor matters that are permitted for the men of his office, in which his seat is secure. If there is a man who was appointed as a bishop and did not stand in the office of a bishop, nor does he remain in his rank, nor did he rightfully receive [it], nor was he sent to the church of God which his soul was planted for, nor did he take hold of the commandment as is proper, he shall be removed from among them until he receives the office. And if he was appointed to a church of God and the people did not receive him, and his appointment was not of his own will, but [rather] whom God chose and appointed, and half of the people of the city – yet, however, the priests hate him out of stubbornness and hatred – that he may not be appointed over them, while half of them are like that, let him be the bishop whether they loved or hated [him]. And if there is any who separated himself from the priests of that place, let these priests be cut off, because they did not agree nor were they submissive in love. (በእንተ፡ ዘይደሉ፡ ለኤጲስ፡ ቆጶስ፡ ይግበር። እመቦ፡ ብእሲ፡ ዘተሠይመ፡ ኤጲስ፡ ቆጶስ፡ ወኢቆመ፡ በግብረ፡ ኤጲስ፡ ቆጶስና፡ ወኢይቀውም፡ በመዓርጊሁ፡ ወኢተወክፈ፡ በርትዕ፡ ወኢተልእከ፡ ለቤተ፡ ክርስቲያኑ፡ ለእግዚአብሔር፡ ዘተከለ፡ ላቲ፡ ነፍሶ፡ ወኢአኀዘ፡ ትእዛዘ፡ በከመ፡ ይደሉ፡ ይሰዐር፡ እምኔሆሙ፡ እስከ፡ ይትወከፍ፡ ግብራ። ወለእመ፡ ተሠይመ፡ ኀበ፡ ቤተ፡ ክርስቲያን፡ ዘእግዚአብሔር፡ ወኢተወክፍዎ፡ ሰብእ፡ ወኢኮነ፡ ሢመቱ፡ በፈቃዱ፡ አላ፡ ዘኀረዮ፡ እግዚአብሔር፡ ወሜሞ፡ ወመንፈቀ፡ ሰብአ፡ ሀገሩ፡ ወባሕቱ፡ ይጸልእዎ፡ ካህናት፡ በተቃሕዎ፡ ወጽልእ፡ ከመ፡ ኢይኩን፡ ሥዩመ፡ ላዕሌሆሙ፡ ወመንፈቆሙ፡ ከማሁ፡ ለይኩን፡ ኤጲስ፡ ቆጶስ፡ እመሂ፡ አፍቀሩ፡ አው፡ ጸልኡ። ወለእመቦ፡ ዘተፈልጠ፡ እምካህናተ፡ ውእቱ፡ መካን፡ ለይትመተሩ፡ እሉ፡ ካህናት፡ እስመ፡ ኢተሰናአዉ፡ ወኢተአዘዙ፡ በፍቅር።)

ABTILIS 36

[i] We have commanded that there be a synod. Let them assemble twice in each year, and let them examine one another for the renewal of the fear of God, and that there be no stumbling-block in the faith, and that they may know all that has newly arisen among them, by inquiry concerning the law, and concerning the ordering of their churches, and concerning their judgements, and every matter in which men have used violence against justice, and anything wherein their metropolitan or their archbishop has seen fit. And if there has been strife among the people, decide it and reconcile them. And let the first synod be on the fourth Sabbath from Pentecost, and before May – that is the month Ayār, and in the reckoning of Egypt in Śānis, which is Ginbot – at Pentecsot; and the second synod on the [ii]12th of Tishrin the First, and in the reckoning of Egypt the middle of the month, in Abā, which is Tiqimt, after the feast of the Cross.

[i] The Second Recension reads: Concerning the assembly of the bishops, again, annually. We have commanded that the assembly take place twice a year, and that they examine one another with the knowledge of the fear of God, concerning matters that are renewed among them concerning the law, the administration of their churches, and whatever is hidden among them, they shall discuss it and make it manifest. And if there is any judgment among people, they have the authority to settle it and make peace among the people. And let the first assembly be on the fourth Sunday of Pentecost, which month is Sone in the reckoning of the Egyptians, which is Ginbot [May]; and the second assembly on the 12th of the month of Pakhons, which is Teqemt [October]. (በእንተ፡ ጉባኤ፡ ኤጲስ፡ ቆጶሳት፡ ካዕበ፡ በበዓመት። አዘዝነ፡ ከመ፡ ይኩን፡ ጉባኤ፡ በዓመት፡ ክልኤ፡ ጊዜ፡ ወይትሐተቱ፡ በበይናቲሆሙ፡ በአእምሮ፡ ፈሪሀ፡ እግዚአብሔር፡ ወበእንተ፡ ዘይትሐደስ፡ በጎቤሆሙ፡ ነገራት፡ በእንተ፡ ሕግ፡ ወበግብረ፡ አብያተ፡ ክርስቲያናቲሆሙ፡ ወዘተሰወረ፡ እመንፈቆሙ፡ ይፈክሩ፡ ሎቱ፡ ወያርእዩ። ወለእመ፡ ፍትሐ፡ ማእከለ፡ ሰብእ፡ ይሥልጥዎ፡ ወይዕርቁ፡ ማእከለ፡ ሕዝብ። ወይኩን፡ ቀዳሚት፡ ጉባኤ፡ በራብዕ፡ ሰንበት፡ ዘጳንጠቈስቴ፡ ወውእቱ፡ ወርኀ፡ በሶንስ፡ በሐሳበ፡ ግብጻዊያን፡ ዘውእቱ፡ ግንቦት፡ ወካልእታ፡ ጉባኤ፡ አመ፡ ፲ወ፪፡ ለወርኀ፡ በአባ፡ ዘውእቱ፡ ጥቅምት።)

[i] All the property of the church, and all that is hers, shall be in the hand of the bishop. Let him keep and the hold it, because it befits him and he has been faithful in it. And he again shall have the dividing of it among the priests, as is fitting and as God has commanded in this: that the priests be provided, each according to his dwelling and each according to his degree, in justice. There are some of them who receive two shares, and some who receive three shares, and some who receive one share, as we have ordained in the Book of Apportionment. And it is not fitting for him to do this by his own will and pleasure, nor to divide it according to the standing of those he favours from among his friends or his kinsmen; but let him divide rightly, as is fitting, according to the companies of the priests: to the elders according to their greatness, and to the lesser according to their measure. There is that which elevates and there is that which humbles, and it is not fitting for him to do this according to his own pleasure. He shall not distribute out of favouritism to his beloved and his relatives; and if the poor come, he shall give them their sustenance according to ability and not in excess, for it is proper for the priests, and he shall not multiply sustenance for himself, nor wear precious vestments, lest he waste the property of the church and God demand an accounting for it*. [i] We command this law: let the bishop have authority over the property of the church, being awe-inspiring and forbearing, since they have entrusted to him the souls of men, which is a precious and a great thing. And it is fitting for him also that he be entrusted with all the property of the church, to divide it for the presbyters and for the deacons; and let him be in the fear of God, in purity and in dread. And let the bishop be one who takes from it as much as he requires for himself and for his brethren the priests, so that he diminish nothing of their need. For the law of God has commanded thus: everyone who has been devoted to the ministry of the altar, let his food be from the property of the altar; and likewise the soldier who guards the gates of the king, that he be fed from the property of the king. We command that he have authority over all the property of the church, if he is of understanding. For, since we have entrusted him with the precious and great soul of man, it is fitting that he be trusted with the property of the church, to distribute it to the priests and deacons, and that he be in the fear of God, with fear and purity. And let the bishop also take from it the measure of his allowance – he himself and his brother priests – so that he may not deprive them of any part of their allowance, for the law of God has commanded thus. Everything that is dedicated to the service of the altar, let its sustenance be from the property of the altar; and similarly, the soldier who is appointed to the service of the king, they do not withhold his own sustenance, and the one who rides, and the equipment of his field which he has, fights in the war of the enemy of the king.* (በእንተ፡ ኤጲስ፡ ቆጶስ፡ ከመ፡ ይኩን፡ ሥሉጠ፡ በትእዛዘ፡ ንዋየ፡ ቤተ፡ ክርስቲያን። ንሕነ፡ ንኤዝዝ፡ ከመ፡ ይኩን፡ ሥሉጠ፡ ላዕለ፡ ኵሉ፡ ንዋየ፡ ቤተ፡ ክርስቲያን፡ ለእመ፡ ኮነ፡ ልብወ፡ እስመ፡ ሶበ፡ አመናሁ፡ ላዕለ፡ ነፍሰ፡ ሰብእ፡ ክቡር፡ ወዐቢይ፡ ይደልዎ፡ ይትአመን፡ ላዕለ፡ ንዋየ፡ ቤተ፡ ክርስቲያን፡ ከመ፡ ይክፍሎ፡ ላዕለ፡ ቀሳውስት፡ ወዲያቆናት፡ ወይኩን፡ በፈሪሀ፡ እግዚአብሔር፡ በፍርሃት፡ ወበንጽሕ። ወይንሣእ፡ ኤጲስ፡ ቆጶስኒ፡ እምኔሁ፡ መጠነ፡ መፍቅዱ፡ ውእቱኒ፡ ወአኃዊሁ፡ ካህናት፡ ከመ፡ ኢያሕጽጸሙ፡ ወኢምንተኒ፡ እመፍቅዶሙ፡ እስመ፡ ሕገ፡ እግዚአብሔር፡ አዘዘ፡ ከመዝ። ኵሉ፡ ዘኮነ፡ ፅሙደ፡ ለመልእክተ፡ ምሥዋዕ፡ ይኩን፡ ሲሳዩ፡ እምንዋየ፡ ምሥዋዕ፡ ወከማሁ፡ ሐራዊ፡ ዘተአዘዘ፡ ውስተ፡ ግብረ፡ ንጉሥ፡ ኢይክልእዎ፡ ሲሳዮ፡ ዘለርእሱ፡ ወዘይጼዐን፡ ወንዋየ፡ ሐቅሉ፡ ዘቦቱ፡ ይትቃተል፡ ውስተ፡ ፀብአ፡ ፀሩ፡ ለንጉሥ።)

[i] If there is a bishop, presbyter, or deacon who has been baptized with the baptism of the heretics, or who partakes of their oblation, let them be deposed from their office; for, they is no fellowship between Christ and Satan, and the believers have no portion with a pagan, nor the upright with the lame.

[i] The Second Recension reads: Concerning the commandment regarding priests from evil. If there be a bishop, or a priest, or a deacon who is accustomed to anger and drunkenness, and dwells in wickedness, doing evil and abandoning the doing of good, let him be turned away from it; and if not, let him be deposed from his office. And every man among the faithful whose conduct is thus shall be driven from the house of God of the faithful; and every one of the priests who does thus or dares what is not fitting shall be rebuked for it, and if not, let him be cut off from his priesthood. (በእንተ፡ ትእዛዘ፡ ካህናት፡ እምእኩይ። እመቦ፡ ኤጲስ፡ ቆጶስ፡ አው፡ ቀሲስ፡ አው፡ ዲያቆን፡ ዘይለምድ፡ ቍጥዓ፡ ወስካረ፡ ወይነብር፡ በእከይ፡ ዘይገብር፡ ወኀደገ፡ ገቢረ፡ ሠናይ፡ ለይትመየጥ፡ እምኔሁ፡ ወእመአኮ፡ ይስዐር፡ እምሢመቱ። ወኵሉ፡ ብእሲ፡ እመሀይምናን፡ ዘከመዝ፡ ግብሩ፡ ይሰደድ፡ እምቤተ፡ ክርስቲያኑ፡ ለእግዚአብሔር፡ ወኵሉ፡ ዘእምካህናት፡ ዘገብረ፡ ከመዝ፡ አው፡ ደፈረ፡ ለዘ፡ ኢይደሉ፡ ይትገሠጽ፡ እምኔሁ፡ ወእመአኮ፡ ይትመተር፡ እምክህነቱ።)

[i] If there is a bishop, or a presbyter, or a deacon who demands of the man to whom he has lent either assistance or interest,[ii] let him be deposed from his rank – unless indeed he abandons that practice and turns away from it.

[i] The Second Recension reads: Concerning interest. If a bishop, or a priest, or a deacon, seeks to lend assistance with interest, he shall be deposed from his office, unless indeed he turns back and abandons that deed. (በእንተ፡ ርዴ። እመሂ፡ እጲስ፡ ቆጶስ፡ አው፡ ቀሲስ፡ አው፡ ዲያቆን፡ ዘጎሠሠ፡ እምጎበ፡ ዘለቀሐ፡ ረድኤተ፡ አው፡ ርዴ፡ ይትመተር፡ እመዓርጊሁ፡ ዘእንበለ፡ ዳእሙ፡ ለእመ፡ ተመይጠ፡ ወጎደገ፡ ውእተ፡ ግብረ።)

[ii] The word, ርዴ, is 'interest' or 'usury' and ረድኤተ is ordinarily 'help' or 'assistance' – here, it appears to mean a favour exacted of the debtor over and above the loan; the pair is left as 'assistance or interest' rather than resolved.

[i] The Second Recension reads: *Concerning joining with the schismatics. If there is a bishop, or a priest, or a deacon who has prayed with the schismatics, who are called Arsis in the Greek tongue, let the superior who is over him depose him. As for a bishop, let a patriarch or an archbishop depose him; and as for a priest and those below him, let a bishop depose them. [i] The Second Recension has, for this canon, a shorter version of our Canon 43: *Concerning the baptism of heretics. ABTILIS 45

[i] The Second Recension has, for this canon, a shorter version of our Canon 44: *Concerning salvation. If any bishop, presbyter, or deacon, or anyone numbered among the clergy, refuses marriage, the eating of meat, or the drinking of wine, not for the sake of ascetic discipline, but as if they were defiled, and considers himself better than others, and refuses to partake of them for this reason, doing this out of arrogance – because everything God created is very good, and both male and female are the creation of God, good and fair – instead, he blasphemes against the creation of God and denies that His creation is good, let him be cut off from the house of God, and likewise any believer. [i] If there is a man of the clergy, of the believers, who has reviled a presbyter, or a deacon, or one lower than these, or one exalted above them, and has cursed them after the manner we said before, let him be driven out.

[i] The Second Recension reads: Concerning one who curses the priests from among the people. If there is a man from the priests or from the faithful who reviles a priest or a deacon, or curses them, as we stated beforehand, let him be excommunicated. (በእንተ፡ ዘይረግም፡ ካህናተ፡ እምሕዝብ። እመቦ፡ ብእሲ፡ እምካህናት፡ አው፡ እመሀይምናን፡ ዘጸዐለ፡ ቀሲስ፡ አው፡ ዲያቆን፡ አው፡ ረገሞሙ፡ በከመ፡ አቅደምነ፡ ነጊረ፡ ለይትፈለጥ።)

ABTILIS 52

[i] If there is a man of the clergy or of the laity who has mocked or laughed at a man who is deaf, or blind, or dumb, or lame, or sick, or paralytic, or bald[ii], let him be deposed. For thus said God in the Law, "Do not make a stumbling-block for the blind, and do not mock the dumb, and do not revile any of those whom affliction has met, for it is from God. He makes grievous and he makes light; he makes poor and he makes rich; he kills and he makes alive; he makes sick and he heals." And he who has done thus: if he be a priest, let him be deposed from his priesthood; and if he be a layman, let them withhold the oblation from him; and he is driven out from the law of God, both of old and of the new.

[i] The Second Recension reads: Concerning those who mock the sick. If there be any man, whether among the priests or the laity, who mocks or laughs at a man who is deaf, or blind, or dumb, or lame, or sick, or paralytic, or infirm, let him be deposed; for thus says the Lord in the Law: "You shall not put a stumbling block before the blind, nor shall you cause the deaf to be angry." And let no one despise a faithful person who has been visited with affliction from God, for it is from God. He makes poor and makes rich, He humbles and exalts, He kills and makes alive, He causes sickness and He heals. And whoever does thus, if he is a priest, let him be deposed from his priesthood; and if he is a layman, let them withhold him from the offering. This is his punishment, and he is cast out from the law of God, of both the Old and of the New [Testament]. (በእንተ፡ ዘይሳለቅ፡ ላዕለ፡ ድውያን። እመቦ፡ ብእሲ፡ እምካህናት፡ ወሕዝባዊያን፡ ዘተሳለቀ፡ አው፡ ሠሐቀ፡ ብእሴ፡ ጽሙመ፡ አው፡ ዕዉረ፡ አው፡ በሃመ፡ አው፡ ሐንካሰ፡ አው፡ ድዉየ፡ አው፡ መፃጉዐ፡ አው፡ ዝልጉሰ፡ ለይሰዐር፡ እስመ፡ ከመዝ፡ ይቤ፡ እግዚአብሔር፡ በውስተ፡ ሕግ፡ ኢትግበር፡ ቅድመ፡ ዕዉር፡ ዕቅፍተ፡ ወኢታምዕያ፡ ለበሃም። ወኢይጽዐል፡ መነሂ፡ መሀይምነ፡ ዘረከቦ፡ መንሱት፡ እምኀበ፡ እግዚአብሔር፡ እስመ፡ ውእቱ፡ እምኀበ፡ እግዚአብሔር። ያዐጽብ፡ ወያቀልል፡ ያነዲ፡ ወያብዕል፡ ይቀትል፡ ወያሐዩ፡ ያደዊ፡ ወይፈውስ። ወዘገብረ፡ ከመዝ፡ እመሂ፡ ካህን፡ ይስዐር፡ እምክህነቱ፡ ወእመሂ፡ ሕዝባዊ፡ ይክልእዎ፡ ቍርባነ፡ ወዝንቱ፡ ፍዳሁ፡ ወስዱድ፡ ውእቱ፡ እምሕገ፡ እግዚአብሔር፡ ዘብሉይ፡ ወዘሐዲስ።)

[i] If there is a man of the believers who has fallen into multiplying of fornication, and this has become for him a constant habit; or into lying with a male[ii], for this desire is bound up with the other; and, likewise, of the women whose conduct is such, and of others also whose conduct is such, out of seduction and fornicating and the idol, of which it is spoken in the book of the Law: let him prolong his mourning over his soul, and his repentance; and let him not be ordained to any rank at all of the priesthood. And, if he has prolonged this and has repented well, let them receive him.

[i] The Second Recension (wherein this is Canon 56) reads: *Concerning fornication and other things that are not fitting. If there is a believing man who has fallen into great fornication openly, so that he even becomes like the sons of fornicators by harlots, and [commits] other evil things like sorcery and idolatry that they give him, let him weep over his soul and repent. [i] If there is a man of the clergy or of the laity who has denied his faith out of fear of the Jews and the pagans and the heretics, and has not made his faith manifest, he is a summons to perversion and to the denial of Christ. Let him be driven out from the church;[ii] and, if he has denied his priesthood, let him be deposed from his rank; and, if he has repented, let them receive him with the believers.

[i] The Second Recension (wherein this is Canon 57) reads: *Concerning the one who denies his law. If there is a man among priests and laypeople who denies his law out of fear of Jews, pagans, and heretics, and does not reveal the work of his law, and becomes a leader for denial and exalts himself in the name of Christ, he shall be expelled from the church. ABTILIS 64

[i] If there is a bishop, or a presbyter, or a deacon who married two wives before he was appointed to his rank: let him be cut off, both he and the one who appointed him – unless they say that the one who appointed him did not know his deed, and then it is fitting that he alone be cut off, because he hid his sin out of love of the priesthood. And this is written in another book. [ii] And if there is a priest who was appointed a second time, and whoever has done the like: let him be deposed from his office, both he and the one who appointed him. But if he said that the one who first appointed him was an apostate – for the baptism of the apostates, which he received, and their priesthood, was no priesthood; nor is he who receives this from him truly a believer.

[i] The Second Recension (wherein this is Canon 63) reads: Concerning marrying two. And if a bishop, or a priest, or a deacon has married two before being ordained, let him be deposed, both he and the one who ordained him. But, if the one who ordained him pleads that he did not know his deed, and it is fitting for him [the offender] alone to be deposed, because he hid his sin out of love for the priesthood. And there are among these those who are ordained a second time. And he who was ordained a second time, let him be removed from his office, as also the one who ordained him. But, if he declares that the one who previously ordained him was a heretic before true baptism, because the priesthood of the heretics was not a priesthood, nor was there a man who would receive their baptism as that of the faithful and of a priest. (በእንተ፡ ዘአውሰበ፡ ክልኤተ። እመሂ፡ ኤጲስ፡ ቆጶስ፡ አው፡ ቀሲስ፡ አው፡ ዲያቆን፡ ዘአውሰበ፡ ክልኤተ፡ እምቅድመ፡ ይሠየም፡ ለይትመተር፡ ውእቱሂ፡ ወዘሜሞ። አላ፡ ለእመ፡ ነገረ፡ ዘሜሞ፡ ከመ፡ ኢያእመረ፡ ግብሮ፡ ወይደልዎ፡ ለውእቱ፡ ይትመተር፡ ባሕቲቱ፡ እስመ፡ ጎብአ፡ ጎጢአቶ፡ በአፍቅሮ፡ ክህነት። ወቦ፡ እምእሉ፡ እለ፡ ይሠየሙ፡ ዳግመ። ወዘተሠይመ፡ ዳግመ፡ ለይስዐር፡ እምኂመቱ፡ ወዘሜሞሂ። አላ፡ ለእመ፡ ነገረ፡ ከመ፡ ዘሜሞ፡ ቀዳሚ፡ ካህነ፡ አረሳዊ፡ ውእቱ፡ እምቅድመ፡ ጥምቀት፡ ዘበአማን፡ እስመ፡ ክህነቶሙ፡ ለዕልዋን፡ ኢኮነት፡ ክህነተ፡ ወኢኮነ፡ ብእሲ፡ ዘይትወከፍ፡ ጥምቀቶሙ፡ መሀይመነ፡ ወካህነ።)

[i] If there is a man of the priests who does not fast the great fast, the forty[ii] pure days, and the day of Wednesday and the day of Friday, according to the law of the church: let him be deposed from his office – unless bodily sickness hindered him, or a known infirmity which excuses him in it. And, if a layman does the like, let him be driven out.

[i] The Second Recension (wherein this is Canon 64) reads: *Concerning the commandment of fasting. If any man does not fast the great fast of 40 days, and Wednesdays and Fridays continually, according to the law of the Church which we have ordained, let him be deposed from his office, unless bodily illness prevents him from it, or a known reason that excuses him. [i] If there is a man of the priests or of the laity who fasts with the Jews in their fast, and keeps Fāsikā[ii] with them, or receives from them of the offering of their feast, and their unleavened bread, and the like, and who trusts them and follows them: if he is a priest, let him be deposed; and if he is a layman, let him be driven out from the church.

[i] The Second Recension (wherein this is Canon 65) reads: Concerning the acceptance of gifts from the Jews. If any man among the clergy or the laity fasts with the Jews, or keeps festival with them, or accepts their gifts during their festivals, such as unleavened bread or things of that sort, while honouring them and their feasts and making light of the law and dishonouring it: if he is a cleric, let him be deposed from his office; and if he is a layman, let him be excommunicated from the people. (በእንተ፡ አምኃሆሙ፡ ለአይሁድ። እመቦ፡ ብእሲ፡ እምካህናት፡ ወሕዝባዊያን፡ ዘጾመ፡ ምስለ፡ አይሁድ፡ አው፡ ገብረ፡ በዓለ፡ ምስሌሆሙ፡ ወተወክፈ፡ አምኃሆሙ፡ በበዓሎሙ፡ ናእተ፡ ወዘይመስሎ፡ እንዘ፡ ያከብሮሙ፡ ወለበዓላቲሆሙ፡ ወያቀልል፡ ሕጎ፡ ወኢያከብሮ፡ ለእመ፡ ኮነ፡ ካህነ፡ ይስዐር፡ እምኂመቱ፡ ወለእመ፡ ኮነ፡ ሕዝባዊ፡ ይሰደድ፡ እምሕዝብ።)

[i] All that belongs to the church, whether of the holy vessels or a vessel of silver, it is not proper for anyone to put to his own use in his dwelling; for, this is a transgression of the law that God commanded to his beloved, to you yourselves, O believers. You know what God did to Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon. And, if he has put the vessels of the church of God to use – he who does thus, let them take vengeance on him, and let them drive him out from the church.

[i] The Second Recension (wherein this is Canon 68) reads: *Concerning the vessels of the sanctuary: they are for the sanctuary and not for a stranger. All vessels of the church – whether holy vestments, or vessels of gold and silver – shall not belong to a person for him to use them in his house, for that is a transgression of the law which God commanded. [i] As for a bishop: if appointed priests and believers complain of him, and if they have in that land no ruler, such as an archbishop or a metropolitan, before whom they may plead – because he has transgressed the law, and altered the order of their faith, and has not agreed with what we have decreed – let them plead before the bishops who are near them. And let the bishops summon him before them, and examine his deed, and look into the matter of which they have accused him. And, if he comes to them and confesses his sin, let them reprove him for what has come of him, and judge him for this, and let him keep what we have decreed concerning one who has altered the law of their land. But, if he refuses to come to them, let them send to him a second time; and if he does not come to them, let the people send to him two bishops, a second and a third time; and, if he persists and does not follow

[i] It is no hindrance to one who is appointed bishop that he be lame, or one-eyed, nor anything else, if men have borne witness for him in goodness and in virtue, and humility, and wisdom, and faith, and the work of the church; for this does not break him. [ii] For, a blemish of the flesh is no blemish. The blemish, rather, is the blemish of the soul: slander, and reviling, and filthy speech, and mockery, and the doing of evil to men, and speaking against them of what is not in them, while he seeks to magnify a good report. And all this is a likeness of blasphemy against God, who said in the holy Gospel, "Every sin shall be forgiven to men, except blasphemy against God and against the Holy Spirit." And again he says, "It is not everything that goes into the mouth that defiles a man, but what comes out of the mouth."

[i] The Second Recension (wherein this is Canon 72) reads: Concerning bodily blemish: A bishop-elect is not forbidden [from being consecrated] if he is lame or blind, provided he is worthy and known for goodness, the fear of God, good and pure character, wisdom in faith, and church practice; for, this does not diminish his ministry. For, a bodily blemish is not a true blemish; rather, the [real] blemish is the blemish of the soul, which is calumny, contempt, mockery, derision, offending people, speaking against them what is not in them while seeking to diminish their good report. All this is an example of blasphemy against God, who said in the Holy Gospel: "Every sin shall be forgiven, except blasphemy against God and against the Holy Spirit." And again, he says: "Not what enters into the mouth defiles a man, but what proceeds out of the mouth." (በእንተ፡ ነውረ፡ ሥጋ። ኢይከልኦ፡ ተሠይሞ፡ ኤጲስ፡ ቆጶስ፡ ሐንካሰ፡ አው፡ ነቋረ፡ ለእመ፡ ኮነ፡ ዘይደልዎ፡ ወተዐውቀ፡ በኂሩት፡ ወፈሪሀ፡ እግዚአብሔር፡ በሠናይ፡ ወንጽሕ፡ ወጥበብ፡ በሃይማኖት፡ ወግብረ፡ ቤተ፡ ክርስቲያን፡ እስመ፡ ውእቱ፡ ኢያሐጽጾ፡ እመልእክቱ። እስመ፡ ነውረ፡ ሥጋ፡ ኢኮነ፡ ነውረ፡ አላ፡ ነውር፡ ነውረ፡ ነፍስ፡ ዘውእቱ፡ ሐሜት፡ ወጽዕለት፡ ወጽልሑት፡ ወተሳልቆት፡ ወአሕሥሞ፡ ለሰብእ፡ ወነቢብ፡ ላዕሌሆሙ፡ በዘኢሀሎ፡ ኀቤሆሙ፡ እንዘ፡ የኀሥሥ፡ አግዝፎ፡ ሠናየ፡ ዜና፡ ወዝንቱ፡ ኵሉ፡ አርአያ፡ ፅርፈት፡ ላዕለ፡ እግዚአብሔር፡ ዘይቤ፡ በወንጌል፡ ቅዱስ፡ ኵሉ፡ ኀጢአት፡ ይትኀደግ፡ ዘእንበለ፡ ፅርፈት፡ ላዕለ፡ እግዚአብሔር፡ ወላዕለ፡ መንፈስ፡ ቅዱስ፡ ወካዕበ፡ ይብል፡ አኮ፡ ኵሉ፡ ዘይበውእ፡ ውስተ፡ አፍ፡ ዘያረኵሶ፡ ለሰብእ፡ አላ፡ ዘይወፅእ፡ እምአፍ።)

[i] It is not fitting that a blind man be appointed bishop, nor a deaf man, nor a mute, nor a fool, nor one who has the falling sickness[ii], nor one who has an unclean spirit – not that this is a blemish in him, but because he is not able to accomplish what is required of the gates of the ministries, and to stand in the command of the church and his priesthood.

[i] The Second Recension (wherein this is Canon 73) reads: Concerning a bishop. It is not fitting that he should have any blemish. It is not proper that a blind man be appointed bishop, nor a deaf one, nor one who is dumb, nor a madman, nor one who is stuttering, nor one possessed by an unclean spirit – not because being blemished is a sin in itself, but because he would be unable to properly accomplish what is required from the threshold of the angels and to stand in the service of the church and his priesthood. (በእንተ፡ ኤጲስ፡ ቆጶስ። ኢይከውኖ፡ ዘቦ፡ ነውረ። ኢይደሉ፡ ይሠየም፡ ኤጲስ፡ ቆጶስ፡ ዕውር፡ ወኢጽሙም፡ አው፡ በሃም፡ አው፡ አብድ፡ አው፡ ዘነገርጋር፡ አው፡ ዘመንፈስ፡ ርኩስ፡ አኮ፡ ነውረ፡ ከዊኖ፡ አላ፡ ኢይክል፡ አስልጦ፡ ዘይትፈቀድ፡ እምአንቀጸ፡ መላእክት፡ ወቀዊም፡ በግብረ፡ ቤተ፡ ክርስቲያን፡ ወክህነቱ።)

[i] If there is a man who has a demon, or who has the falling sickness[ii], let him not be appointed a priest; nor, moreover, let him be joined with the believers. And if he has been cleansed and healed, let him be joined with the believers; and if he is fit for the priesthood by wisdom and by his knowledge of the order of the church, let him be appointed.

[i] The Second Recension (wherein this is Canon 74) reads: *Concerning those possessed by demons. A priest is not worthy. If there is a man who is possessed by a demon, or a diviner, let him not be ordained a priest, nor let him be numbered with the faithful. ABTILIS 76

[i] If there is a pagan man who was baptised, and he was an evil man, and the evil of his deeds was known beforehand, and afterwards he repented, after he had received pure baptism in the midst of men for an example – and they did not know his hidden things of old – it is not fitting that he be appointed bishop, nor presbyter, nor deacon, nor anything like it, because of his former deeds. For, it is not proper that he be a teacher, since he has not been taught. But, if he has become taught by understanding from God, and his deeds are known in goodness and in virtue, and if he has stood firm in this, let him be appointed bishop and priest.

[i] The Second Recension (Canon 75) reads: Concerning the appointment of a bishop: If a man from among the pagans is baptized, and formerly he was an evil man whose wicked deeds were known, and afterwards he repented with a pure repentance in the midst of people who did not know his wickedness, it is not fitting that he be appointed a bishop or a priest for his former deeds, because sin – when he is appointed a teacher – is [like] one who has not been learned, and whose goodness has not been known to them. Moreover, except it be by the will of God, and there has been manifested from him a good heart and goodness. (በእንተ፡ ዘይሠየም፡ ኤጲስ፡ ቆጶስ። እመቦ፡ ብእሲ፡ ዘእምአረሚ፡ ወተጠምቀ፡ ወትካት፡ ብእሲ፡ እኩይ፡ ዘተዐውቀ፡ እከየ፡ ምግባሩ፡ ወእምዝ፡ ነስሐ፡ ንስሓ፡ ንጹሐ፡ በማእከለ፡ ሰብእ፡ ዘኢያአምሩ፡ እከዮ፡ ኢይደሉ፡ ይሠየም፡ ኤጲስ፡ ቆጶስ፡ ወኢካህን፡ በቀዳሜ፡ ግብሩ፡ እስመ፡ ኀጢአት፡ ሶበ፡ ይሠየም፡ መምህረ፡ ዘኢተምህረ፡ ወኢያእመርዎ፡ ኂሩቶ፡ ወዓዲሁ፡ ዘእንበለ፡ ለእመ፡ ኮነ፡ በአለብዎ፡ እግዚአብሔር፡ ወአስተርአየ፡ እምኔሁ፡ ሠናየ፡ ልቡና፡ ወኂሩት።)

[i] That it is not proper for a bishop to let his head fall away from the host of Christ, and to defile his spiritual office. And let him not be appointed to anything of the work of the rulers; his entry is rather into the church and her office, which is comely and good. And, if he persists in the work of the rulers, and enters into the host that is of the earth, and forsakes the host of the heavenly King: let him be deposed from his office. For, thus said our Lord, "There is none who is able to serve two masters; if not, to one he will submit and to one he will refuse."

[i] The Second Recension (wherein this is Canon 76) reads: Concerning a bishop. It is not fitting for him to be subject to rulers; for, it is neither fitting nor proper for a bishop to lower himself from the host of Christ and destroy his rank and be appointed to any of the work of a ruler. Rather, let him enter the work of the Church, which is better, fairer, and fitting. And if he persists in the work of rulers and enters the service of earthly hosts, abandoning the host of the heavenly King, let him renounce his office. For, God said: "No one can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other." (በእንተ፡ ኤጲስ፡ ቆጶስ። ኢይደሉ፡ ይትቀነይ፡ ለመኳንንት፡ እስመ፡ ኢይደልዎ፡ ወኢይከውኖ፡ ለኤጲስ፡ ቆጶስ፡ ያውድቅ፡ ርእሶ፡ እምሐራ፡ ክርስቶስ፡ ወያህጕል፡ መዓርጊሁ፡ ወይሠየም፡ ወኢበምንትኒ፡ እምግብረ፡ መኰንን፡ አላ፡ በአቱ፡ ውስተ፡ ግብረ፡ ቤተ፡ ክርስቲያን፡ ዘይኄይስ፡ ወይሜኒ፡ ወይደሉ። ወለእመ፡ አጥበዐ፡ ውስተ፡ ግብረ፡ መኳንንት፡ ወበአቱ፡ ውስተ፡ ሐራ፡ ምድራዊያን፡ ወየኀድግ፡ ሐራ፡ ንጉሥ፡ ሰማያዊ፡ ለይኀድጋ፡ ለሢመቱ፡ እስመ፡ እግዚአብሔር፡ ይቤ፡ አልቦ፡ ዘይክል፡ ለክልኤ፡ አጋእስት፡ ተቀንዮ፡ ወእመአኮ፡ ለአሐዱ፡ ያምዕዕ፡ ወካልኦ፡ ያሠምር።)

And if there is a slave fit for the priesthood, like Absiris,[ii] and his masters have given him leave, and set him free, and sent him out from among them, and he is fit for this: let him be appointed a priest.

[i] The Second Recension (wherein this is Canon 77) reads: Concerning the ordination of slaves as priests. Slaves shall not be ordained to any priestly office without the consent of their masters, because thereby their masters are grieved, or their houses are despoiled. But, if that slave is worthy of the priesthood, like Onesimus, and his masters have released him, and set him free, and sent him out from their houses, having openly emancipated him, and he is worthy to be ordained, he may be ordained. (በእንተ፡ ሠዩመ፡ አግብርት፡ ካህናት። ኢይሠየሙ፡ አግብርት፡ ካህናተ፡ ወኢምንተኒ፡ እምክህነት፡ ዘእንበለ፡ ሥምረተ፡ አጋእዝቲሆሙ፡ እስመ፡ በውእቱ፡ የሐዝኑ፡ አግእስቲሆሙ፡ አው፡ ይመዘብር፡ አብያቲሆሙ፡ ወለእመ፡ ኮነ፡ ውእቱ፡ ገብር፡ ዘይደሉ፡ ለክህነት፡ በከመ፡ ኦኒሲዮስ፡ ወአብሕዎ፡ አግእስቲሁ፡ ወአግዐዝዎ፡ ወአውፅእዎ፡ እምአብያቲሆሙ፡ አግዒዞሙ፡ ገሃደ፡ ወኮነ፡ ዘይደልዎ፡ ለይሠየም።)

And it is the book of tidings which came down from God the Father and the Holy Spirit, which is the ordinance, in number 81 books, together with the book of Sinodos which we made known to Clement. That which is of old speaks concerning the last, and the last is the fulfilment of the first; it became a witness to her concerning her: one speech from one voice, from one utterance – God the fashioner, and his creator, by his word and by his spirit. First, the Torah, and it is that of old. Solomon. That of the Church. The Song of Songs. The 12 Minor Prophets.[ii] That of Habakkuk. That of Isaiah. That of Jeremiah. That of Ezekiel. That of Daniel. That of Hosea. That of Zechariah, son of Berekiah. That by which you teach your children – this is the Wisdom of Solomon. And Judith. And the Book of Jubilees, three. That of Jesus, son of Sirach, the scribe of Solomon, son of David. The twelve minor prophets. The twelve great prophets. Here the number of their books from the first law is finished. And our own books, ours, of the apostles, from the new law: Four Gospels. That which Matthew announced; that which Mark announced; that which Luke announced; that which John announced. And again the Acts, ours, of the apostles. Two of Peter. Three of John. One of Jacob. One of Jude. Of Paul, fourteen[iii] epistles. The Apocalypse – this is the Revelation of John. Fifty-six homilies[iv]. Of Clement, from the apostles, eight books. And in it is a balance; what they left does not go out. Fathers, know the epistle of Clement, and all that I commanded you in it – O fathers, bishops and metropolitans and archbishops and chief priests – by the hand of Clement, the disciple of Peter the apostle. And they are eight books which it is not fitting to show to all the believers, because of the law and the ordinance in them, by which it is not fitting that anyone command, except the elders among the appointed priests.

[ii] In place of 'The 12 Minor prophets', Lumpkin has 'The sons of the prophets, 12'.

[iii] The Letter to the Hebrews is here counted as one of Paul's epistles.

[iv] The translation, 'homilies' is uncertain; Lumpkin has a transliteration, 'miqwām(?)'.

[i] Here is the completion of the knowledge of the books and their names. O congregation of believers, hear our word and our commandment, for it is from the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the Life-giver; and we have commanded you. And if you keep it, your salvation shall be in it, and there shall be a union of peace among you, and concord(?). And if you do not keep it, you shall be judged concerning it, and famine shall seize you, and you shall be called to account for what you have done in forsaking his commandment, and in transgression of the commandment, and in the doing of sin. And we ask God the Father alone, and Christ who was made flesh of the Holy Spirit and of Mary the Virgin, that he strengthen you for obedience to him, by the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the Life-giver, who is the Holy Spirit the Paraclete, who came down upon his disciples upon the height of Zion; that he may give you understanding of that which is spiritual, and that he may help you to the doing of good things, in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ, his Son and his Beloved, God, Saviour, our Redeemer[ii], who was made flesh of the Holy Spirit, and became man, and was crucified, and rose on the third day, as the prophets prophesied concerning him. [iii] To him be glory and honour, with his Father, wise and great, and the Son, the Speaker

CONCLUSION

[i] The MSS do not have any marked break before this conclusion; Lumpkin has its entire text in italics, clearly indicating that it is not properly a part of the preceding (81st) canon.

[ii] The translation, 'Redeemer', is uncertain.

[iii] The Second Recension lacks this closing doxology.

እግዚእ፡ ማሕየዊ። ይእዜኒ፡ ወዘልፈኒ፡ ለዓለመ፡ ዓለም፡ አሜን።

and Creator, and the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the Life-giver. Now and always, for ever and ever. Amen.

[iv] The Abtilisāt is finished, by the help of God.

[iv] The Second Recension lacks this colophon.
