
መጽሐፈ ጉዳሌ፡ ♦ THE BOOK OF JUBILEES

INTRODUCTION

The Book of Jubilees was known by two distinct titles, even in Hebrew: (1) Jubilees, which appears from Epiphanius to have been its usual designation; it is found also in the Syriac Fragment entitled, “Names of the Wives of the Patriarchs according to the Hebrew Book of Jubilees.” (2) The Little Genesis: The epithet ‘little’ does not refer to the extent of the book (for, it is larger than the canonical Genesis) but to its character; it deals more fully with details than the biblical work.

The Book of Jubilees is considered part of the ‘Broad Canon’ by the Ethiopic Orthodox Tewahedo Church but as pseudepigrapha by all other major Christian Churches.

The Ethiopic Version is the most accurate and trustworthy manuscript and, as a rule, extremely literal; it has suffered from the corruptions naturally incident to transmission through MSS; thus, dittographies are frequent and lacunae are of occasional occurrence, but the version is free from glosses and corrections of unscrupulous scribes. The Greek Version is lost save for some fragments and the Latin Version, of which about a quarter has been preserved, was first published by A.M. Ceriani in 1861.

The Ethiopic text here presented is that of James C. VanderKam’s 1989 publication and the English text is (loosely) based on R.H. Charles’ 1902 translation, with a considerable degree of modernisation and some variants based on H.F.D. Sparks text[§]; some footnotes are also taken from Sparks’ publication.

AUTHORSHIP AND DATES

The Book of Jubilees was written in Hebrew by a Pharisee between the year of the accession of Hyrcanus to the high priesthood in 135 BCE and his death in 105 BCE (in 32:1, Levi is called a ‘priest of the Most High God’, and the only Jewish High Priests who bore this title were Maccabaeans).

We can further refine these limits: the book presupposes as its historical background the most flourishing period of the Maccabaeans’ hegemony, such as that under Simon and Hyrcanus. The conquest of Edom, which was achieved by the latter, is referred to in 38:14. The text reflects accurately the intense hatred of Judah towards the Philistines in the 2nd Century BCE; it declares that they will fall into the hands of the righteous nation, and we learn from 1M and Josephus that Ashdod and Gaza were destroyed by Hyrcanus and Alexander Jannaeus respectively. However, it is in the destruction of Samaria, which is paralleled in the destruction of Shechem (3:4–6) that we are to look for the true terminus ante quo. Now, all accounts agree in representing the destruction of Samaria as effected by Hyrcanus about four years before his death; hence, we conclude that The Book of Jubilees was written 109–105 BCE.

This is the history of the division of the days of the Law and of the testimony, of the events of the years, of their weeks, of their Jubilees throughout all the years of the world, as the Lord spoke to Moses on Mount Sinai when he went up to receive the tables of the Law and of the commandment, according to the voice of God as he said unto him, “Go up to the top of the mountain.”

¹ And it came to pass in the first year of the exodus of the children of Israel out of Egypt, in the third month, on the sixteenth day of the month, that God spoke to Moses, saying, “Come up to me on the mountain, and I will give you two tables of stone of the law and of the commandment, which I have written, that you may teach them.” ² And Moses went up into the mountain of God, and the glory of the Lord took up residence on Mount Sinai, and a cloud overshadowed it for six days. ³ And, when he summoned Moses on the seventh day, in the middle of the cloud, the appearance of the glory of the Lord was like a flaming fire on the top of the mount. ⁴ And Moses was on the mountain for forty days and forty nights, and God taught him the earlier and the later history of the division of all the days of the law and of the testimony. ⁵ And he said, “Incline your heart to every word that

¹ The date is in Anno Mundi (AM) 2450.

² In place of ‘took up residence’, here following VanderKam, Charles has ‘abode’.

³ For ‘summoned’, Charles has ‘called to’.

⁵ In place of ‘Incline your heart’, Sparks has ‘Listen carefully’.

I shall speak to you on this mountain, and write them in a book in order that their generations may see how I have not forsaken them for all the evil that they have wrought in transgressing the covenant that I establish between me and you for their generations this day on Mount Sinai. ⁶ And, thus, it will come to pass, when all these things come upon them, that they will recognise that I am more righteous than they in all their judgments and in all their actions, and they will recognise that I have been truly with them.

⁷ “And write down all the words I tell you today; for, I know their rebellion and their stiff neck, before I bring them into the land that I swore to their fathers, to Abraham and to Isaac and to Jacob, saying, “To your seed will I give a land flowing with milk and honey.” ⁸ And they will eat and be satisfied, and they will turn to strange gods, to ones that cannot save them from their tribulation; and this witness shall be heard for a witness against them. ⁹ For, they will forget all my commandments, even all that I command them and they will follow the Gentiles, their uncleanness, and their shame; they will serve their gods which will an offence, a tribulation, an affliction and a trap. ¹⁰ Many will perish; they will be taken captive and will fall into enemy hands, because they have forsaken my statutes, my commandments, the festivals

⁷ It is not 100% certain that the inner quote finishes at the end of this verse but VanderKam indicates that it does.

⁸ In place of ‘to ones’, Charles has ‘to (gods)’.

⁹ Charles has ‘even’ in parentheses.

¹⁰ Charles and VanderKam have the final ‘there’ in parentheses; Sparks ends, “to make it the dwelling-place for my name.”

of my covenant, my Sabbaths, the holy place I hallowed for myself among them, my tabernacle, the sanctuary I hallowed for myself in the midst of the land, that I should set my name upon it, and that it should dwell there. ¹¹ They will make for themselves high places and groves and graven images, and they will worship, each his own, so as to go astray; they will sacrifice their children to demons, and to all the works of their erring hearts. ¹² I will send witnesses to them, so I may testify against them, but they will not hear and will slay the witnesses; they will also persecute those who seek the law and will abrogate everything so as to work evil before me. ¹³ Then I will hide my face from them; I will deliver them into the hands of the Gentiles for captivity, as booty and for devouring, and I will remove them from the land, and scatter them amongst the Gentiles. ¹⁴ They will forget all my law, all my commandments, and all my judgments, and will err as to new moons, Sabbaths, festivals, jubilees, and ordinances.
¹⁵ “And, after this, they will turn to me from among the Gentiles with all their heart, all their soul, and all their strength; and I will gather them from among all the Gentiles, and they will seek me, so that I shall be found by them, when they seek me with all their heart and with all their soul. And I will rightly disclose to them

¹¹ After ‘his own’, Charles adds ‘graven image’ in parentheses.

¹² Charles has ‘witness’ in place of ‘testify’. In place of ‘before me’, Charles has ‘before My eyes’ and VanderKam has ‘in my presence’.

¹⁴ In place of ‘err’, Charles has ‘go astray’. In the text, ‘new moon’, ‘Sabbath’, ‘festival’, ‘jubilees’, and ‘ordinances’ are singular nouns.

¹⁵ Charles includes the text, “And I will ... with righteousness,” as part of v. 16.

abounding peace with righteousness, ¹⁶ and I will transform them into a righteous plant, with all my heart and with all my soul, and they shall be for a blessing and not for a curse, and they shall be the head and not the tail. ¹⁷ And I will build my temple among them, and I will dwell with them, and I will be their God and they shall be my people in truth and righteousness. ¹⁸ And I will not forsake them nor fail them; for, I am the Lord their God.”

¹⁹ And Moses fell prostrate and prayed and said, “O Lord my God, do not forsake your people and your heritage, so they should wander in the error of their hearts, and do not deliver them into the hands of their enemies, the Gentiles, lest they should rule over them and make them sin against you. ²⁰ Let your mercy, O Lord, be lifted up upon your people, and create in them an upright spirit, and let not the spirit of Beliar rule over them to accuse them before you, and to ensnare them from all the paths of righteousness, so that they may perish from before your face.

²¹ But they are your people and your heritage, which you have delivered with your great power from the hands of the Egyptians: create in them a clean heart and a holy spirit and let them not be ensnared in their sins henceforth until eternity.”

¹⁷ Charles has ‘sanctuary’ in place of ‘temple’.

¹⁹ For ‘prostrate’, here following VanderKam, Charles has ‘on his face’.

²¹ Charles has ‘inheritance’ in place of ‘heritage’ (as also in v. 19).

²³ The 2 instances of the word ‘their’ here italicised are not in the Ethiopic text; Charles has them in parentheses.

²⁴ Charles has ‘be’ in place of ‘become’ (twice in his verse), here following VanderKam.

²⁵ VanderKam ends, “that I am their father in a just and proper way and that I love them.”

²⁶ Charles lacks the words, ‘the time when’, here following VanderKam. This last clause speaks of the time when God will become incarnate and dwell among men. ‘Write down for yourself’ follows 2 MSS; the others have ‘I will write down for you’.

²⁷ Then he said to the angel of the presence, “Write down for Moses from the beginning of creation until my sanctuary has been built among them for all eternity. ²⁸ And the Lord will appear to the eyes of all, and all shall know that I am the God of Israel and the Father of all the children of Jacob, and King on Mount Zion for all the ages of eternity. And Zion and Jerusalem shall be holy.”

²⁹ And the angel of the presence, who went before the camp of Israel, took the tables of the divisions of the years – from the time of the creation – of the law and of the testimony of the weeks of the jubilees, according to the individual years, according to all the number of the jubilees [according, to the individual years], from the day of the [new] creation †when† the heavens and the earth shall be renewed and all their creation according to the powers of the heaven, and according to all the creation of the earth, until the sanctuary of the Lord shall be made in Jerusalem on Mount Zion, and all the luminaries be renewed for healing and for peace and for blessing for all the elect of Israel, and that thus it may be from that day and unto all the days of the earth.

²⁸ For ‘all the ages of eternity’, Charles has ‘all eternity’.

JUBILEES 2

¹ And, on the Lord's orders, the angel of the presence spoke to Moses, saying, "Write the complete history of the creation; how, in six days, the Lord God finished all his works and all that he created, and kept Sabbath on the seventh day and hallowed it for all ages, and appointed it as a sign for all his works. ² For, on the first day he created the heavens that are above and the earth and the waters and all the spirits that serve before him – the angels of the presence and the angels of sanctification, and the angels [of the spirit of fire and the angels] of the spirit of the winds, and the angels of the spirit of the clouds, and of darkness, and of snow and of hail and of hoar frost, and the angels of the voices and of the thunder and of the lightning, and the angels of the spirits of cold and of heat, and of winter and of spring and of autumn and of summer, and of all the spirits of his creatures which are in the heavens and on the earth, (he created) the abysses and the darkness, eventide <and night>, and the light, dawn and day, which he has prepared in the knowledge of his heart. ³ And thereupon we saw his works, and praised him, and lauded before him on account of all his works; for, seven great works did he create on the first day.

⁴ “And, on the second day, he created the firmament in the midst of the waters, and the waters were divided on that day – half of them went up above and half of them went down below the firmament that was in the midst over the face of the whole earth. And this was the only work he created on the second day.

⁵ “And, on the third day, he did as he commanded the waters to pass from off the surface of the whole earth into one place, so that the dry land could appear. ⁶ And the waters did so, as he had commanded them, and they withdrew from off the surface of the earth into one place, outside of this firmament, and the dry land appeared. ⁷ And, on that day, he created for them all the seas, according to the separate places where they collected, and all the rivers, and the places where the waters collected in the mountains, and on the whole earth, and all the reservoirs, and all the dew of the earth, and the seed that is sown – with each of its kinds – and all sprouting things, and fruit-bearing trees, and trees of the wood, and the garden of Eden, in Eden. These four great works God created on the third day.

⁸ “And, on the fourth day, the Lord created the sun, and the moon, and the stars, and he set them in the firmament of the heaven, to shine light upon all the earth, and to rule over the day and the night, and to separate between the light and the darkness.

⁵ For ‘surface’, here following VanderKam, Charles has ‘face’ (as also in v. 6).

⁶ VanderKam has ‘apart from’ in place of ‘outside of’.

⁸ Charles has ‘he created’ in place of ‘the Lord created’, here following VanderKam.

¹⁰ Charles opens, “And it divides the light from the darkness.”

¹² The Ethiopic text lacks the word, ‘their’, here presented in italics (VanderKam has the word in parentheses).

¹³ Charkes lacks ‘about’, here following VanderKam.

beasts and over cattle, and over everything that moves on the earth, and over the whole earth, and over all this he gave him dominion. And these four kinds He created on the sixth day.

¹⁵ “And there were altogether twenty-two kinds in total. ¹⁶ And he finished all his work on the sixth day – all that is in the heavens, and on the earth, and in the seas, and in the abysses, and in the light, and in the darkness, and in every place.

¹⁷ And he gave us a great sign, the Sabbath day, that we should work for six days but keep Sabbath on the seventh day from all work. ¹⁸ And all the angels of the presence, and all the angels of sanctification – these two great classes – he has bidden us to keep the Sabbath with him in heaven and on earth.

¹⁹ “He said to us, “I will now separate a people for myself from among my nations. They, too, will keep Sabbath. I will sanctify the people for myself and will bless them as I sanctified the Sabbath day. I will sanctify them for myself; in this way I will bless them. They will be my people and I will be their God. ²⁰ And I have chosen the seed of Jacob from among all I have seen, and have recorded him as my first-born son, and have sanctified him

¹⁶ Charles ends with ‘everything’ in place of ‘every place’.

¹⁷ Throughout this section, VanderKam does not capitalize ‘Sabbath’.

¹⁸ Note that it is one of these ‘angels of the presence’ who is here speaking.

¹⁹ The translation of this verse (loosely) follows VanderKam; Charles reads, “And He said unto us, “Behold, I will separate unto Myself a people from among all the peoples, and these shall keep the Sabbath day, and I will sanctify them unto Myself as My people, and will bless them; as I have sanctified the Sabbath day and do sanctify (it) unto Myself, even so will I bless them, and they shall be My people and I will be their God.”

²⁰ In place of ‘seed’, VanderKam has ‘descendants’.

 a sign in accordance with which they should keep Sabbath with us on the seventh day, to eat and to drink, and to bless him who has created all things as he has blessed and sanctified to himself a notable people above all peoples, and to keep Sabbath together with us. ²² And he caused his commands to ascend as a sweet they should always be the blessed and holy ones of the first testimony and law, even as he had sanctified and blessed the Sabbath day on the seventh day. ²⁵ He created heaven and earth and everything that he created in six days, and God made the seventh day holy, for all his works; therefore, he commanded on its behalf that, whoever does any work thereon shall die, and that he who defiles it shall surely die.

²⁶ “Now, you must command the children of Israel to observe this day, in order that they may keep it holy and not do thereon any ²¹ For ‘notable’, Charles has ‘peculiar’ and VanderKam has ‘noteworthy’.

²² The ellipsis at the end of this verse (following Charles) suggests that there is some text missing between here and v. 23.

²⁴ After ‘to these’, Charles adds ‘Jacob and his seed’ in parentheses.

²⁶ In place of ‘children of Israel’, VanderKam has ‘Israelites’.

¹ “And, on the six days of the second week, we brought to Adam, according to the word of the Lord, all the beasts, and all the cattle, and all the birds, and everything that moves about on the earth, and everything that moves about in the water, according to their kinds, and according to their types: the beasts on the first day; the cattle on the second day; the birds on the third day; and all that which moves about on the earth on the fourth day; and that which moves about in the water on the fifth day.² And Adam named them all by their respective names; and, whatever he called them, so was their name.³ And, on these five days, Adam saw all these, male and female, according to every kind that was on the earth, but he was alone: there was no one whom he found for himself who would be for him a helper who was like him.⁴ And the Lord said to us, “It is not good that the man should be alone; let us make him a helper who is like him.”⁵ And the Lord our God caused a deep sleep to fall upon him, and he slept, and he took for the woman one rib from among his ribs;⁶ and this rib was the origin of the woman from among his ribs, and he built up the flesh in its stead, and built the

³ Charles ends, “but he was alone and found no helpmate for him.”

⁴ Charkes ends, “let us make a helpmate for him;” (cf. #3).

⁶ VanderKam does not have the 3rd instance of ‘my’ in brackets, here following Charles.

woman. And he awakened Adam out of his sleep and, on awaking, he rose on the sixth day, and he brought her to him, and he knew her, and said to her, “This is now bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh; she shall be called [my] wife; because she was taken from her husband.” ⁷ For this reason, man and wife shall be one; and, for this reason, a man shall leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave to his wife, and they shall be one flesh.

⁸ “In the first week was Adam created, and the rib – his wife; in the second week, he showed her to him and, for this reason, the commandment was given to keep women in their defilement, for a male child seven days and for a female twice seven days. ⁹ And, after Adam had completed forty days in the land where he had been created, we brought him into the garden of Eden to till and keep it; but his wife they brought in on the eightieth day and, after this, she entered into the garden of Eden. ¹⁰ And, for this reason, the commandment is written on the heavenly tablets in regard to her that gives birth, “If she bears a male, she shall remain in her uncleanness for seven days, according to the first week of days, and for thirty-three days she shall remain in the blood of her purification, and she shall not touch any hallowed thing, nor enter into the sanctuary, until she

⁹ VanderKam has the numeral, ‘40’, in place of the word, ‘forty’.

¹⁵ “And, during the first week of the first jubilee, Adam and his wife were in the garden of Eden for seven years, tilling and keeping it; and we gave him work and we instructed him (how) to do everything that is suitable for tillage. ¹⁶ And he tilled (the garden); and he was naked and did not know it, and was not ashamed, and he protected the garden from the birds and beasts and cattle, and gathered its fruit, and ate, and put aside the ¹¹ VanderKam has the numeral, ‘66’, in place of the word, ‘sixty-six’.

¹² VanderKam has the numeral, ‘80’, in place of the word, ‘eighty’.

¹³ In place of ‘hallowed’, VanderKam has ‘sacred’.

¹⁴ VanderKam reads, “These are the law and testimony that were written for Israel to keep for all times.”

¹⁷ “And, after the completion of the seven years, which he had completed there, seven years exactly, and in the second month, on the seventeenth day (of the month), the serpent came and approached the woman, and the serpent said to the woman, “Has the Lord commanded you, saying, “You shall not eat of every tree of the garden?”” ¹⁸ And she said to him, “Of all the fruit of the trees of the garden, the Lord has said to us, “Eat;” but of the fruit of the tree that is in the middle of the garden, the Lord has said to us, “You shall not eat thereof, neither shall you touch it, lest you die.”” ¹⁹ And the serpent said to the woman, “You shall not surely die! Because the Lord knows that, on the day you shall eat thereof, your eyes will be opened, and you will be like gods, and you will know good and evil.” ²⁰ And the woman saw the tree, that it was agreeable and pleasant to the eye, and that its fruit was good for food, and she took thereof and ate. ²¹ And, when she had first covered her shame with fig leaves, she gave thereof to Adam and he ate, and his eyes were opened, and he saw that he was naked. ²² And he took fig leaves and sewed them together, and made an apron for himself, and covered his shame.

¹⁷ This is AM 8.

¹⁸ Charles has ‘to it’ in place of ‘to him’, here following VanderKam.

¹⁹ Throughout this paragraph, Charles has ‘God’ in place of ‘the Lord’, here following VanderKam.

²⁰ VanderKam opens, “The woman saw that the tree was delightful and pleasing to the eye and (that) its fruit was good to eat.”

²² VanderKam lacks ‘together’.

²³ The ellipsis at the end of the verse, following Charles, indicates that he thought there is a lacuna in the text at this point.

²⁴ For ‘sorrow’ (twice in this verse), VanderKam has ‘sadness’.

²⁶ In place of ‘dismissed them’, here following VanderKam, Charles has ‘sent them forth’.

²⁷ VanderKam has ‘he’ in place of ‘Adam’, here following Charles (and the Ethiopic text?).

all flesh that was in the Garden of Eden, and all flesh was scattered, according to its kinds and according to its types, to the places created for them. ³⁰ And, to Adam alone did he give the means to cover his shame, of all the beasts and cattle. ³¹ On this account, it is prescribed on the heavenly tablets concerning all those who know the judgment of the law, that they should cover their shame, and should not uncover themselves as the Gentiles uncover themselves.

³² “And, on the new moon of the fourth month, Adam and his wife went forth from the Garden of Eden; and they dwelt in the land of Elda, in the land of their creation. ³³ And Adam called the name of his wife Eve. ³⁴ And they were childless throughout the first jubilee; and, after this, he knew her. ³⁵ He himself was working the land as he had been taught in the Garden of Eden.

³⁰ In place of ‘the means’, Charles has ‘the wherewithal’ (in parentheses).

³¹ For ‘concerning’, Charles has ‘as touching’.

³⁴ Anno Mundi (AM) 8.

³⁵ For this verse, here following VanderKam, Charles reads, “Now he tilled the land as he had been instructed in the Garden of Eden.”

JUBILEES 4

⁵ “And, on this account, it is written on the heavenly tables, “Cursed is he who smites his neighbour treacherously, and let all who have seen and heard say, “So be it;” and the man who has seen and not declared (it), let him be accursed as the other.”

JUBILEES 4

¹ For ‘Awan’, Charles reads ‘Âwân’. The 3rd week of the 2nd jubilee was AM 64–70; the 4th week was AM 71–77 and the 5th was AM 78–84

² The 1st year of the 3rd jubilee was AM 99.

³ Charles has ‘slew’ in place of ‘killed’ (as also in v. 2).

⁷ “And Adam and his wife spent four weeks of years mourning for Abel; and then, in the fourth year of the fifth week, they became joyful, and Adam knew his wife again, and she gave birth to a son for him, and he gave him the name Seth, because, he said, “GOD has raised up a second seed to us on the earth in place of Abel; for, Cain had killed him.” ⁸ And, in the sixth week, he became the father of his daughter Azura. ⁹ And Cain took Awan, his sister, to be his wife and she gave birth to Enoch for him, at the close of the fourth jubilee. And, in the first year of the first week of the fifth jubilee, houses were built on the earth, and Cain built a city, and called its name after the name of his son Enoch. ¹⁰ And Adam knew Eve his wife and she gave birth to yet nine more children for him. ¹¹ And, in the fifth week of the fifth jubilee, Seth took Azura his sister to be his wife; and, in the fourth (year of the sixth week), she gave birth to Enosh for him. ¹² He began to call on the name of the Lord on the earth. ¹³ And, in the seventh jubilee, in the third week, Enosh took Noam his sister to be his wife, and she gave birth to a son for him in the third year of the fifth week, and he called

he testified to the sons of men among the generations of the earth, and recounted the weeks of the jubilees, and made known to them the days of the years and set in order the months and recounted the Sabbaths of the years as we had made them, known to him. ¹⁹ And what has happened and what will happen he saw in a vision of his sleep, as it will happen to the children of men throughout their generations, until the day of judgment; he saw and understood everything, and he wrote his testimony and placed the testimony on earth for all the children of men and for their generations.

²¹ “And he was, moreover, with the angels of God these six jubilees of years, and they showed him everything that is on earth and in the sky, the rule of the sun; and he wrote down everything.

²¹ Charles has ‘heavens’ in place of ‘sky’.

²³ Cf. Gn 5:24.

²⁴ VanderKam’s translation opens rather differently, “Because of him, the flood water did not come on any of the land of Eden because he was placed there as a sign.”

²⁵ Before ‘incense’, VanderKam adds ‘evening’.

²⁶ VanderKam ends, “from its uncleanness into the history of eternity.”

³¹ "At the end of this jubilee, Cain was killed after him in the same year; for, his house fell on him and he died inside his house, killed by its stones; for, with a stone he had killed Abel and by a stone was he killed in fair judgment. ³² For this reason, it was ordained on the heavenly tablets, "With the instrument with which a man kills his fellow, with the same shall he be killed; after the manner that he wounded him, in like manner shall they deal with him."

²⁹ The 7th week in the 6th year was AM 930.

³⁰ VanderKam has '70' and '1000' (twice) in place of the spelled-out numbers.

³¹ In place of 'in the same year', VanderKam has 'one year after him'.

³² Charles has 'neighbour' in place of 'fellow'.

¹ “And it came to pass when the children of men began to multiply on the face of the earth and daughters were born to them, that the angels of God saw them in a certain year of this jubilee, that they were beautiful to look upon; and they took themselves wives of all whom they chose, and they gave birth to them sons and they were giants.

² “And lawlessness increased on the earth and all animate beings corrupted their ways – (every one of them) from men to cattle and animals, and birds, and everything that moves about on the ground – all of them corrupted their ways and their prescribed courses, and they began to devour each other, and lawlessness increased on the earth; and every imagination of the thoughts of all men (was) thus evil continually.

³ “And the Lord looked upon the earth and saw that it was corrupt, and all animate beings had corrupted their orders, and all that were on the earth had wrought all manner of evil before his eyes. ⁴ And he said that he would obliterate man and all animate beings on the face of the earth that he had created. ⁵ But Noah found grace before the eyes of the Lord.

¹ VanderKam has the word ‘year’ (here italicised) in parentheses.

² Charles has ‘flesh’ in place of ‘animate beings’, here following VanderKam.

³ In place of ‘the Lord’, here following VanderKam, Charles has ‘God’.

⁴ Charles has ‘destroy’ in place of ‘obliterate’.

⁵ For this verse, here following Charles, VanderKam reads, “He was pleased with Noah alone.”

⁶ “And, against the angels whom he had sent upon the earth, he was exceedingly angry, and he gave a commandment to root them out of all their dominion, and he bade us to bind them in the depths of the earth; and behold, they are bound in the midst of them and are kept separate. ⁷ And, against their sons, went forth a command from before his face that they should be smitten with the sword and be removed from under the sky. ⁸ And he said, “My spirit shall not remain in man for ever; for, they also are flesh and their days shall be one hundred and twenty years.” ⁹ And he sent his sword into their midst, so that each should slay his neighbour, and they began to slay each other until they all fell by the sword and were destroyed from the earth. ¹⁰ And their fathers were witnesses (of their destruction); and, after this, they were bound in the depths of the earth for ever, until the day of the great condemnation, when judgment is executed on all those who have corrupted their ways of life and their behaviour before the Lord. ¹¹ And he †will destroy† all from their places, and there not one †will remain† of them whom he will not judge according to all their wickedness. ¹² And he †will make† for all his works a new and righteous nature, so that they should not sin in their whole nature for ever but should be all righteous each in his kind always.

⁶ For ‘kept separate’, VanderKam has ‘alone’.

⁷ In place of ‘from before his face’, Sparks has ‘from him’.

⁸ VanderKam has the numeral, ‘120’, in place of ‘one hundred and twenty’.

⁹ An alternative reading for ‘his sword’ is ‘the sword’.

¹⁰ In place of ‘behaviour’, following Sparks, Charles has ‘works’; another reding is ‘thoughts’.

¹¹ The verbs forms of ‘destroy’ and ‘remain’ are perfects in the MSS and Charles has them as such.

¹² The verbs form of ‘make’ is perfect in the MSS.

¹⁴ Sparks lacks the parentheses around ‘which is not judged’.
¹⁵ Sparks reads differently, “From every angle he will judge (them), the great man as a great man, ...”
¹⁶ In place of ‘accept bribes’, here following Sparks, Charles has ‘receive gifts’.
¹⁷ In place of ‘sons’, Charles has ‘children’.
¹⁸ Charles encloses vv. 17–18 in brackets.
¹⁹ For ‘he saved’, Charles and Sparks have ‘God saved’, with ‘God’ either in parentheses or italics.

ways and their thoughts before the flood, no man's person was accepted save that of Noah alone; for his person was accepted in behalf of his sons, whom he saved from the waters of the flood on his account; for, his heart was righteous in all his ways, according as it was commanded regarding him, and he had not departed from aught that was ordained for him.

²⁰ “And the Lord said he would destroy everything on dry land, men and cattle, beasts and fowls of the air, and all that moves about on the earth. ²¹ And he commanded Noah to make him an ark, that he might save him from the waters of the flood. ²² And Noah made the ark in all respects as he commanded him, in the twenty-seventh jubilee of years, in the fifth week in the fifth year (on the new moon of the first month). ²³ And he entered in the sixth (year) thereof, in the second month, on the new moon of the second month, till the sixteenth; and he entered, and all that we brought to him, into the ark, and the Lord closed it from without on the seventeenth evening.

²⁴ “And the Lord opened the seven flood gates of heaven, and the mouths of the fountains of the great abyss – seven mouths in number. ²⁵ And the flood gates began to pour down water from the heavens, for forty days and forty nights, and the ²⁰ In place of ‘dry land’, here following Sparks, Charles has ‘the earth’.

²¹ An alternative reading for ‘that he might save him’ is ‘to save himself’.

²² This ‘new moon’ was AM 1307.

²³ The 6th (year) was AM 1308.

²⁴ Charles formats vv. 24–26 as poetry; here we follow Sparks and VanderKam in presenting the text as prose.

²⁵ VanderKam has the numeral, ‘40’ in place of ‘forty’ (twice in this verse).

fountains of the deep also sent up waters, until the whole world was full of water. ²⁶ And the waters increased upon the earth: fifteen cubits did the waters rise, above all the highest mountains, and the ark was lifted up above the earth, and it moved on the face of the waters.

²⁷ “And the water prevailed on the face of the earth for five months – one hundred and fifty days. ²⁸ And the ark went and rested on the top of Lubar, one of the mountains of Ararat.
²⁹ And, on the new moon in the fourth month, the fountains of the great deep were closed and the flood gates of heaven were restrained; and, on the new moon of the seventh month, all the mouths of the abysses of the earth were opened, and the water began to descend into the deep below. ³⁰ And, on the new moon of the tenth month, the tops of the mountains were seen; and, on the new moon of the first month, the ground became visible.
³¹ And the waters disappeared from above the earth in the fifth week, in the seventh year thereof; and, on the seventeenth day in the second month, the earth was dry. ³² And, on the twenty-seventh thereof, he opened the ark and sent forth from it beasts, and cattle, and birds, and every moving thing.

²⁶ VanderKam does not have the paragraphs break after this verse (but see #24).

²⁷ VanderKam has the numeral, ‘150’ in place of ‘on hundred and fifty’.

²⁸ For ‘Lubar’, Charles reads ‘Lûbâr’.

²⁹ Sparks and VanderKam lack the 1st instance of ‘on the new moon’, here following Charles.

³⁰ Charles and Sparks have ‘earth’ in place of ‘ground’.

³¹ The 7th year was AM 1309.

¹ “And, on the new moon of the third month, he went forth from the ark and built an altar on that mountain. ² And he made atonement for the earth and took a kid and made atonement by its blood for all the guilt of the earth; for, everything that had been on it had been obliterated, except for those that were in the ark with Noah. ³ And he placed the fat thereof on the altar, and he took an ox, and a goat, and a sheep, and kids, and salt, and a turtle-dove, and the young of a dove, and placed a burnt sacrifice on the altar, and poured thereon an offering mingled with oil, and sprinkled wine and strewed frankincense over everything, and caused a soothing savour to arise, acceptable before the Lord. ⁴ And the Lord smelt the soothing savour, and he made a covenant with him that there should not be any more a flood to destroy the earth; that all the days of the earth, seedtime and harvest, should never cease; cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night should not change their order, nor cease for ever.

⁵ “And he said to Noah, “Increase and multiply yourselves upon the earth, and become numerous on it, and be a blessing upon it. The fear of you and the dread of you I will inspire

² For ‘obliterated’, here following VanderKam, Charles has ‘destroyed’.

³ Sparks has ‘acceptable’ in bold type, suggesting a possible doubt in its translation.

⁴ Charles has ‘goodly’ in place of ‘soothing’, here following Sparks (as also in v. 3).

⁵ The words, ‘he said to Noah’, following Sparks, are not in the MSS.

in everything that is on earth and in the sea. ⁶ And behold
 I have given to you for food all beasts, and all winged things, and everything that moves about on the earth, and the fish in the waters, that is, all things, as once I gave you the green herbs, I have now given you all things to eat. ⁷ But flesh, with the life still in it, with the blood, you shall not eat – for, the life of all flesh is in the blood – lest your blood of your lives be required. At the hand of every man, at the hand of every [beast] will I require the blood of man. ⁸ Whoever sheds man’s blood, by man shall his blood be shed; for, in the image of God he made man. ⁹ As for you, be fruitful and multiply on the earth.”

¹⁰ “And Noah and his sons swore that they would not eat any blood that was in any flesh, and he made a covenant before the Lord God for ever, throughout all the generations of the earth, during this month. ¹¹ On this account, he spoke to you that you should make a covenant with the children of Israel in this month upon the mountain with an oath, and that you should sprinkle blood upon them because of all the words of the covenant, which the Lord made with them for ever. ¹² And this testimony is written concerning you that you should observe it

⁶ After ‘waters’, some MSS add ‘and cattle’.

⁷ The word, ‘beast’, is not in the MSS but follows Charles (on the basis of Gn 9:5); the MSS read ‘everyone’.

⁸ VanderKam opens, “The person who shed’s the blood of man.”

⁹ In place of ‘multiply’, VanderKam has ‘become numerous’.

¹⁰ Charles has ‘in’ in place of ‘during’.

¹¹ Sparks has ‘sons’ in place of ‘children’, here following Charles.

¹² For ‘seed’, Sparks has ‘offspring’.

continually, so that you should not eat on any day any blood of beasts or birds or cattle during all the days of the earth, and the man who eats the blood of beast or of cattle or of birds during all the days of the earth, he and his seed shall be rooted out of the land.

¹³ “And you must command the children of Israel to eat no blood, so that their names and their descendants may be before the Lord our God continually. ¹⁴ And, for this law, there is no limit of days; for, it is for ever. They shall observe it throughout their generations, so that they may continue supplicating on their behalf with blood before the altar: every day and at the time of morning and evening they shall seek forgiveness on your behalf perpetually before the Lord that they may keep it and not be rooted out.

¹⁵ “And he gave to Noah and his sons a sign that there should never again be a flood on the earth. ¹⁶ He set his bow in the cloud for a sign of the eternal covenant that there should, henceforth, never again be a flood on the earth to destroy it, throughout all the days of the earth. ¹⁷ For this reason, it is ordained and written on the heavenly tablets, that they should celebrate the Feast of Weeks in this month once a year, to renew the covenant every year. ¹⁸ And this whole festival

¹³ The literal translation of ‘descendants’ is ‘seed’.

¹⁴ For ‘their behalf’, following Sparks, Charles has ‘your behalf’; the Ethiopic text is ambiguous.

¹⁵ VanderKam lacks the opening conjunction.

¹⁶ Charkes lacks the word, ‘throughout’.

¹⁷ The origin of the ‘Feast of Weeks’ is rather different in Lv 23.

¹⁸ These 26 jubilees and 5 weeks of years were AM 1309–1659.

was always celebrated in heaven, from the day of creation until the days of Noah – twenty-six jubilees and five weeks of years; and Noah and his sons observed it for seven jubilees and one week of years, until the day of Noah’s death; and, from the day of Noah’s death, his sons corrupted it, and they ate blood, until the days of Abraham.¹⁹ But Abraham observed it, and Isaac and Jacob and his children observed it, up until your days; and, in your days, the children of Israel forgot it until you celebrated it anew on this mountain.

²⁰ Sparks has ‘sons’ in place of ‘children’, here following Charles.

²¹ Charles does not capitalize ‘Feast of Weeks’ and ‘Feast of First Fruits’.

²⁴ Charles ends the verse, “so that they have become thereby a memorial unto him.”
²⁵ For ‘opened the ark’, Sparks has ‘opened the window of the ark’.
²⁶ For the 2nd instance of ‘mouths of the depths’, Charles has ‘all the mouths of the abysses’.
²⁷ In place of ‘was glad’, Sparks ends with ‘rejoiced’ and VanderKam has ‘was very happy’.
²⁸ Sparks lacks the words, ‘for himself’.
²⁹ The literal translation of ‘recorded’ is ‘placed’.

from the third to the fourth. ³⁰ And all the days of the commandments will be fifty-two weeks of days, and together (they will make) the entire year complete. Thus, it is engraved and ordained on the heavenly tablets. ³¹ And there is no neglecting (this commandment) for a single year or from year to year.

³² “And command the children of Israel that they observe the years according to this reckoning – three hundred and sixty-four days will make a complete year and they will not disturb its time, from its days and from its feasts; for, everything will fall out in them according to their testimony and they will not leave out any day nor disturb any feasts. ³³ But, if they do neglect and do not observe them according to his commandment, then they will disturb all their seasons, and the years will be dislodged from this [and they will disturb the seasons and the years will be dislodged] and they will neglect their ordinances. ³⁴ And all the children of Israel will forget, and will not find the path of the years, and will forget the new moons, and seasons, and Sabbaths, and they will go wrong as to all the order of the years. ³⁵ For, I know and from henceforth I will declare it unto you, and it is not of my own devising; for, the book lies written before me, and on

³¹ For this verse, Sparks reads just, “And no year ever exceeds it.”

³² Before ‘will make’, Charles adds ‘and (these)’.

³³ The part of the translation shown in brackets (following Charles) is a dittography; this is a difficult passage to translate.

³⁴ Charles does not here capitalize ‘Sabbaths’.

the heavenly tablets the division of days is ordained, lest they forget the feasts of the covenant and walk according to the feasts of the Gentiles after their error and after their ignorance. ³⁶ For, there will be those who will assuredly make observations of the moon – how it disturbs the seasons and comes in from year to year ten days too soon. ³⁷ For this reason, the years will come on them when they will disturb the order and make an abominable day the day of testimony, and an unclean day a feast day, and they will confound all the days, the holy with the unclean, and the unclean day with the holy; for they will go wrong as to the months and sabbaths and feasts and jubilees.

³⁸ “For this reason, I command and testify to you that you may testify to them; for, after your death, your children will disturb them, so that they will not make the year three hundred and sixty-four days only; and, for this reason, they will go wrong as to the new moons and seasons and sabbaths and festivals, and they will eat all kinds of blood with all kinds of flesh.

³⁷ For ‘abominable day’, Sparks has ‘a day of no consequence’.

JUBILEES 7

¹ “And, in the seventh week, in the first year thereof, in this jubilee, Noah planted a vine on the mountain on which the ark had rested, named Lubar, one of the Ararat Mountains, and it produced fruit in the fourth year, and he looked after its fruit, and gathered it in this year, in the seventh month. ² And he made wine from it and put it into a vessel, and kept it until the fifth year, until the first day, on the new moon of the first month. ³ And he celebrated with joy the day of this feast, and he made a burnt sacrifice to the Lord, one young ox and one ram, and seven sheep, each a year old, and a kid of the goats, in order that he might make atonement thereby for himself and his sons. ⁴ And he prepared the kid first and placed some of its blood on the flesh that was on the altar that he had made, and all the fat he laid on the altar where he made the whole offering, and the ox and the ram and the sheep, and he laid all their flesh upon the altar. ⁵ And he placed all their offerings mingled with oil upon it; and, afterwards, he sprinkled wine on the fire which he had previously made on the altar, and he placed incense on the altar and caused a soothing odour to ascend that was acceptable before the Lord his God. ⁶ And he was

¹ The 7th week in the 1st year was AM 1317; the 4th year was 1320.

² The 5th year was AM 1321.

³ Sparks has ‘each a year old’ in parentheses.

⁴ In place of ‘whole offering’, here following Sparks, Charles has ‘burnt sacrifice’.

uncleanness and all iniquity. ²¹ For, owing to these three things, came the flood upon the earth, namely, owing to the fornication wherein the Watchers against the law of their ordinances went whoring after the daughters of men, and took themselves wives of all that they chose; and they made the beginning of uncleanness. ²² And they begat sons the Naphidim, and †they were all unlike one another†, and they devoured one another; and the Giants slew the Naphil, and the Nail slew the Eljo, and the Eljo mankind, and one man another. ²³ And everyone sold himself to work iniquity and to shed much blood, and the earth was filled with iniquity. ²⁴ And, after this, they sinned against the beasts and birds, and all that moves and walks on the earth; and much blood was shed on the earth, and every imagination and desire of men imagined vanity and evil continually. ²⁵ And the Lord destroyed everything from the face of the earth; because of the wickedness of their deeds, and because of the blood which they had shed in the midst of the earth, he destroyed everything. ²⁶ “And we were left, I and you, my sons, and everything that entered with us into the ark, and behold I see your works before me that you do not walk in righteousness; for, in the path of ²¹ After ‘three things’, Sparks adds ‘Noah told them’, in italics.

²² By a slight emendation, ‘they were all unlike one another’ could read ‘they all quarrelled with one another; however, the text is probably correct and refers to the 3 different kinds of giants mentioned later in the verse.

²⁴ Sparks has ‘they sinned against’ in bold type.

²⁵ Sparks lacks ‘the face of’.

²⁶ At this point, Noah’s speech to his sons seems to continue.

destruction you have begun to walk, and you are separating, one from another, and are envious one of another, and so it comes about that you are not in harmony, my sons, each of you with his brother. ²⁷ For, I see and behold! The demons have begun their seductions against you and against your children, and now I fear on your behalf that, after my death, you will shed the blood of men upon the earth, and that you, too, will be destroyed from the face of the earth. ²⁸ For, whoever sheds man's blood, and whoever eats the blood of any living creature, shall all be destroyed from the earth. ²⁹ And there shall not be left any man that eats blood, or that sheds the blood of man on the earth, nor shall there be left to him any seed or descendants living under heaven. For, into Sheol shall they go, and into the place of condemnation shall they descend, and into the darkness of the deep shall they all be removed by a violent death. ³⁰ There shall be no blood seen on you of any of the blood that is shed, all the days in which you have killed any beasts or cattle or whatever flies on the earth and work a good work to your souls by covering that which has been shed on the face of the earth. ³¹ And you shall not be like him who eats meat with blood, but guard yourselves that none may eat blood before you: cover the blood; for, thus have I been commanded to testify to you and your children,

²⁷ Sparks lacks 'the face of'.

²⁸ The literal translation of 'living creature' (following Sparks) is 'flesh'.

²⁹ Charles formats this verse as poetry.

³⁰ For 'of any of the blood that is shed', here following Sparks, Charles has 'of all the blood there shall be'.

³¹ Charles lacks the word, 'meat'.

Let them offer in abundance the first of the wine and oil as first fruits on the altar of the Lord, who receives it; and what is left, let the servants of the house of the Lord eat before the altar that receives it. ³⁷ And in the fifth year ... you must make the release the land, so that you release it in ³² For ‘soul’ (twice in this verse), Sparks has ‘life’.

³³ Charles has ‘only’, (here italicized, following Sparks) in parentheses.

³⁴ Another reading for ‘saved me’ is ‘saved us’.

³⁵ Sparks has no verse number 35 in his text – possibly, this is simply a typographical error.

³⁷ The ellipsis here (following Charles) supposes a lacuna in the text, since what follows seems to be appropriate to the 7th year, not the 5th.

² Another reading for ‘writing’ is ‘(the) book(s)’.

⁴ Charles has ‘speak to’ in place of ‘tell’.

and they reached forth their hands and took the writing out of the bosom of Noah, their father. ¹² And there came forth on the writing, as Shem's lot, the middle of the earth, which he should take as an inheritance for himself and for his sons for the generations of eternity, from the middle of the mountain range of Rafa, from the mouth of the water from the river Tina, and his portion goes towards the west through the midst of this river, and it extends till it reaches the water of the abysses, out of which this river goes forth and pours its waters into the sea of Miat, and this river flows into the great sea. And all that is towards the north is Japheth's, and all that is towards the south belongs to Shem. ¹³ And it extends until it reaches Karaso, which is in the bosom of the tongue that looks towards the south. ¹⁴ And his portion extends along the great sea, and it extends in a straight line until it reaches the west of the tongue that looks towards the south; for, this sea is named the tongue of the Egyptian Sea. ¹⁵ And it turns from here towards the south, towards the mouth of the great sea on the shore of its waters, and it extends to the west to Afra, and it extends until it reaches the waters of the river Gihon, and to the south of the waters of Gihon, to the banks of this river. ¹⁶ And it extends towards the east, until it reaches the Garden of Eden, ¹² For 'Rafa', 'Tina', and 'Miat', Charles has 'Râfâ', 'Tînâ', and 'Mê'at', respectively.

¹³ An alternative reading for 'Karaso' is 'Karan'.
¹⁴ Sparks does not capitalize 'Sea' after 'Egyptian'.
¹⁵ Alternative readings for 'Afra' (Charles has 'Afrâ') are 'Afara', 'Arafa' and 'Wafara'.
¹⁶ The words 'to the south' in brackets (following Charles and Sparks) are not in the MSS. There is evidently some geographical confusion in this verse – in later Ethiopic tradition, the meanings of the words for 'north' and 'south' were often interchanged.

to the south thereof, [to the south] and from the east of the whole land of Eden and of the whole east, it turns to the east† and proceeds until it reaches the east of the mountain named Rafa, and it descends to the bank of the mouth of the river Tina.

¹⁸ And Noah rejoiced that this portion came forth for Shem and for his sons, and he remembered all that he had spoken with his mouth in prophecy; for, he had said, “Blessed be the Lord God of Shem and may the Lord dwell in the dwelling of Shem.” ¹⁹ And he knew that the Garden of Eden is the holy of holies, and the dwelling of the Lord, and Mount Sinai the centre of the desert, and Mount Zion – the centre of the navel of the earth: these three were created as holy places facing each other. ²⁰ And he blessed the God of gods, who had put the word of the Lord into his mouth, even the Lord for evermore. ²¹ And he knew that a blessed portion and a blessing had come to Shem and his sons to the generations for ever – the whole land of Eden and the whole land of the Red Sea, and the whole land of the east, and India, and on the Red Sea and the mountains thereof, and all the land of Bashan, and all the

¹⁸ Charles and Sparks format the last part of this verse as poetry.

¹⁹ The editor does not know of any other tradition that equates the Garden of Eden with the ‘holy of holies’ (i.e., the inner sanctuary).

²⁰ Near the end of this verse, Charles has ‘and the Lord’ in place of ‘even the Lord’, here following Sparks.

²¹ For ‘Media’, Charles reads ‘Mâ’êdâi’.

¹ “And, in the third week of this jubilee, the unclean demons began to lead astray †the children of† the sons of Noah, and to make to err and destroy them. ² And the sons of Noah came to Noah their father, and they told him concerning the demons that were leading astray and blinding and slaying his sons’ sons. ³ And he prayed before the Lord his God, and said, “God of the spirits of all flesh, who has shown mercy to me, and has saved me and my sons from the waters of the flood, and has not caused me to perish as you did the sons of perdition; for, your grace has been great towards me, and great has been your mercy to my soul. Let your grace be lift up upon my sons and do not let wicked spirits rule over them, lest they should destroy them from the earth. ⁴ But bless me and my sons, that we may increase and multiply and replenish the earth. ⁵ And you know how your Watchers, the fathers of these spirits, acted in my day; and, as for these spirits that are living, imprison them and hold them fast in the place of condemnation, and do not let them bring destruction on the sons of your servant, my God; for, these are malignant, and created in order to destroy. ⁶ And do not let them rule over the spirits of the living; for, the wickedness of the sons of men.” ⁹ And he said, “Let the tenth part of them remain before him, and let nine parts descend into the place of condemnation.” ¹⁰ And one of us he commanded that we should teach Noah all their medicines; for, he knew that they would not walk in uprightness, nor strive in righteousness.

¹¹ And we did according to all his words: all the malignant evil ones we bound in the place of condemnation and a tenth part of them we left that they might be subject to punishment before Satan on the earth. ¹² And we explained to Noah all the medicines of their diseases, together with their seductions, how he might heal them with herbs of the earth. ¹³ And Noah

² Note that Charles formats vv. 2b–5 as poetry; here, we follow Sparks.

³ For ‘a misleading of the heart’, here following the MSS (and Charles), Sparks has ‘that only lead us into error’.

⁵ A more literal reading of ‘no spirit in them’ is ‘no spirit on them’.

⁶ The translation here (following Charles) implies that Terah was either a municipal employee or under some other contract to make the idols.

⁷ Sparks lacks the opening conjunction.

of the Chaldees, he and his sons, to go into the land of Lebanon and into the land of Canaan, and he dwelt in the land of Haran; and Abram dwelt with Terah his father in Haran for two weeks of years.

¹⁶ “And, in the sixth week, in the fifth year thereof, Abram sat up throughout the night on the new moon of the seventh month to observe the stars from the evening to the morning, in order to see what would be the character of the year with regard to the rains, and he was alone as he sat and observed. ¹⁷ And a word came into his heart and he said, “All the signs of the stars, and the signs of the moon and of the sun are all in the hand of the Lord. Why do I search (them) out? ¹⁸ If he desires, he causes it to rain, morning and evening; and, if he desires, he withholds it; and all things are in his hand.”

¹⁹ “And he prayed that night and said, “My God, God Most High, you alone are my God, and you and your dominion I have chosen. And you have created all things, and all things that are the work of your hands. ²⁰ Deliver me from the hands of evil spirits who have dominion over the thoughts of men’s hearts, And let them not lead me astray from you, my God. And establish me and my seed for ever, that we go not astray from henceforth and for evermore.”

² Cf. Gn 12:6 (LXX).

³ Sparks has ‘descendants’ in place of ‘seed’.

⁴ For ‘whole offering’, here following Sparks, Charles has ‘burnt sacrifice’.

⁵ The words, ‘east of Bethel, with’ follow Sparks; in their place, Charles has an ellipsis.

⁷ Other readings for ‘land’ are ‘hill’ and ‘mountain’.

¹³ For ‘severe diseases’, Charles has ‘great plagues’.

¹ “After these things, in the fourth year of this week, on the new moon of the third month, the word of the Lord came to Abram in a dream, saying, “Fear not, Abram; I am your defender, and your reward will be exceeding great.” ² And he said, “Lord, Lord, what will you give me, seeing I go hence childless, and the son of Maseq, the son of my handmaid, is Eliezer of Damascus; he will be my heir, and to me you have given no seed.” ³ And he said to him, “This will not be your heir but one that will come out of your own bowels; he will be your heir.” ⁴ And he took him outside and said to him, “Look toward heaven and number the stars, if you are able to number them.” ⁵ And he looked toward heaven and beheld the stars. And he said to him, “So shall your seed be.” ⁶ And he believed in the Lord, and it was credited to him for righteousness.
⁷ “And he said to him, “I am the Lord that brought you out of Ur of the Chaldees, to give you the land of the Canaanites to possess it for ever; and I will be God to you and to your seed after you.” ⁸ And he said, “Lord, Lord, how shall I

⁶ In place of ‘credited’, here following VanderKam, Charles has ‘counted’.

⁹ The literal translation of 'Bring', here following Sparks, is 'Take' (as Charles).

¹⁰ For 'and he was living', Sparks has 'while he was living'.

¹¹ In place of 'laid them', Sparks has 'laid the pieces'.

¹² The Ethiopic text translated 'the pieces', here and in vv. 17 & 19, literally means 'the things spread out'; Charles conjectured corruption in the underlying Greek and suggested either 'pieces' or 'carcasses'. Note that the Hebrew text of Gn 15:11 (parallel to this verse) has 'carcasses' and that of Gn 15:17 (parallel to v. 17) has 'cut pieces'.

¹³ For 'it was said', Sparks has 'a voice said'.

¹⁴ In place of 'judge', Sparks has 'punish'.

build up seed to you by her.” ²³ And Abram listened to the voice of Sarai his wife, and said unto her, “Do as you think best.” And Sarai took Hagar, her maid, the Egyptian, and gave her to Abram, her husband, to be his wife. ²⁴ And he went into her, and she conceived and gave birth to a son for him, and he called his name Ishmael, in the fifth year of this week; and this was the eighty-sixth year in the life of Abram.

JUBILEES 15

¹ “And, in the fifth year of the †fourth† week of this jubilee, in the third month, in the middle of the month, Abram celebrated the feast of the first fruits of the grain harvest. ² And he offered new offerings on the altar, the first fruits of the produce, to the Lord, a heifer and a goat and a sheep on the altar as a whole offering to the Lord; their fruit offerings and their drink offerings he offered upon the altar with frankincense. ³ And the Lord appeared to Abram and said to him, “I am God Almighty; prove yourself before me and be perfect. ⁴ And I will make my covenant between me and you, and I will multiply you exceedingly.” ⁵ And Abram fell on his face and God talked with him, and said, ⁶ “Behold my ordinance is with you, and you shall be the father of many nations. ⁷ Neither shall your name any more be called Abram, but your name from henceforth, even for ever, shall be Abraham. For, the father of many nations have I made you. ⁸ And I will make you very great, and I will make you into nations, and kings shall come forth from you. ⁹ And I shall establish my covenant

- ¹ AM 1979. ‘Fourth’ follows most MSS; one has ‘seventh’ but, probably, ‘third’ should be read here and in 16:15.
² For ‘whole offering’, here following Sparks, Charles has ‘burnt sacrifice’.
³ Charles as ‘approve’ in place of ‘prove’.
⁴ Sparks has ‘greatly’ in place of ‘exceedingly’.
⁵ In place of ‘on his face’, VanderKam has ‘prostrate’.
⁶ Charles formats vv. 6–8 as poetry; here, we follow Sparks.
⁷ In place of ‘even for ever’, Sparks has ‘till eternity’.
⁸ In place of ‘come forth’, here following Charles, Sparks has ‘spring’ and VanderKam has ‘emerge’.
⁹ Sparks has ‘descendants’ in place of ‘seed’.

 son be born to him that is a hundred years old, and shall Sarah, who is ninety years old, bring forth a child?" ¹⁸ And Abraham said to God, "O that Ishmael might live before you!"

 you shall call his name Isaac, and I will establish my covenant with him, an everlasting covenant, and for his seed after him.
²⁰ And, as for Ishmael, I have also heard your prayer, and behold, I will bless him, and make him great, and multiply him exceedingly, and he shall become the father of twelve princes, and I will make him a great nation. ²¹ But my covenant I will establish with Isaac, whom Sarah shall bear to you, in these days, in the next year." ²² And he left off speaking with him, and God went up from Abraham.

 covenant, that they should observe it for ever among all the children of Israel. ³⁰ For, Ishmael and his sons and his brothers and Esau, the Lord did not admit into his presence, and he did not choose them because they are the children of Abraham, because he knew them, but he chose Israel to be his people.
³¹ And he sanctified it and gathered it from amongst all the children of men; for, there are many nations and many peoples, and all are his, and over all has he placed spirits in authority to lead them astray from him. ³² But over Israel he did not appoint any angel or spirit; for, he alone is their ruler, and he will preserve keep true to this ordinance, and they will not circumcise their sons according to all this law; for, in the flesh of their circumcision they will omit this circumcision of their sons, and all of them, sons of Beliar, will leave their sons uncircumcised as they were born. ³⁴ And there will be great wrath from the Lord against ³⁰ For ‘admit into his presence’, here following Sparks, Charles has ‘cause to approach him’.

³² The literal translation of ‘powers’ is ‘commands’.

³³ For ‘sons of Beliar’, Sparks has ‘miscreants’.

JUBILEES 16

¹ Charles has ‘announced to’ in place of ‘told’.

² In place of ‘at what we said’, here following Sparks, Charles has ‘on account of the words’.

³ Charles adds ‘i.e.’ in parentheses before ‘Isaac’.

⁵ Literally translated, ‘his judgements on Sodom’ is ‘the judgements of Sodom’.

⁶ For ‘vices’, following Sparks, Charles has ‘uncleanness’ (as also in v. 5); the Ethiopic noun is plural.

Lot we saved; for, God remembered Abraham and sent him out from the midst of the overthrow.⁸ And he and his daughters committed sin upon the earth, such as had not been on the earth since the days of Adam till his time; for the man lay with his daughters.⁹ And behold, it was commanded and engraved concerning all his seed, on the heavenly tablets, to remove them and root them out, and to execute judgment upon them like the judgment of Sodom, and to leave no seed of the man on earth on the day of condemnation.

¹⁰ “And, in this month, Abraham moved from Hebron and departed and dwelt between Kadesh and Shur in the mountains of Gerar.¹¹ And, in the middle of the fifth month, he moved from there and dwelt at the Well of the Oath.¹² And, in the middle of the sixth month, the Lord visited Sarah and did to her as he had spoken and she conceived¹³ and she bore a son in the third month; and, in the middle of the month, at the time of which the Lord had spoken to Abraham, on the festival of the first fruits of the harvest, Isaac was born.¹⁴ And Abraham circumcised his son on the eighth day; he was the first that was circumcised according to the covenant that is ordained for ever.

¹⁰ In place of ‘mountains’, here following the Ethiopic MSS, the Latin MSS have ‘boundaries’.

¹¹ The ‘Well of the Oath’ is Beersheba.

¹² Sparks opens, “And, in the middle of the sixth month, the Lord showed Saraj favour and made good his promise to her.”

¹³ Sparks includes ‘and she bore a son in the third month’ as part of v. 12.

¹⁴ Before ‘covenant’, Sparks adds ‘the rule of’ in italics.

¹⁵ In place of ‘fourth’, we should probably read ‘third’ (cf. #15:1).

¹⁶ The brackets around the text of vv. 15b–16a follow Charles and Sparks; VanderKam does not include them.

¹⁹ Charles has ‘announced’ in place of ‘repeated’.

²⁰ The ‘Well of the Oath’ is Beersheba.

he was an alien, and he celebrated a festival of joy in this month, lasting for seven days, near the altar that he had built at the Well of the Oath. ²¹ And he built booths for himself and for his servants on this festival, and he was the first man to celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles on the earth. ²² And, during these seven days, he brought each day to the altar a whole offering to the Lord, two oxen, two rams, seven sheep, one he-goat, for a sin offering, that he might atone thereby for himself and for his seed. ²³ And, as a thanks-offering, seven rams, seven kids, seven sheep, and seven he-goats, and their fruit offerings and their drink offerings; and he burnt all the fat thereof on the altar, a chosen offering to the Lord for a sweet-smelling savour. ²⁴ And, every morning and every evening, he burnt fragrant substances, frankincense and galbanum, and stacte, and nard, and myrrh, and spice, and costum; all these seven he offered, crushed, mixed together in exactly equal parts and pure. ²⁵ And he celebrated this feast during seven days, rejoicing with all his heart and with all his soul, he and all those who were in his house, and there was no stranger with him, nor any that was uncircumcised. ²⁶ And he blessed his Creator, who had ²¹ Charles does not capitalize 'Feast of Tabernacles'.

²² In place of 'whole', Charles has 'burnt'.

²³ Sparks ends with 'soothing odour' in place of 'sweet-smelling savour'.

²⁴ Charles lacks 'exactly', here following Sparks.

²⁶ For 'according to his good pleasure', Sparks has 'in accordance with his purpose'.

created him in his generation; for, he had created him according to his good pleasure; for, he knew and perceived that, from him, would arise the plant of righteousness for the eternal generations and, from him, a holy seed, so that it should become like him who had made all things. ²⁷ And he blessed the Lord and rejoiced; and he called the name of this festival the festival of the Lord, a joy acceptable to the Most High God. ²⁸ And we blessed him for ever, and all his seed after him throughout all the generations of the earth, because he celebrated this festival in its season, according to the testimony of the heavenly tablets. ²⁹ For this reason, it is ordained on the heavenly tablets concerning Israel, that they shall celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles for seven days with joy, in the seventh month, acceptable before the Lord
 – a statute for ever throughout their generations every year.
³⁰ And to this there is no limit of days; for, it is ordained for ever regarding Israel that they should celebrate it and dwell in booths, and set wreaths on their heads, and take leafy branches, and willow branches from the brook. ³¹ And Abraham took branches of palm trees, and the fruit of goodly trees, and every day going round the altar with the branches seven times a day in the morning, he praised and gave thanks to his God for all things in joy.

²⁷ Charles lacks the 1st instance (in italics) of ‘the Lord’.

²⁸ In place of ‘after him’, here following the Ethiopic MSS, the Latin MSS have ‘with him’.

³⁰ For ‘willow branches’, here following VanderKam, Charles has ‘willows’.

⁴ “And Sarah saw Ishmael playing and dancing, and Abraham rejoicing with great joy, and she became jealous of Ishmael and said to Abraham, “Drive out this bondwoman and her son; for, the son of this bondwoman will not be heir with my son, Isaac.” ⁵ And the thing was grievous in Abraham’s sight, both because of his maidservant and because of his son, that he should drive them from him. ⁶ And God said to Abraham, “Let it not be grievous in your sight, either because of the child his mother took him a wife from among the daughters of Egypt. ¹⁴ And she bore him a son, and he called his name Nebaioth; for, she said, “The Lord was near to me when I called on him.”

¹⁵ “And it came to pass, in the seventh week, in the first year thereof, in the first month in this jubilee, on the twelfth of this month, there were voices in heaven regarding Abraham, that he was faithful in all that he told him, and that he loved the Lord, and that in every affliction he was faithful. ¹⁶ And the prince Mastema came and said before God, “Behold, Abraham loves Isaac his son, and he delights in him above all things else; bid him offer him as a burnt offering on the altar, and you will see if he will do this command, and you will know if he is faithful in everything wherein you try him.” ¹⁷ And the Lord knew that Abraham was faithful in all his afflictions; for, he had tried him through his country and with famine, and had tried him with the wealth of kings, and had tried him again through his wife, when she was torn away from him, and with circumcision; and he had tried him through Ishmael and Hagar, his maid-servant, when he sent them away. ¹⁸ And in everything in which he had tried him, he was found faithful, and his soul was not impatient, and he was not slow to act; for, he was faithful and a lover of the Lord.

Lord called Abraham by his name a second time from heaven, as he caused us to appear to speak to him in the name of the Lord.
¹⁵ And he said, “By myself have I sworn, says the Lord, because you have done this thing and have not withheld your son, your beloved son, from me, that in blessing I will bless you; and, in multiplying I will multiply your seed as the stars of heaven and as the sand that is on the seashore. And your seed shall inherit the cities of its enemies, ¹⁶ And in your seed shall all nations of the earth be blessed; because you have obeyed my voice, and I have shown to all that you are faithful to me in all that I have said unto you: Go in peace.”
¹⁷ “And Abraham went to his young men, and they arose and went together to Beersheba, and Abraham dwelt by the Well of the Oath. ¹⁸ And he celebrated this festival every year, seven days with joy, and he called it the festival of the Lord according to the seven days during which he went and returned in peace. ¹⁹ And, accordingly, it has been ordained and written on the heavenly tablets regarding Israel and its seed that they should observe this festival seven days with the joy of festival.

¹⁷ Note that ‘Beersheba’ means ‘Well of the Oath’.

² We should probably read ‘second’ here in place of ‘third’.

³ Sparks does not have the brackets around ‘to see’, here following Charles.

⁴ For ‘conducted the negotiations’, here following Sparks, Charles has ‘conversed’.

⁶ Sparks has ‘paid the price in full, in ready money’.

double cave. ⁷ And all the days of the life of Sarah were one hundred and twenty-seven years; that is, two jubilees and four weeks and one year; these are the days of the years of the life of Sarah.

⁸ “This is the tenth trial wherewith Abraham was tested, and he was found faithful and patient in spirit. ⁹ And he said not a single word regarding the rumour in the land, of how God had said that he would give it to him and to his seed after him, and he begged a place there to bury his dead; for, he was found faithful and was recorded on the heavenly tablets as the friend of God.

¹⁰ “And, in the fourth year thereof, he took a wife for his son Isaac and her name was Rebecca [the daughter of Bethuel, the son of Nahor, the brother of Abraham] the sister of Laban and daughter of Bethuel; and Bethuel was the son of Melce, who was the wife of Nahor, the brother of Abraham. ¹¹ And Abraham took to himself a third wife, and her name was Keturah, from among the daughters of his household servants, for Hagar had died before Sarah. ¹² And she bore him six sons, Zimram, and Jokshan, and Medan, and Midian, and Ishbak, and Shuah, in the two weeks of years.

⁸ For ‘patient in spirit’, Sparks has ‘consistently patient’.

⁹ Another reading for ‘the rumour in the land’ is ‘the promise concerning the land’.

13 “And, in the sixth week, in the second year thereof, Rebecca gave birth to two sons for Isaac, Jacob and Esau; and Jacob was a smooth and upright man, and Esau was ruthless, a man of the field, and hairy, and Jacob dwelt in the tents. 14 And the youths grew up, and Jacob learned to write; but Esau did not learn to write; for, he was a man of the field and a hunter, and he learnt war, and all his deeds were fierce. 15 And Abraham loved Jacob but Isaac loved Esau.

16 “And Abraham saw the deeds of Esau, and he realized that it was in Jacob that his name and seed would be called; and he called Rebecca and gave her a commandment regarding Jacob; for, he knew that she too loved Jacob much more than Esau. 17 And he said to her, “My daughter, watch over my son Jacob; for, he shall be in my place on the earth, and for a blessing in the midst of the children of men, and for the glory of the whole seed of Shem. 18 For, I know that the Lord will choose him to be a people for his special possession, above all peoples that are upon the face of the earth. 19 And behold, Isaac my son loves Esau more 13 AM 2046. We should probably read ‘fifth’ in place of ‘sixth’.

14 Sparks has ‘boys’ in place of ‘youths’. The literal translation of ‘to write’ is ‘books’.

15 VanderKam lacks the opening conjunction and has the 2nd instance of ‘loved’ in parentheses.

16 In place of ‘that his name and seed would be called’, Sparks has ‘that his promised heirs would come’.

17 Charles formats the 2nd part of this verse as poetry.

18 For ‘special possession’, here following Sparks, Charles has ‘possession unto himself’; there is considerable variation between the Ethiopic MSS but none gives a tolerable sense. The Latin has ‘to be a holy people to himself’, but the verse is clearly an adaptation of Dt 7:6, hence the emendation by Sparks.

19 Charles lacks ‘can’ before ‘see’.

¹ “And, in the forty-second jubilee, in the first year of the [seventh] week, Abraham called Ishmael and his twelve sons, and Isaac and his two sons, and the six sons of Keturah, and their sons. ² And he commanded them that they should observe the way of the Lord; that they should work righteousness, and love each his neighbour, and act in this manner to all men; that they should each so walk with regard to them as to do judgment and righteousness on the earth. ³ That they should circumcise their sons, according to the covenant that he had made with them and not deviate to the right hand or the left of all the paths which the Lord had commanded us; and that we should keep ourselves from all fornication and uncleanness, [and renounce from amongst us all fornication and uncleanness]. ⁴ And, if any woman or girl commits fornication among you, burn her with fire, and let her not commit fornication with her eyes and her heart; and let them not take wives from the daughters of Canaan; for, the seed of Canaan will be rooted out of the land. ⁵ And he told them of the judgment of the giants, and the judgment of the Sodomites, how they had been judged on account of their wickedness, and had died on account of their fornication, and uncleanness, and mutual corruption through fornication.

¹ AM 2052 (or 2045?); we should probably read ‘sixth’ in place of ‘seventh’ here.

² For ‘to all men’, the Ethiopic text reads ‘in every war’.

³ Sparks does not include the last part of this verse in brackets, here following Charles.

⁴ Charles has ‘maid’ in place of ‘girl’, here following Sparks.

⁵ Sparks has a paragraph break at the start of this verse, rather than at v. 6.

⁶ “And guard yourselves from all fornication,” he said, “and uncleanness, and from all pollution of sin, lest you make our name a curse, and your whole life a hissing, and cause all your sons to be destroyed by the sword, and you become accursed like Sodom, and all your remnant as the sons of Gomorrah. ⁷ I implore you, my sons, love the God of heaven and cleave to all his commandments. And do not walk after their idols, and after their uncleanness, ⁸ and do not make gods for yourselves, either cast in metal or carved; for, they are vanity and there is no spirit in them; for, they are work of (men’s) hands and all who trust in them, trust in nothing. ⁹ Do not serve them, nor worship them, but serve the Most High God, and worship him continually. And hope for his countenance always, and work uprightness and righteousness before him, so that he may have pleasure in you and grant you his mercy, and send rain on you morning and evening, and bless all your works, which you have wrought on the earth, and bless your bread and your water, and bless the fruit of your womb, and the fruit of your land, and the herds of your cattle, and the flocks of your sheep. ¹⁰ And you will be for a blessing on the earth, and all nations of the earth will have pleasure in you,

⁶ Note that Charles formats vv. 6–10 as poetry.

⁷ Literally translated, this verse opens, “I bear witness before you.”

⁸ For ‘either cast in metal or carved’, here following Sparks, Charles has ‘molten or graven’.

⁹ Charles does not here capitalize ‘Most High’.

¹⁰ In place of ‘have pleasure in you’, here following the Ethiopic MSS (and Sparks), the Latin MSS (and Charles) have ‘desire you’.

 blood; for, it is the soul; do not eat any blood whatsoever. ¹⁹ And take no gifts for the blood of man, lest it be shed with impunity, without judgment; for it is the blood that is shed that causes the earth to sin, and the earth cannot be cleansed from the blood of man save by the blood of him who shed it. ²⁰ And take no present or bribe for the blood of man: blood for blood, that you may be accepted before the Lord, the Most High God; for, he is the defence of the good, and that you may be preserved from all evil, and that he may save you from every kind of death.

²¹ “I see, my son, that all the works of the children of men are sin and wickedness, and all their deeds are uncleanness and an abomination and a pollution, and there is no righteousness with them. ²² Beware, lest you should walk in their ways and tread in their paths and sin a sin to death before the Most High God. Else he will [hide his face from you and] give you back into the hands of your transgression, and root you out of the land, and your seed likewise from under heaven, and your name and your seed shall perish from the whole earth. ²³ Turn away from all their deeds and all their uncleanness, and observe the ordinance of the Most ¹⁸ Charles ends with ‘eat no blood whatever’.

¹⁹ For the 2nd instance of ‘the earth’ (here in bold type), the MSS read ‘the blood’; on this emendation, cf. 7:33.

²⁰ In place of ‘bribe’, here following Sparks, Charles has ‘gift’.

²¹ Note that Charles formats vv. 21–25 as poetry; here, we follow Sparks.

²² For ‘paths’, Sparks has ‘footsteps’.

²³ The literal translation of ‘observe the ordinance’ is ‘keep the keeping’.

¹ “And it came to pass, in the †first† week, in the †forty-fourth† jubilee, in the †second† year, that is, the year in which Abraham died, that Isaac and Ishmael came from the Well of the Oath to celebrate the feast of weeks – that is, the feast of the first fruits of the harvest – to Abraham, their father, and Abraham rejoiced because his two sons had come. ² For, Isaac had many possessions in Beersheba, and Isaac’s habit was to go and see his possessions and then to return to his father. ³ And, in those days, Ishmael came to see his father; and they both came together and Isaac offered a sacrifice for a burnt offering and presented it on the altar of his father which he had made in Hebron. ⁴ And he offered a thanks offering and made a feast of joy before Ishmael, his brother; and Rebecca made new cakes from the new grain, and gave them to Jacob, her son, to take them to Abraham, his father, from the first fruits of the land, that he might eat and bless the Creator of all things before he died. ⁵ And Isaac, too, sent by the hand of Jacob to Abraham a thanks offering, that he might eat and drink. ⁶ And he ate and drank, and blessed the Most High God, “Who has created

² In place of ‘Isaac’s habit was’, Charles has ‘Isaac was wont’.

³ The word, ‘both’, follows the Latin MSS.

⁴ Abraham was actually Jacob’s grandfather.

⁵ Before ‘thanks offering’, Charles adds ‘best’.

²⁵ The word divider (:) at the beginning of this verse (following VanderKam's transcription) is hard to explain.

²⁶ For 'his affection and his heart', Sparks reads, 'his heart and soul' (as also in v. 28).

²⁸ Sparks has 'descendants' in place of 'seed'.

- ¹ For ‘sleep of eternity’, Sparks has ‘eternal sleep’.
² Sparks has ‘his grandfather’ in place of ‘his father’s father’.
³ Charles has ‘knew’ in place of ‘realized’.
⁴ In place of ‘his bosom’, Sparks has ‘where he was’.
⁵ Sparks opens, “And Isaac bent over his father.”
⁶ For ‘their voices’, here following Sparks, the MSS (and Charles) read ‘the voices’.
⁷ Before ‘weeping’, some MSS add ‘wailing and’.

wife, and they wept for him forty days, all the men of his house, and Isaac and Ishmael, and all their sons, and all the sons of Keturah in their places; and the days of weeping for Abraham were ended.

⁸ “And he lived three jubilees and four weeks of years, one hundred and seventy-five years, and he completed the days of his life, being old and full of days. ⁹ For, the days of the forefathers, of their life, were nineteen jubilees; and, after the Flood, they began to grow less than nineteen jubilees, and to decrease in jubilees, and to grow old quickly, and to be full of their days by reason of manifold tribulation and the wickedness of their ways, with the exception of Abraham. ¹⁰ For Abraham was perfect in all his deeds with the Lord, and well-pleasing in righteousness all the days of his life; and behold, he did not complete four jubilees in his life, when he had grown old by reason of the wickedness and was full of his days. ¹¹ And all the generations that shall arise, from this time until the day of the great judgment, shall grow old quickly, before they complete two jubilees, and their knowledge shall forsake them by reason of their old age [and all their knowledge shall vanish away]. ¹² And, in those days, if a man lives a jubilee and a half of years,

⁸ Sparks ends, “And he died at a good old age.”

¹¹ Sparks ends, “and old age shall impair their powers of mind,” and does not have the brackets (here following Charles).

¹² For ‘they shall say’, Sparks has ‘it shall be said’.

³⁰ For ‘see great peace’, Sparks has ‘prosper greatly’.

³¹ Charles lacks ‘and to tens’, here following Sparks.

³² Sparks has ‘each generation’ in place of ‘the generations’.

³ Charles opens, “And Jacob sod lentil pottage,” where he uses an archaic form of ‘seethed’ (thanks to Dan Getz at Biblical Hermeneutics).

⁷ Sparks ends, “and Esau was demoted.”

⁸ Sparks rearranges the word order, ending, “and came to Abimelech, king of the Philistines, to Gerar.”

⁹ In place of ‘live ... as an alien’, here following Sparks, Charles has ‘sojourn’.

¹² VanderKam reads, “So he lived in Gerar for three weeks of years.”

¹³ AM 2080–2101.

¹⁴ The final ‘a large household’ follows the Latin MSS (ministerium magnum) and Gn 26:14; the Ethiopic MSS have ‘a great possession’.

acquired many possessions, oxen and sheep and camels and asses and a large household. ¹⁵ And he sowed seed in the land of the Philistines and brought in a hundred-fold, and Isaac became exceedingly great, and the Philistines envied him. ¹⁶ Now, all the wells that the servants of Abraham had dug during the life of Abraham, the Philistines had stopped them up after the death of Abraham and filled them with earth. ¹⁷ And Abimelech said to Isaac, “Go from us; for, you are much mightier than we;” and Isaac departed thence in the first year of the seventh week, and sojourned in the valleys of Gerar.

¹⁸ “And they re-dug the wells of water that the servants of Abraham, his father, had dug, which the Philistines had closed after the death of Abraham his father, and he named them as Abraham his father had named them. ¹⁹ And Isaac’s servants dug a well in the valley, and found living water, and the shepherds of Gerar strove with the shepherds of Isaac, saying, “The water is ours;” and Isaac named the well ‘Perversity’, because they had been perverse with us. ²⁰ And they dug a second well, and they strove for that also, and he named it ‘Enmity’. And he arose from there and they dug another well, and for that they strove not, and he named it ‘Room’, and Isaac said, “Now the Lord has made room for us, and we have increased in the land.”

¹⁶ Charles lacks the word, ‘up’, here following Sparks.

¹⁸ Literally translated, this verse opens, “And, as they went round about, the dug.”

¹⁹ Sparks has ‘running’ in place of ‘living’.

²⁰ ‘Enmity’ follows the Latin MSS; the Ethiopic MSS have ‘narrow’.

²¹ AM 2108.

²³ For ‘which his father Abraham had first built’, Sparks has ‘where his father Abraham had built one before’.

²⁴ In place of ‘they dug’, one Ethiopic MS has ‘he dug’; if this is the original reading, the reference is likely to Abraham who, according to Gn 21:25 and 21:30, had dug a well at Beersheba.

²⁵ Another reading for ‘thing’ is ‘word’.

¹ “And, in the second year of this week in this jubilee, Rebecca called Jacob her son, and spoke unto him, saying, “My son, do not take for yourself a wife of the daughters of Canaan, as Esau, your brother, who took for himself two wives of the daughters of Canaan, and they have embittered my soul with all their unclean deeds; for, all their deeds are fornication and lust, and there is no righteousness with them; for, their deeds are evil. ² And I, my son, love you exceedingly, and my heart and my affection bless you every hour of the day and watch of the night. ³ And now, my son, listen to my voice, and do the will of your mother, and do not take for yourself a wife of the daughters of this land, but only of the house of my father, and of my father’s kindred. You shall take for yourself a wife of the house of my father, and the Most High God will bless you, and your children shall be a righteous generation and a holy seed.”

⁴ “And then Jacob spoke to Rebecca, his mother, and said to her, “Behold, mother, I am nine weeks of years old, and I neither know nor have I touched any woman, nor have I betrothed myself to any, nor even thought of taking me a wife of the daughters of Canaan. ⁵ For, I remember, mother, the words of Abraham, our father; for, he commanded me not to take a wife of the daughters of Canaan, but to take for myself a wife from the seed of my father's house and from my kindred. ⁶ I have heard before that daughters have been born to Laban, your brother, and I have set my heart on them, to take a wife from amongst them. ⁷ And, for this reason, I have guarded myself in my spirit against sinning or being corrupted in all my ways throughout all the days of my life;

 for, with regard to lust and fornication, Abraham, my father, gave me many commands. ⁸ And, despite all that he has commanded me, these twenty-two years my brother has striven with me, and spoken time and time again to me and said, "My brother, take to wife a sister of my two wives;" but I refuse to do as he has done. ⁹ I swear before you, mother, that all the days of my life I will not take for myself a wife from the daughters of the seed of Canaan, and I will not act wickedly, as my brother has done. ¹⁰ Do not be afraid, mother; be assured that I shall do your will, and walk in uprightness, and not corrupt my ways for ever."

 ever and ever, who has given me Jacob as a pure son and a holy seed; form he is yours, and yours shall his seed be continually and throughout all the generations for evermore. ¹³ Bless him, O Lord, and place in my mouth the blessing of righteousness, that I may bless him.” ¹⁴ And, at that hour, when the spirit of righteousness descended into her mouth, she placed both her hands on the head of Jacob, and said:

¹⁵ “Blessed are you, Lord of righteousness and God of the ages and may he bless you beyond all the generations of men. May he give you, my son, the path of righteousness and reveal righteousness to your seed. ¹⁶ And may he make your sons many during your life, and may they arise according to the number of the months of the year. And may their sons become many and great beyond the stars of heaven, and their numbers be more than the sand of the sea. ¹⁷ And may he give them this goodly land – as he said he would give it to Abraham and to his seed after him always – and may they hold it as a possession for ever. ¹⁸ And may I see born to you, my son, blessed children during my life,

¹² For ‘all the generations’, Sparks has ‘every generation’.
¹³ In place of ‘blessing of righteousness’, VanderKam has ‘righteous blessing’.
¹⁴ In place of ‘the spirit of righteousness’, one MS has ‘the holy spirit’.
¹⁵ Charles formats vv. 15–23a as poetry.
¹⁶ Sparks opens, “And may he multiply your sons while you are still alive.”
¹⁸ Here, Sparks has ‘race’ in place of the 1st instance of ‘seed’ and ‘descendants’ for the 2nd.

¹ “And, in the seventh year of this week, Isaac called Esau, his elder son, and said to him, “I am old, my son, and behold my eyes are dim in seeing, and I know not the day of my death.
² And now, take your hunting weapons, your quiver and your bow, and go out to the field, and hunt and catch me some venison, my son, and make me savoury meat, such as my soul loves, and bring it to me that I may eat, and that my soul may bless you before I die.” ³ But Rebecca heard Isaac speaking to Esau. ⁴ And Esau went forth early to the field to hunt and catch the venison and bring it home to his father. ⁵ And Rebecca called Jacob, her son, and said to him, “Behold, I heard Isaac, your father, speak to Esau, your brother, saying, “Hunt for me, and make me savoury meat, and bring it to me that I may eat and bless you before the Lord before I die.” ⁶ And now, my son, obey my voice in that which I command you: Go to your flock and fetch me two good kids of the goats, and I will make them savoury meat for your father, such as he loves, and you shall bring it to your father, in order that he may eat and bless you before the Lord, before he dies, and that you may be blessed.” ⁷ And Jacob said to Rebecca his mother, “Mother, I shall not withhold anything that my father would eat, and which would please him; only I fear, my mother, that he will recognise my voice and wish to touch me. ⁸ And you know that I am smooth, and Esau, my brother, is hairy, and I shall appear before his eyes as an evildoer and doing something that he had not commanded me, and he will be angry with me, and I shall bring on myself a curse, and not a blessing.” ⁹ And Rebecca, his mother, said to him, “Upon me be your curse, my son; only obey my voice.”

¹⁰ “And Jacob obeyed the voice of Rebecca, his mother, and went and fetched two good and fat kids of the goats, and brought them to his mother, and his mother made them into food such as he loved. ¹¹ And Rebecca took the best clothes of Esau, her elder son, which were with her in the house, and she clothed Jacob, her younger son, (with them), and she put the skins of the kids upon his hands and on the exposed parts of his neck. ¹² And she gave the meat and the bread that she had prepared into the hand of her son Jacob. ¹³ And Jacob went in to his father and said, “I am your son: I have done according as you bade me; arise and sit and eat of that which I have caught, father, that your soul may bless

⁷ Sparks opens Jacob’s reply with, “Mother, I am not being niggardly about providing.”

⁸ For ‘evildoer’, Sparks has ‘blackguard’.

¹⁰ In place of ‘into food’, Charles has ‘savoury meat’ in angle-brackets (cf. #5).

¹¹ For ‘best clothes’, here following Sparks, Charles has ‘goodly raiment’.

²¹ “And Isaac, his father, said to him, “Come near and kiss me, my son.” And he came near and kissed him. ²² And he smelled the smell of his clothes and blessed him and said, “Behold, the smell of my son is like the smell of a field the Lord has blessed.

¹⁴ Charles lacks ‘it’, here following Sparks.

¹⁶ Sparks opens Isaac’s words with, “Come close to me.”

¹⁷ Sparks opens, “And Jacob came close to his father Isaac.”

¹⁸ Sparks includes Isaac’s words as part of v. 17.

¹⁹ In place of ‘Bring near to me’, Sparks as ‘Bring me the venison’.

²⁰ For ‘ate it’, Charles has ‘did eat’.

²¹ Charles has ‘And he came close and kissed him’ as part of v. 22.

²² Before ‘field’, the Latin MSS (and Charles) add ‘full’ – but note that Charles encloses the word in angle-brackets. Charles has ‘raiment’ in place of ‘clothes’.

²⁵ According to Charles, the words, ‘he hid himself and’ are a later addition.
²⁶ In place of ‘food’, Charles has ‘savoury meat’.
²⁷ Charles has ‘first-born’ in place of ‘elder’, here following Sparks.
²⁸ Before ‘greatly’, Charles adds ‘very’.

seed for ever.” ²⁹ And it came to pass, when Esau heard the words of his father Isaac, that he cried with an exceeding great and bitter cry, and said to his father, “Bless me, even me also, father.” ³⁰ And he said to him, “Your brother came with guile, and has taken away your blessing.” And he said, “Now I know why his name is named Jacob: behold, he has supplanted me these two times;
 he took away my birthright, and now he has taken away my blessing.” ³¹ And he said, “Have you not reserved a blessing for me, father?” And Isaac answered and said to Esau, “Behold, I have made him your lord, and all his brethren have I given to him for servants, and with plenty of corn and wine and oil have I strengthened him. And what now shall I do for you, my son?”
³² And Esau said to Isaac, his father, “Have you but one blessing, O father? Bless me, even me also, father.” And Esau lifted up his voice and wept. ³³ And Isaac answered and said to him, “Behold, far from the dew of the earth shall be your dwelling, and far from the dew of heaven from above. ³⁴ And by your sword will you live, and you will serve your brother. And it shall come to pass when you become great, and shake his yoke from off your neck, you shall sin a complete sin unto death, and your seed shall be rooted out from under heaven.”

²⁹ For ‘the words of his father Isaac’, Sparks has ‘what his father Isaac said’.

³⁰ Sparks has ‘treacherously’ in place of ‘with guile’.

³² Literally translated, Esau’s question opens, “Is your blessing only one?”

³³ Charles and Sparks format vv. 33b–34 as poetry.

³⁴ For ‘when you become great’, Sparks has ‘when you have the power’; and, for ‘you shall sin a complete sin unto death’, he has ‘it will be counted against you as a deadly sin’.

¹ “And the words of Esau, her elder son, were told to Rebecca in a dream, and Rebecca sent and called Jacob her younger son, and said to him, ² “Behold Esau your brother will take vengeance on you so as to kill you. ³ Now, therefore, my son, obey my voice, and arise and flee to Laban, my brother, to Haran, and tarry with him a few days until your brother’s anger turns away, and he removes his anger from you, and forgets all that you have done; then I will send and fetch you from there.” ⁴ And Jacob said, “I am not afraid; if he wishes to kill me, I will kill him.” ⁵ But she said to him, “Do not be the cause of my losing both my sons on the same day.” ⁶ And Jacob said to Rebecca his mother, “Behold, you know that my father has become old, and does not see because his eyes have failed and, if I leave him, it will be evil in his eyes, because I leave him and go away from you, and my father will be angry, and will curse me. I will not go; when he sends me, then only will I go.” ⁷ And Rebecca said to Jacob, “I will go in and speak to him, and he will send you away.”

- ¹ Sparks opens, “And what Esas, her elder son was saying.”
² Sparks reads, “Behold, your brother Esau is planning to get his own back on you and kill you.”
³ In place of ‘removes his anger from you’, Sparks has ‘thinks no more about it’.
⁴ After ‘afraid’, Sparks adds ‘of him’ in italics.
⁵ Charles opens Rebecca’s words, here following Sparks, with, “Let me not be bereft of both.”
⁶ For ‘have failed’, Charles has ‘are dull’.
⁷ Sparks has ‘talk’ in place of ‘speak’.

¹⁰ Sparks includes the word up to ‘Canaan’ as part of v. 9.

¹² Sparks has the paragraph break after this verse, rather than before it.

¹⁴ VanderKam has ‘safely’ in place of ‘in peace’ (twice in this verse).

 again, Jacob went into Leah, and she conceived, and gave birth for Jacob a second son, and he called his name Simeon, on the twenty-first of the tenth month, and in the third year of this week. ¹⁴ And again, Jacob went into Leah, and she conceived, and gave birth for him a third son, and he called his name Levi, in the new moon of the first month in the sixth year of this week. ¹⁵ And again, Jacob went into her, and she conceived, and gave birth for him a fourth son, and he called his name Judah, on the fifteenth of the third month, in the first year of the fourth week.

¹⁶ “And, on account of all this, Rachel envied Leah; for, she did not bear, and she said to Jacob, “Give me children;” and Jacob said, “Have I withheld from you the fruits of your womb? Have I forsaken you?” ¹⁷ And, when Rachel saw that Leah had borne four sons to Jacob, Reuben and Simeon and Levi and Judah, she said to him, “Go into Bilhah my handmaid, and she will conceive, and bear a son for me.” ¹⁸ <And she gave (him) Bilhah her handmaid as a wife>. And he went into her, and she conceived, and bore a son, and she called his name Joseph, on the new moon of the fourth month, in the sixth year in this fourth week.

²⁵ “And, in the days when Joseph was born, Jacob said to Laban, “Give me my wives and sons, and let me go to my father Isaac, and let me make me a house; for, I have completed the years in which I have served you for your two daughters, and I will go to the house of my father.” ²⁶ And Laban said to Jacob, “Tarry with me for your wages, and pasture my flock for me again, and take your wages.” ²⁷ And they agreed with one another that he should give him as his wages those of the lambs and kids that were born black and spotted and white, these were to be his wages. ²⁸ And all the sheep brought forth spotted and speckled and black, variously marked, and they brought forth again lambs like themselves; and all that were spotted were Jacob’s and, those that were not, were Laban’s. ²⁹ And Jacob’s possessions multiplied exceedingly, and he possessed oxen and sheep and asses and camels, and menservants and maidservants. ³⁰ And Laban and his sons envied Jacob, and Laban took back his sheep from him, and he observed him with evil intent.

²⁵ In place of ‘in the days’, Sparks has ‘at the time’.

²⁷ For ‘black and spotted and white’, Sparks has ‘grey or spotted or speckled’.

²⁸ The precise meaning of some of the Ethiopic words used to describes differences in colour in this passage is uncertain.

³⁰ Sparks has ‘eyed’ in place of ‘observed’.

¹ “And it came to pass when Rachel had borne Joseph, that Laban went to shear his sheep; for, they were distant from him a three days’ journey each way. ² And Jacob saw that Laban was going to shear his sheep, and Jacob called Leah and Rachel, and spoke kindly to them that they should come with him to the land of Canaan. ³ For, he told them how he had seen everything in a dream, even all that he had spoken to him that he should return to his father’s house; and they said, “To every place whither you go we will go with you.” ⁴ And Jacob blessed the God of Isaac his father, and the God of Abraham his father’s father, and he arose and mounted his wives and his children, and took all his possessions and crossed the river, and came to the land of Gilead, and Jacob hid his intention from Laban and told him not.

⁵ “And, in the seventh year of the fourth week Jacob, turned his face toward Gilead in the first month, on the twenty-first day of the month. And Laban pursued after him and overtook Jacob in the highlands of Gilead in the third month, on the thirteenth thereof. ⁶ And the Lord did not suffer

⁵ “And thus, let it not again be done from henceforth, that a daughter of Israel should be defiled; for, judgment is ordained in heaven against them that they should destroy with the sword all the men of the Shechemites because they had committed an outrage in Israel. ⁶ And the Lord delivered them into the hands of the sons of Jacob, in order that they might exterminate them with the sword and execute judgment upon them, and that it might not thus again be done in Israel that a virgin of Israel should be defiled. ⁷ And, if there is any man who wishes in Israel to give his daughter or his sister to any man who is of the seed of the Gentiles, he shall surely die, and they shall stone him with stones; for, he has wrought shame in Israel; and they shall burn the woman with fire, because she has dishonoured the name of the house of her father, and she shall be rooted out of Israel. ⁸ And let not an adulteress and no uncleanness be found in Israel throughout all the days of the generations of the earth; for, Israel is holy to the Lord, and every man who has defiled it shall surely die; they shall stone him with stones. ⁹ For, thus has it been ordained and written in the heavenly tablets regarding all the seed of Israel: he who defiles it shall surely die, and he shall be stoned with stones. ¹⁰ And, to this law, there is no limit of days, and no remission, nor any atonement; but the man who has defiled his daughter shall be rooted out in the midst of all Israel, because he has given of his seed to Moloch, and wrought impiously so as to defile it.

¹¹ “And Moses, command the children of Israel and exhort them not to give their daughters to the Gentiles, and not ⁷ In place of ‘with fire’, Sparks has ‘alive’.

⁸ For ‘throughout all the days of the generations of the earth’, Sparks has just ‘at any time’.

⁹ After ‘seed of Israel’, Sparks adds ‘in perpetuity’.

¹⁰ In place of ‘atonement’, Sparks has ‘substitute (for it)’.

¹¹ The phrase, ‘for their sons’ follows the Latin MSS; one Ethiopic MS has ‘for themselves’ and the rest omit the phrase.

to take for their sons any of the daughters of the Gentiles;
for, this is abominable before the Lord. ¹² For this reason, I have written for you in the words of the Law all the deeds of the Shechemites, which they wrought against Dinah, and how the sons of Jacob spoke, saying, “We will not give our daughter to a man who is uncircumcised; for, that would be a disgrace for us.” ¹³ And it is a disgrace to Israel, to those who give, and to those that take the daughters of the Gentiles; for, this is unclean and abominable to Israel. ¹⁴ And Israel will not be free from this uncleanness if it has a wife of the daughters of the Gentiles, or has given any of its daughters to a man who is of any of the Gentiles. ¹⁵ For, there will be plague upon plague, and curse upon curse, and every judgement and plague and curse will come <on him>, if he does this thing, or hides his eyes from those who commit uncleanness, or those who defile the sanctuary of the Lord, or those who profane his holy name, then will the whole nation together will be judged for all the uncleanness and profanation of this man. ¹⁶ And there will be no respect of persons [and no consideration of persons], and no receiving at his hands of fruits and offerings and burnt offerings and fat, nor the fragrance of sweet savour, so as to accept it;

¹² In place of ‘would be a disgrace’, Charles has ‘were a reproach’.

¹³ For the 1st instance of ‘to Israel’, Sparks has ‘for an Israelite’.

¹⁴ The word translated ‘Gentiles’ can also mean ‘nations’.

¹⁵ In place of ‘on him’, here following the Latin MSS (and Charles), Sparks has ‘on Israel’.

¹⁶ Sparks lacks the brackets around ‘and no consideration of persons’, here following Charles.

and thus will fare every man or woman in Israel who defiles the sanctuary. ¹⁷ For this reason, I have commanded you, saying, “Testify this testimony to Israel: see how the Shechemites fared and their sons, how they were delivered into the hands of two sons of Jacob, and they slew them under tortures, and it was reckoned unto them for righteousness, and it is written down to them for righteousness. ¹⁸ And the seed of Levi was chosen for the priesthood, and to be Levites, that they might minister before the Lord, as we, continually, and that Levi and his sons may be blessed for ever; for he was zealous to execute righteousness and judgment and vengeance on all those who arose against Israel. ¹⁹ And so, they inscribe as a testimony in his favour on the heavenly tablets, blessing and righteousness before the God of all. ²⁰ And we remember the righteousness that the man fulfilled during his life, at all periods of the year; until a thousand generations they will record it, and it will come to him and to his descendants after him, and he has been recorded on the heavenly tablets as a friend and a righteous man.”

²¹ “All this account I have written for you and have commanded you to say to the children of Israel, not to commit sin nor transgress the ordinances nor break the covenant that has been ordained for them, but to fulfil it and be recorded as friends.

¹⁷ Sparks opens the speech, “Give Israel this solemn warning.”

¹⁸ Sparks has ‘descendants’ in place of ‘seed’.

¹⁹ Sparks transposes ‘blessings and righteousness’ to before ‘as a testimony’.

²⁰ For ‘righteousness’, Sparks has ‘righteous acts’.

²⁴ “And they brought Dinah, their sister, out of the house of Shechem, and they laid their hands on everything that was in Shechem, their sheep and their oxen and their asses, and all their wealth, and all their flocks, and brought them all to Jacob their father. ²⁵ And he reproached them because they had put the city to the sword; for, he feared those who dwelt in the land, the Canaanites and the Perizzites. ²⁶ And the dread of the Lord was upon all the cities that are around about Shechem, and they did not rise to pursue after the sons of Jacob; for, terror had fallen upon them.

²³ For ‘it was recorded’, Charles has ‘a writing was recorded’.

²⁴ In place of ‘laid their hands on’, here following Sparks, Charles has ‘took captive’.

²⁵ The referent of the pronoun, ‘he’, is Jacob.

²⁶ In place of ‘pursue’, here following the Latin MSS, the Ethiopic MSS have ‘expel’.

¹ “And, on the new moon of the month, Jacob spoke to all the people of his house, saying, “Purify yourselves and change your garments, and let us arise and go up to Bethel, where I vowed a vow to him on the day when I fled from the face of Esau my brother, because he has been with me and brought me into this land in peace, and put away the strange gods that are among you.” ² And they melted down the strange gods and that which was in their ears and which was [†]on their necks[†], and the idols that Rachel stole from Laban her father she gave wholly to Jacob. And he burnt and broke them to pieces and destroyed them and hid them under an oak that is in the land of Shechem. ³ And he went up, on the new moon of the seventh month, to Bethel. And he built an altar at the place where he had slept, and he set up a pillar there, and he sent word to his father Isaac to come to him to his sacrifice, and to his mother Rebecca. ⁴ And Isaac said, “Let my son Jacob come; and let me see him before I die.” ⁵ And Jacob went to his father Isaac and to his mother Rebecca, to the house of his father Abraham, and he took two of his sons with him, Levi and Judah, and he came to

¹ Sparks has ‘to the Lord’ in place of ‘to him’.

² In place of ‘melted down’, Charles has ‘gave up’ (requiring a slight change in the Ethiopic text).

³ VanderKam has ‘first’ in place of ‘new moon’.

⁴ VanderKam lacks the opening conjunction.

 came forth from the tower to the front of it to kiss Jacob and embrace him; for, her spirit had revived when she heard, “Behold Jacob your son has come;” and she kissed him. ⁷ And she saw upon his neck. ⁹ And the darkness left the eyes of Isaac, and he saw the two sons of Jacob, Levi, and Judah, and he said, “Are these your sons, my son” For, they are like you.’ ¹⁰ And he said to him that they were truly his sons, “And you have truly seen that they are †truly† my sons.” ¹¹ And they came near to him, and he turned and kissed them and embraced them both together. ¹² And the spirit of prophecy came down into his and may your table be full unto all generations, and may your food not be lacking throughout all the ages. ¹⁷ And let all those who hate you fall down before you, and let all your adversaries be rooted out and perish; and blessed be he that blesses you, and cursed be every nation that curses you.” ¹⁸ And to Judah he said, “May the Lord give you strength and power to tread down all that hate you. A prince shall you be, you and one of your sons, over the sons of Jacob.

 May your name and the name of your sons go forth and traverse every land and region. Then shall the Gentiles fear before your face, and all the nations shall quake [and all the peoples shall quake]. ¹⁹ In you shall be the help of Jacob, and in you be found the salvation of Israel. ²⁰ And, when you sit on the throne of honour of your righteousness, there shall be great peace for all the seed of the sons of the beloved. Blessed be he that blesses you, and all that hate you and afflict you and curse you shall be rooted out and destroyed from the earth and be accursed.”
²¹ “And, turning, he kissed him again and embraced him and rejoiced greatly; for, he had seen the sons of Jacob his son in very truth. ²² And he went forth from between his feet and fell down

¹⁷ Charkes lacks ‘those’.
¹⁸ Sparks begins a new paragraph with this verse.
¹⁹ VanderKam has ‘safety’ in place of ‘salvation’.
²⁰ Sparks opens, “And, when you sit on the throne of honour, your righteousness will bring great peace.”
²¹ Another reading for ‘very truth’ is ‘righteousness’.
²² In place of ‘went forth’, Sparks has ‘disengaged himself’.

and bowed down to him, and he blessed them and rested there

²³ And he made the two sons of Jacob sleep, the one on his right hand and the other on his left, and it was counted to him as righteousness.

²⁴ “And Jacob told his father everything during the night, how the Lord had shown him great mercy, and how he had prospered him in all his ways, and protected him from all evil. ²⁵ And Isaac blessed the God of his father Abraham, who had not withdrawn his mercy and his faithfulness from the sons of his servant Isaac.

²⁶ And, in the morning, Jacob told his father Isaac the vow that he had vowed to the Lord, and the vision that he had seen, and that he had built an altar, and that everything was ready for the sacrifice to be made before the Lord as he had vowed, and that he had come to set him on an ass. ²⁷ And Isaac said to Jacob his son, “I am not able to go with you; for, I am old and not able to sixty-five years this day; I am no longer able to journey; set your mother (on an ass) and let her go with you. ²⁸ And I know, my son, that you have come on my account, and may this day be blessed on which you have seen me alive, and I also have seen

²³ Charles has ‘for righteousness’ in place of ‘as righteousness’.

²⁴ In place of ‘all his ways’, Sparks has ‘every way’.

²⁵ For ‘faithfulness’, here following VanderKam, Charles has ‘righteousness’.

²⁶ At the end of this verse, Sparks adds ‘and take him with him’ (in italics).

²⁸ Sparks adds ‘still’ (in italics) before ‘alive’.

 vowed; and do not put off your vow; for, you shall be called to with which his father had blessed him and his two sons, Levi and Judah, and he rejoiced and blessed the God of his fathers, Abraham and Isaac. ³² And he said, “Now I know that I have an eternal hope, and my sons also, before the God of all.” And so it was decreed concerning the two; and they record it as an eternal testimony to them on the heavenly tablets, how Isaac blessed them.

²⁹ For ‘with regard to’, Charles has ‘as touching’.

³⁰ Sparks has the paragraph break at the beginning of this verse.

³¹ VanderKam opens, “When Jacob recalled the prayer.”

JUBILEES 32

¹ “And he spent that night at Bethel, and Levi dreamed that they had ordained and made him the priest of the Most High God, him and his sons for ever; and he woke up from his sleep and blessed the Lord. ² And Jacob rose early in the morning, on the fourteenth of this month, and he gave a tithe of all that came with him, both of men and cattle, both of gold, and every vessel, and garment; he gave a tithe of everything. ³ And, in those days, Rachel became pregnant with her son Benjamin. And Jacob counted his sons from him upwards and Levi fell to the portion of the Lord, and his father clothed him in the garments of the priesthood and filled his hands. ⁴ And, on the fifteenth of this month, he brought to the altar fourteen oxen from amongst the cattle, and twenty-eight rams, and forty-nine sheep, and seven lambs, and twenty-one kids of the goats as a whole offering on the altar of sacrifice, well pleasing for a sweet savour before God. ⁵ This was his offering, in consequence of the vow that he had vowed that he would give a tenth, with their fruit offerings and their drink offerings. ⁶ And, when the fire had consumed it, he burnt incense

¹ In place of ‘he spent’, here following the Ethiopic MSS, the Latin MSS have ‘they slept’.

² For ‘a tithe of everything’, here following VanderKam, Charles has ‘tithes of all’.

³ The idea seems to be that, as Levi was the 3rd of Jacob’s sons, he would be the tenth if counted backwards from Benjamin.

⁴ For ‘whole offering’, here following Sparks, Charles has ‘burnt offering’.

⁵ In place of ‘their fruit offerings and their drink offerings’, VanderKam has ‘their sacrifices and their libations’.

⁶ VanderKam has ‘peace offering’ in place of ‘thanks offering’.

on the fire over the fire, and for a thanks offering, two oxen, and four rams, and four sheep, and four he-goats, and two sheep of a year old, and two kids of the goats; and thus he did daily for seven days. ⁷ And he and all his sons and his men were eating this with joy there during seven days and blessing and thanking the Lord, who had delivered him out of all his tribulation and had given him his vow. ⁸ And he tithed all the clean animals and made a burnt sacrifice; but the unclean animals he did not give to Levi his son, and he gave him all the souls of the men. ⁹ And Levi discharged the priestly office at Bethel before Jacob his father in preference to his ten brothers, and he was a priest there, and Jacob gave his vow; thus, he tithed again the tithe to the Lord and sanctified it, and it became holy to him.
¹⁰ “And, for this reason, it is ordained on the heavenly tablets as a law for the tithing again the tithe to eat before the Lord from year to year, in the place where it is chosen that his name should dwell; and, to this law, there is no limit of days for ever. ¹¹ This ordinance is written in order that it may be fulfilled from year to year in eating the second tithe before the Lord in the place where it has been chosen, and nothing shall remain over from it from this year to the year following. ¹² For, in its

⁷ Sparks ends with ‘granted him his prayer’ in place of ‘given him his vow’.

⁸ For ‘did not give’, the Ethiopic text reads ‘gave’; the genitive is here added following Charles.

⁹ In place of ‘sanctified’, Sparks has ‘hallowed’.

¹⁰ Sparks ends, “there is no time limit whatever.”

¹¹ Sparks has ‘decree’ in place of ‘ordinance’, as also in v. 10.

¹³ In place of ‘stale’, here following Sparks, Charles has ‘old’ (as also in v. 14).

¹⁴ For ‘allow’, Charles has ‘suffer’.

¹⁵ Sparks has ‘so it is decreed’ in place of ‘thus it is ordained’.

¹⁶ In place of ‘sanctify’, Sparks has ‘hallow’.

¹⁷ Sparks ends, “but Israel shall be your name.”

¹⁸ For ‘judge’, Sparks has ‘sit in judgement’.

²⁰ Sparks starts a new paragraph at this verse.

²¹ In place of ‘knew’, following the Latin MS, the Ethiopic MSS repeat ‘read’.

²² For ‘and do not dwell here’, Sparks has ‘or a permanent abode’.

²³ Sparks lacks the opening ‘For’.

²⁴ Sparks opens, “Do not be afraid.”

²⁵ For God’s reply, Sparks reads, “I will see that you remember everything.”

²⁶ Sparks includes ‘And he went up from him’ as part of v. 25.

²⁷ In place of ‘Addition’, here following the Ethiopic MSS, the Latin MS has ‘Keeping Back’ (retentatio).

²⁸ Here, the Latin MS agrees with the Ethiopic MSS in reading ‘and add it’.

²⁹ The Ethiopic and Latin MSS are in essential agreement on the text of this verse.

³⁰ In place of ‘he called’, here following the Ethiopic MSS, the Latin MS reads ‘they called’.

³¹ For ‘of the kind that he liked’, here following Sparks, Charles has ‘such as he desired’.

³² For ‘Kabratán’, Charles reads ‘Kabratân’.

JUBILEES 33

¹ “And Jacob went and dwelt to the south of Migdal-Eder-Ephrata. And he went to his father Isaac, he and Leah his wife, on the new moon of the tenth month.
² And Reuben saw Bilhah, Rachel’s maid, the concubine of his father, bathing in water in a secret place, and he loved her.
⁷ And, when Jacob returned and sought her, she said to him, “I am not clean for you; for, I have been defiled as regards you; for, Reuben has defiled me and has laid with me in the night, and I was asleep, and did not discover until he uncovered my skirt and slept with me.” ⁸ And Jacob was very angry with

² In place of ‘secret’, Sparks has ‘secluded’.

³ After ‘house of Bilhah’, Charles adds ‘at night’ in brackets.

⁴ Sparks includes ‘And he lay with her’ as part of v. 3.

⁵ For ‘she was ashamed because of him’, here following the Ethiopic MSS, the Latin MS reads ‘he was ashamed because of her’.

⁶ Charles opens, “And she lamented because of this thing exceedingly.”

⁷ Sparks omits ‘as regards you’.

Reuben because he had laid with Bilhah, for uncovering his father's skirt. ⁹ And Jacob did not approach her again because Reuben had defiled her.

“And, as for any man who uncovers his father's skirt, his deed is immeasurably wicked; for, he is abominable before the Lord. ¹⁰ For this reason, it is written and ordained on the heavenly tablets that a man should not lie with his father's wife, and should not uncover his father's skirt; for, this is unclean: they shall surely die together, the man who lies with his father's wife and the woman also; for, they are guilty of uncleanness on the earth. ¹¹ And there shall be nothing unclean before our God in the nation that he has chosen for himself as a possession. ¹² And again, it is written a second time, “Cursed be he who lies with the wife of his father; for, he has uncovered his father's shame.” And all the holy ones of the Lord said, “Amen, Amen.”

¹³ “And Moses, command the children of Israel that they observe this word; for, it entails a punishment of death; and it is unclean, and there is no atonement for ever to atone for the man who has committed this, but he is to be put to death and slain, and stoned with stones, and rooted out from the midst of the people of our God. ¹⁴ For, to no man who does so in Israel is it permitted to revealed the ordinance and judgment and law in its completeness in every case, but in your days it has been revealed as a law of seasons and of days, and an everlasting law for the everlasting generations. ¹⁷ And, for this law, there is no consummation of days, and no atonement for it, but they must both be rooted out in the midst of the nation: on the day on which they committed it, they shall slay them.

¹⁸ “And Moses, write it down for Israel that they may observe it, and do according to these words, and not commit a sin to death; for the Lord our God is judge, who does not ⁷ For ‘Gaash’, Charles here reads ‘Ga[gâ]’as’.

⁸ Another reading for ‘built’ is ‘restored’.

¹⁰ AM 2149.

¹¹ ‘Elew’ (Charles has ‘Êlêw’) was Heliopolis.

¹² The word ‘day’ is not in the Ethiopic text.

¹³ In place of ‘he became feverish with mourning for his death’, Sparks has ‘he was beside himself with grief’.

he mourned all that night; for, they had brought it to him in the evening, and he became feverish with mourning for his death, and he said, “An evil beast has devoured Joseph;” and all the members of his house [mourned with him that day, and they] were grieving and mourning with him all that day. ¹⁴ And his sons and his daughter rose up to comfort him, but he refused to be comforted for his son. ¹⁵ And, on that day, Bilhah heard that Joseph had perished, and she died mourning him, and she was living in †Qafrateft† and Dinah also, his daughter, died after Joseph had perished. ¹⁶ And there came these three causes for mourning upon Israel in one month. And they buried Bilhah over against the tomb of Rachel, and Dinah also, his daughter, they buried there. ¹⁷ And he mourned for Joseph for one year and did not cease; for, he said, “Let me go down to the grave mourning for my son.” ¹⁸ For this reason, it is ordained for the children of Israel that they should afflict themselves on the tenth of the seventh month – on the day that the news which made him weep for Joseph came to Jacob his father – that they should make atonement for themselves thereon with a young goat on the tenth of the seventh month, once a year, for their sins; for they had grieved the affection of their father regarding Joseph his

² For the 1st instance of ‘sepulchre’, Sparks has ‘burial place’ and, for the 2^{ns} instance, he has ‘grave’.

³ Charles opens, “And this I command you.”

⁵ For ‘a delusion and a snare’, here following Sparks, Charles has ‘full of deception’.

⁶ Charles does not have ‘how’ in bold type, here following Sparks.

I too worshipped him and served him in righteousness and in joy, that he might multiply you and increase your seed until they are like the stars of heaven in multitude, and establish you on the earth as the plant of righteousness that will not be rooted out for all the generations for ever. ⁷ And now I shall make you swear a great oath – for, there is no oath that is greater than it by the Name, glorious and honoured, and great and splendid, and wonderful and mighty, which created the heavens and the earth and all things together – that you will fear him and worship him. ⁸ And that each of you will love his brother with affection and righteousness, and that neither will harbour any evil desires against his brother from henceforth for ever all the days of your life, so that you may prosper in all your deeds and not be destroyed.
⁹ And, if either of you harbours any evil desires against his brother, know that from henceforth everyone that harbours any evil desires evil against his brother shall fall into his hand, and shall be rooted out of the land of the living, and his seed shall be destroyed from under heaven. ¹⁰ But, on the day of turbulence and execration and indignation and anger, with flaming devouring fire, just as he burned Sodom, so likewise will he burn his land and his city and all that is his, and he shall be blotted out of the book of the discipline

⁷ Charles does not capitalize ‘Name’.

⁸ Charles lacks ‘of you’, here following Sparks.

⁹ For ‘harbours any evil desires’, here following Sparks, Charles has ‘desires evil’ (as also in v. 8).

¹⁰ In place of ‘he burned Sodom’, Sparks has ‘the Lord burned Sodom’.

¹¹ In place of 'according to the judgement that shall come', Sparks has 'that judgement will come'.

¹² Charles lacks 'of them', here following Sparks.

¹³ For Isaac's speech, Charles reads, "This large portion I will give to the firstborn."

¹⁴ Charles lacks 'therefore', here following Sparks.

¹⁵ Sparks has 'descendants' in place of 'seed', as also in v. 16.

JUBILEES 37

¹ “And, on the day that Isaac the father of Jacob and Esau died, the sons of Esau heard that Isaac had given the portion of the elder to his younger son Jacob and they were very angry.
² And they started a dispute with their father, saying, “Why has your father given Jacob the portion of the elder and passed over you, although you are the elder and Jacob is the younger?”
³ And he said to them, “Because I sold my birthright to Jacob for a modest stew of lentils; and, on the day my father sent me out hunting, to catch and bring him something that he should eat and bless me, he came with guile and brought my father food and drink, and my father blessed him and put me under his hand.
⁴ And now, our father has caused us to swear, me and him, that we shall not mutually harbour any evil desire, either against his brother, and that we shall continue, in love and in peace each with his brother and not make our ways corrupt.”
⁵ And they said to him, “We shall not listen to you to make peace with him; for, our strength is greater than his strength, and we are more powerful than he; we shall go against him, and slay him, and destroy him and his sons. And, if you will not go with us, we shall do damage to you also.
⁶ And now,

² For ‘started a dispute’, here following Sparks, Charles has ‘strove’.

³ Charles has ‘mess’ in place of ‘lentils’.

⁴ For ‘harbour any evil desire’, here following Sparks, Charles has ‘desire evil’.

⁵ The words, ‘him and his sons’, follow one Ethiopic MS and the Latin MS; the majority of Ethiopic MSS here read just ‘his sons’.

⁸ Charles includes ‘We shall not listen to these words’ as part of v. 9.

⁹ For ‘Aduram’, Charles read ‘Adurâm’.

¹¹ For ‘Take the field’, Charles has ‘Go forth’.

afterward he remembered all the evil that lay hidden in his heart against Jacob his brother; ¹³ and he did not remember the oath that he had sworn to his father and to his mother, that he would harbour no evil intent all his days against Jacob his brother.

¹⁴ “And notwithstanding all this, Jacob did not know that they were coming against him to battle, and he was mourning for Leah, his wife, until they approached very near to the tower, with four thousand warriors and picked men of war. ¹⁵ And the men of Hebron sent to him saying, “Behold your brother has come against you, to fight you, with four thousand armed with the sword, and they carry shields and weapons;” for, they loved Jacob more than Esau. So, they told him; for, Jacob was a more liberal and merciful man than Esau. ¹⁶ But Jacob would not believe it until they came very near to the tower. ¹⁷ And he closed the gates of the tower; and he stood on the battlements and spoke to his brother Esau and said, “Noble is the comfort with which you have come to comfort me for my wife who has died. Is this the oath that you swore to your father and again to your mother before they died? You have broken the oath and, at the moment that you swore to your father, were you condemned.”

¹⁶ Charles lacks the italicised ‘it’, here following Sparks.

¹⁷ Jacob’s opening remark is sarcastic.

¹⁸ “And Esau answered immediately and said to him, “Neither the children of men nor the beasts of the earth have any oath of righteousness that, in swearing, they have sworn an oath valid for each may slay his adversary and enemy. ¹⁹ And you hate me and “If the boar can change its skin and make its bristles as soft as wool, or if it can cause horns to sprout forth on its head like the horns of a stag or of a sheep, then will I observe the tie of brotherhood with you. †And if the breasts separated themselves

²³ And, when the raven becomes white as the raza, then know that I have loved you and shall make peace with you. You shall be rooted out, and your sons shall be rooted out, and there shall be no peace for you.”

¹⁸ For ‘And Esau answered immediately’, here following Sparks, Charles opens with ‘And then Esau answered’.

¹⁹ Sparks lacks the opening conjunction.

²⁰ All Ethiopic MSS have the words here surrounded with daggers, here following Charles; Sparks lacks the text but mentions it in a footnote.

²¹ Charles lacks ‘inclined’, here following Sparks.

²² In some MSS, ‘and makes peace with him’ comes after ‘and ploughs with him’; in others, the words are omitted.

²³ Note that Charles and Sparks format vv. 20b–23 as poetry. According to Charles, ‘raza’ was a local name for a large, white bird.

²⁴ For ‘with his heart and with all his soul’, Sparks has ‘and was determined at all costs’.

²⁵ In place of ‘his household’, Charles has ‘his own’.

and Zebulon went forth on the north side of the tower, and fifty men with them, and they killed the fighting men of the Philistines. ⁸ And Simeon and Benjamin and Enoch, Reuben's son, went forth on the west side of the tower, and fifty men with them, and they slew of Edom and of the Horites four hundred men, stout warriors; and six hundred fled, and four of the sons of Esau fled with them, and left their father lying dead, as he had fallen on the hill which is in Aduram.
⁹ And the sons of Jacob pursued after them to the mountains of Seir. And Jacob buried his brother on the hill which is in Aduram, and he returned to his house. ¹⁰ And the sons of Jacob pressed hard upon the sons of Esau in the mountains of Seir and bowed their necks so that they became servants of the sons of Jacob. ¹¹ And they sent to their father to inquire whether they should make peace with them or slay them. ¹² And Jacob sent word to his sons that they should make peace; and they made peace with them and placed the yoke of servitude on them, so that they paid tribute to Jacob and to his sons in perpetuity. ¹³ And they continued to pay tribute to Jacob until the day that he went down into Egypt. ¹⁴ And the sons of Edom have not extricated themselves from the yoke servitude

⁸ Charles has the word, 'men' (after 'fifty') in parentheses.

⁹ For 'Aduram', Charles has ''Adûrâm'.

¹⁰ In place of 'pressed hard on', here following the Ethiopic MSS, the Latin MS has 'surrounded'.

¹² Charles ends with 'always' in place of 'in perpetuity', here following Sparks.

¹³ VanderKam has 'Jacob' in place of 'he'.

¹⁴ In place of 'extricated themselves from', here following VanderKam, Charles and Sparks have 'got quit of'.

¹ “And Jacob dwelt in the land of his father’s sojourning in the land of Canaan. ² These are the generations of Jacob. And Joseph was seventeen years old when they took him down into the land of Egypt, and Potiphar, a eunuch of Pharaoh, the chief cook bought him. ³ And he set Joseph over all his house, and the blessing of the Lord came upon the house of the Egyptian on account of Joseph, and the Lord prospered him in all that he did. ⁴ And the Egyptian committed everything into Joseph’s hands; for, he saw that the Lord was with him, and that the Lord prospered him in all that he did.

¹ Sparks has ‘country’ in place of ‘land’.

² Sparks opens, “This is the story of his family.”

³ In place of ‘prospered him’, Sparks has ‘made him successful’.

⁵ Charles has ‘beautiful’ in place of ‘handsome’ and Sparks lacks the brackets around this part of the text, here following Charles.

⁶ In place of ‘words of Abraham’, Sparks has ‘commandments of Abraham’.

God, and the sin will be recorded against him in the eternal books continually before the Lord. ⁷ And Joseph remembered these words and refused to lie with her. ⁸ And she pleaded with him for a year but he refused and would not listen. ⁹ But she embraced him and held him fast in the house, in order to force him to lie with her, and closed the doors of the house and held him fast; but he left his garment in her hands and broke through the door and fled outside from her presence. ¹⁰ And the woman saw that he would not lie with her, and she told lies about him in the presence of his lord, saying, “Your Hebrew servant, whom you love, sought to force me so that he might lie with me; and it came to pass, when I lifted up my voice, that he fled and left his garment in my hands when I held him, and he broke through the door.”

¹¹ “And the Egyptian saw the garment of Joseph and the broken door, and heard the words of his wife, and cast Joseph into prison, into the place where the prisoners were kept whom the king imprisoned. ¹² And he was there in the prison; and the Lord gave Joseph favour in the sight of the chief of the prison guards and compassion before him; for, he saw that the Lord was with him and that the Lord made all that he did successful. ¹³ And he committed all things into his hands, and the chief of the prison guards knew of nothing that was happening in the prison; for, Joseph did everything, and the Lord perfected it.

⁹ Sparks opens with ‘At last’ in place of ‘But’.

¹⁴ “And he remained there for two years. And, in those days, Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, was angry with two of his baker, and they told it to Joseph. ¹⁷ And, as he interpreted to them, so it befell them, and Pharaoh restored the chief butler to his office, and the chief baker he hanged, as Joseph had interpreted to them. ¹⁸ But the chief butler forgot Joseph in the prison, although he had informed him of what would befall him, and did not remember to inform Pharaoh how Joseph had told him, for he forgot.

¹⁴ Sparks includes ‘And he remained there for two years’ as part of v. 13.

¹⁵ Sparks has ‘governor’ in place of ‘chief’.

¹⁶ In place of ‘dreamed a dream’, here following the Ethiopic MSS, the Latin MS has ‘dreamed dreams’.

¹⁷ In place of ‘hanged’, following the Latin MS, the Ethiopic MSS have ‘killed’.

¹⁸ The Latin text ends the verse with, “and did not remember to ask that Pharaoh the king might intervene and release Joseph.”

¹ “And, in those days, Pharaoh dreamed two dreams in one night concerning a famine that was to be in all the land; and he awoke from his sleep and called all the interpreters of dreams that were in Egypt, and magicians, and told them his two dreams, and they were not able to interpret them. ² And then the chief butler remembered Joseph and spoke of him to the king, and he had him brought forth from the prison, and he told his two dreams before him. ³ And he said before Pharaoh that his two dreams were one, and he said to him, “Seven years shall come in which there shall be plenty over all the land of Egypt and, after that, seven years of famine, such a famine as has not been in all the land. ⁴ And now, let Pharaoh appoint overseers in all the land of Egypt, and let them store up food in every city throughout the days of the years of plenty, and there will be food for the seven years of famine, and the land will not perish through the famine; for, it will be very severe.” ⁵ And the Lord gave Joseph favour and mercy in the eyes of Pharaoh, and Pharaoh said to his servants, “We shall not find such a wise and discreet man as this man; for, the

¹ Charles has ‘declare’ in place of ‘interpret’, here following Sparks.

² For ‘had him brought forth’, Charles has ‘brought him forth’.

³ Sparks opens, “And he told Pharaoh.”

⁴ In place of ‘overseers’, Sparks has ‘controllers’; the word used varies between Ethiopic MSS and the Latin MS has speculatores.

⁵ Another reading for ‘favour’ is ‘grace’.

⁶ For ‘the second’, Sparks has ‘viceroys’.

⁷ In place of ‘fine linen’, here following Sparks, Charles has ‘byssus’. For ‘El, El, wa Abirer’, Charles reads “Êl ‘Êl wa ‘Abîr”; the phrase means, “God, God, the Mighty One of God.”

⁹ In place of ‘adversary’, here following Sparks, Charles has ‘Satan’.

¹⁰ For ‘Zaphnath-Paaneah’, here following Sparks, Charles has ‘Sephânîphân’.

¹ “And, in the forty-fifth jubilee, in the second week, (and) in the second year, Judah took for his first-born Er, a wife from the daughters of Aram, named Tamar. ² But he took a dislike to her, and did not lie with her, because his mother was of the daughters of Canaan, and he wished to take for himself a wife of the kinsfolk of his mother, but Judah, his father, would not permit him. ³ And this Er, the first-born of Judah, was wicked, and the Lord slew him. ⁴ And Judah said to Onan, his brother, “Go in to your brother’s wife and perform the duty of a husband’s brother to her, and raise up seed unto your brother.” ⁵ And Onan knew that the seed would not be his, but his brother’s only, and he went into the house of his brother’s wife, and spilt the seed on the ground, and he too was wicked in the eyes of the Lord, and he slew him. ⁶ And Judah said to Tamar, his daughter-in-law, “Remain in your father’s house as a widow until Shelah my son is grown up, and I shall give you to him to wife.” ⁷ And he grew up; but Bath-Shua, the wife of Judah, did not permit her son Shelah to marry. And Bath-Shua, the wife of Judah, died in the fifth year of this week.

² In place of ‘took a dislike to her’, here following Sparks, Charles has ‘hated’.

³ For ‘the first-born of Judah’, Sparks has ‘Judah’s eldest son’.

⁵ Charles lacks ‘too’, here following Sparks.

⁶ VanderKam opens with ‘So’ in place of ‘And’.

⁷ AM 2168. For ‘Bath-Shua’, here following Sparks, Charles has ‘Bêdsû’êl’ (twice in this verse).

⁹ Sparks includes the text up to ‘shear his sheep’ as part of v. 8.

¹⁰ VanderKam ends, “so he came in.”

¹¹ Charles has ‘hire’ in place of ‘fee’, here following Sparks (as also in v. 12).

¹² After ‘gave them to her’, Charles, following the Latin MS, adds ‘and he went in unto her’ (in angle-brackets); the Ethiopic MSS lack this clause.

¹⁴ The Ethiopic MSS have ‘who is here’ in place of ‘who was here’, here following the Latin MS.

to supplicate before the Lord because of his sin. ²⁴ And we told him in a dream that it was forgiven him because he supplicated earnestly, and lamented, and did not again sin. ²⁵ And he received forgiveness because he turned from his sin and from his ignorance; for, he sinned greatly before our God; and everyone who acts thus, everyone who lies with his mother-in-law, let them burn him with fire that he may burn therein; for, there is uncleanness and pollution on them; with fire let them burn them.

²⁶ “And order the children of Israel that there is to be no impurity among them; for, whoever lies with his daughter-in-law or his mother-in-law has wrought impurity; with fire let them burn the man who has laid with her, and the woman, and he will turn away wrath and punishment from Israel. ²⁷ And to Judah we said that his two sons had not laid with her and, thus, his seed was established for a second generation and would not be rooted out.

²⁶ Charles has ‘uncleanness’ in place of ‘impurity’, here following VanderKam.

²⁷ In place of ‘thus’, Charles has ‘for this reason’.

¹ “And, in the first year of the third week of the forty-fifth jubilee, the famine began to come into the land, and the rain refused to be given to the earth; for, none whatever fell. ² And the earth grew barren, but in the land of Egypt there was food; for, Joseph had gathered the seed of the land in the seven years of plenty and had preserved it. ³ And the Egyptians came to Joseph that he might give them food, and he opened the granaries where was the grain of the first year, and he sold it to the people of the land for gold. ⁴ <Now the famine was very sore in the land of Canaan> and Jacob heard that there was food in Egypt, and he sent his ten sons that they should procure food for him in Egypt; but Benjamin he did not send, and <the ten sons of Jacob> arrived <in Egypt> among those that went there. ⁵ And Joseph recognised them, but they did not recognise him, and he spoke to them and questioned them, and he said to them, “Are you not spies? And have you not come to explore the approaches of the land?” ⁶ And he put them in prison. And, after that, he set them free again, and detained Simeon alone and sent off his nine brothers. ⁷ And he us, that he will die, and we shall bring down our father with sorrow to the grave. ¹³ Now rather let me, your servant, abide instead of the boy as a bondsman to my lord, and let the lad go with his brethren; for, I became surety for him at the hand of your servant our father and, if I do not bring him back, your servant will bear the blame to our father for ever.” ¹⁴ And Joseph saw that there was a common bond of good will and unity between them, and he could not refrain himself, and he told them that he was Joseph. ¹⁵ And he conversed with them in the Hebrew tongue and fell on their neck and wept. ¹⁶ But they did not recognize him and they began to weep. And he said to them, “Do not weep over me but hurry back and bring my father to me, so that I can see him before we die and my brother Benjamin can see him too. ¹⁷ For behold, this is but the second year of the famine, and there are still five years without harvest or fruit of trees or ploughing. ¹⁸ Come down quickly, you and your households, so that you do not perish through the famine, and do not be worried for your possessions; for, the Lord sent me before you to set things in order that many people might live. ¹⁹ And tell my father that I am still alive, and you, behold, you see for yourselves

¹⁵ For ‘the Hebrew tongue’, Sparks has just ‘Hebrew’.

¹⁶ Charles radically emends the translation of this verse (here following Sparks) and reads, “But they knew him not and they began to weep. And he said to them, Weep not over me but hasten and bring my father to me; and you see that it is my mouth that speaks, and the eyes of my brother Benjamin see.”

¹⁷ Charles lacks ‘but’, here following Sparks.

¹⁸ For ‘worried’, Charles has ‘grieved’.

²¹ “And by the command of the mouth of Pharaoh he gave them chariots and provisions for the way, and he gave them all many-coloured raiment and silver. ²² And, to their father, he sent raiment and silver and ten asses that carried corn, and he sent them away. ²³ And they went up and told their father that Joseph was alive and was measuring out corn to all the nations of the earth, and that he was ruler over all the land of Egypt. ²⁴ And their father did not believe it; for, he was beside himself in his mind; but, when he saw the wagons that Joseph had sent, the life of his spirit revived, and he said, “It is enough for me if Joseph lives; I will go down and see him before I die.”

²¹ Sparks opens, “And, on Pharaoh’s instructions.”

²² For ‘that carried corn’, Sparks has ‘laden with corn’.

²³ VanderKam has ‘grain’ in place of ‘corn’.

²⁴ Sparks lacks ‘the life of’ before ‘his spirit’.

the new moon of the third month, and he went by the way of the Well of the Oath, and he offered a sacrifice to the God of his father Isaac on the seventh of this month. ² And Jacob remembered the dream that he had seen at Bethel, and he was afraid to go down into Egypt. ³ And, while he was thinking of sending word to Joseph to come to him, and that he would not go down, he remained there seven days, if perchance he should see a vision as to whether he should remain or go down. ⁴ And he celebrated the harvest festival of the first fruits with old grain; for, in all the land of Canaan there was not a handful of seed [in the land]; for, the famine was over all the beasts and cattle and birds, and also over man.
⁵ “And, on the sixteenth, the Lord appeared to him, and said to him, “Jacob, Jacob;” and he said, “Here am I.” And he said to him, “I am the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham and

² In place of ‘was afraid’, Charles has ‘feared’.

⁴ The brackets around ‘in the land’ indicate that Charles considered this phrase to be a dittography.

⁵ For ‘be afraid’, Charles has ‘fear’.

⁶ In place of ‘put his hands upon your eyes’, Sparks has ‘close your eyes’.

¹⁰ For ‘finest region’, here following Sparks, Charles has ‘goodliest (land)’.

¹¹ VanderKam has ‘Jacob’s children’ in place of ‘the sons of Jacob’.

¹² Sparks has ‘eldest’ in place of ‘first-born’.

¹³ In place of ‘Phoenician’, here following the majority of MSS, Charles has ‘Zephathite’, following a single MS.

²³ Sparks adds ‘were’ (in italics) before ‘Joseph’.

²⁴ For ‘those whom’, Sparks has ‘the two sons that’.

²⁵ In place of ‘Gera’, Sparks reads ‘Guad’. For ‘Abdeyo’, here following Sparks, Charles has ‘Ehi’ and, for ‘Gaam’, Charles has ‘Ard’.

²⁶ Sparks has ‘descendants’ in place of ‘souls’.

²⁸ Charles adds numerous circumflexes and other accents to the names in this verse.

³⁰ For ‘Iv’, Charles reads ‘’İv’ (as also in v. 31).

³¹ VanderKam has ‘Ev’ in place of ‘Iv’ (as also in v. 30).

³² Sparks reads, “Thus Rachel’s total altogether was twenty-six.”

⁵ VanderKam does not capitalize ‘Creator’.

⁶ For ‘Rameses’, the Ethiopic MSS have ‘Ramesina’.

in Rameses and all the region round about, which he ruled over before Pharaoh. And Israel and his sons dwelt in the land of Goshen, the best part of the land of Egypt; and Israel was one hundred and thirty years old when he came into Egypt. ⁷ And Joseph nourished his father and his brethren and also their possessions with bread as much as sufficed them for the seven years of the famine.

⁸ “And the land of Egypt suffered by reason of the famine, and Joseph acquired all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh in return for food, and he got possession of the people and their cattle and acquired everything for Pharaoh. ⁹ And the years of the famine were accomplished, and Joseph gave to the people in the land seed and food that they might sow <the land> in the eight year, for the river had overflowed all the land of Egypt. ¹⁰ For in the seven years of the famine it had <not> overflowed and had irrigated only a few places on the banks of the river, but now it overflowed and the Egyptians sowed the land, and it bore much corn that year. ¹¹ And this was the first year of the fourth week of the forty-fifth jubilee. ¹² And Joseph took of the corn of the harvest the fifth part for the king and left four parts for them for food and for seed, and Joseph made it an ordinance for the land of Egypt until this day.

⁹ For ‘seed and food’, Sparks has ‘seed-corn’. The Ethiopic MSS lack ‘the land’, here following the Latin MS.

¹⁰ The Ethiopic MSS omit ‘not’, here following the Latin MS.

¹² The Latin MS lacks ‘the corn of’ before ‘harvest’.

¹³ “And Israel lived in the land of Egypt for seventeen years, and all the days that he lived were three jubilees, which is one hundred and forty-seven years, and he died in the fourth year of the fifth week of the forty-fifth jubilee. ¹⁴ And Israel blessed his sons before he died and told them everything that would happen to them in the land of Egypt; and he made known to them what would come upon them in the last days, and blessed them and gave to Joseph two portions in the land. ¹⁵ And he slept with his fathers, and he was buried in the double cave in the land of Canaan, near Abraham his father in the grave which he dug for himself in the double cave in the neighbourhood of Hebron. ¹⁶ And he gave all his books and the books of his fathers to Levi his son that he might preserve them and renew them for his children until this day.

¹³ Jacob’s death is in AM 2188.

¹⁶ For ‘renew them’ (possibly meaning to make fresh copies of them), Sparks has ‘keep them in repair’.

And your mother hid you for three months, and they told regarding her. ⁴ And she made a basket for you, and she covered it with pitch and asphalt, and she placed it among the reeds on the bank of the river, and she placed you in it for seven days, and your mother came by night and suckled you; and, by day, Miriam, your sister, guarded you from the birds. ⁵ And, in those days, Tharmuth, the daughter of Pharaoh, came to bathe in the river, and she heard your voice crying, and she told her maidens to bring you forth, and they brought you unto her. ⁶ And she took

by the hail, and by darkness; and <by the death> of the first-born of men and animals; and, on all their idols, the Lord took vengeance and burned them with fire. ⁶ And everything was sent through your hand, that you should declare these things before they were done, and you spoke with the king of Egypt before all his servants and before his people. ⁷ And everything took place according to your words; ten great and terrible judgments came on the land of Egypt that you might execute vengeance on it for Israel. ⁸ And the Lord did everything for Israel's sake, and according to his covenant, which he had ordained with Abraham, that he would take vengeance on them as they had brought them by force into bondage. ⁹ And the prince Mastema stood up against you and sought to cast you into the hands of Pharaoh, and he helped the Egyptian sorcerers, and they stood up and wrought before you. ¹⁰ The evils, indeed, we permitted them to work, but the remedies we did not allow to be wrought by their hands. ¹¹ And the Lord smote them with malignant ulcers, and they were not able to stand; for, we destroyed them so that they could not perform a single sign.
¹² And, notwithstanding all these signs and wonders, the prince Mastema was not put to shame because he took courage and

⁶ The literal translation of 'declare' is 'do'.

⁷ For 'according to your words', Sparks has 'as you said'.

⁹ For 'Mastema', Charles reads 'Mastêmâ'.

¹⁰ Sparks has this verse in parentheses.

¹¹ Sparks has the last part of this verse (from 'for, we destroyed') in parentheses.

¹² For 'because', the Ethiopic MSS have 'until'.

¹³ “And I stood between the Egyptians and Israel, and we delivered Israel out of his hand, and out of the hand of his people, and the Lord brought them through the middle of the sea as if it were dry land. ¹⁴ And all the peoples whom he brought to pursue after Israel, the Lord our God cast them into the midst of the sea, into the depths of the abyss beneath the children of Israel, even as the people of Egypt had cast their children into the river. He took vengeance on a million of them, and one thousand strong and energetic men were destroyed on account of one suckling of the children of your people which they had thrown into the river.

¹⁵ “And, on the fourteenth day, and on the fifteenth, and on the sixteenth, and on the seventeenth, and on the eighteenth, the prince Mastema was bound and imprisoned behind the children of Israel that he might not accuse them. ¹⁶ And, on the nineteenth, we let them loose that they might help the Egyptians and pursue the children of Israel. ¹⁷ And he hardened their hearts and made them stubborn,

¹⁴ Charles and VanderKam have ‘1,000,000’ in place of ‘a million’, here following Sparks.

¹⁵ Sparks has ‘harass’ in place of ‘accuse’ (as also in v. 18).

¹⁶ The pronoun, ‘them’, refers to Mastema and his minions.

¹⁷ For ‘plan’, Charles has ‘device’.

¹ “Remember the commandment that the Lord commanded you concerning the Passover, that you should celebrate it in its season, on the fourteenth of the first month, that you should slaughter it before it is evening, and that they should eat it by night on the evening of the fifteenth from the time of the setting of the sun. ² For, on this night – the beginning of the festival and the beginning of the joy – you were eating the Passover in Egypt, when all the powers of Mastema had been let loose to slay all the first-born in the land of Egypt, from the first-born of Pharaoh to the first-born of the captive maidservant in the mill, and to the cattle. ³ And this is the sign that the Lord gave them: Into every house on the door-posts of which they saw the blood of a lamb of the first year, into that house they should not enter to slay, but should pass it by, that all those should be saved that were in the house because the sign of the blood was on its door-posts. ⁴ And the powers of the Lord did everything according to how the Lord commanded them, and they passed by all the children of Israel, and the plague did not come upon them to destroy from among them any soul, either of cattle, or man, or dog. ⁵ And the plague was very grievous in Egypt, and there was no house in Egypt where there was not one dead, and weeping and

¹ In place of ‘slaughter it’, Sparks has ‘slaughter the lamb’.

² For ‘Mastema’, Charles reads ‘Mastêmâ’.

lamentation. ⁶ And all Israel was eating the flesh of the paschal lamb, and drinking the wine, and was lauding and blessing, and giving thanks to the Lord God of their fathers, and was ready to go forth from under the yoke of Egypt, and from the evil bondage.

⁷ “And remember this day all the days of your life, and observe it from year to year all the days of your life, once a year, on its day, according to all the regulations thereof, and do not adjourn it from day to day, or from month to month. ⁸ For, it is an eternal ordinance and engraved on the heavenly tablets regarding all the children of Israel, that they should observe it every year on its day once a year, throughout all their generations; and there is no limit of days; for, this is ordained for ever. ⁹ And the man who is free from uncleanness, and does not come to observe it on occasion of its day, so as to bring an acceptable offering before the Lord, and to eat and to drink before the Lord on the day of its festival, that man who is clean and close at hand shall be cut off: because he offered not the oblation of the Lord in its appointed season, he shall take the guilt upon himself. ¹⁰ Let the children of Israel come and celebrate the Passover on the day of its fixed time, on the fourteenth day of the first month, between the evenings, from the third part of the day to the third part of the night,

⁹ Sparks opens, “And whoever is not unclean.”

¹² For ‘the third part of the night’, Sparks has ‘afterwards’.

¹³ The Ethiopic text translated ‘eaten with diligence’ is obscure. In place of ‘of the children of Israel no bone shall be crushed’, here following the Ethiopic MSS, the Latin MS has ‘and there shall be no tribulation among Israelites in that day’.

¹⁵ Another reading for ‘celebrate the Passover’ is ‘offer the paschal lamb’; the literal translation is ‘do the Passover’.

altar; and they shall place its fat on the fire that is on the altar; and they shall eat its flesh roasted with fire in the court of the house that has been sanctified in the name of the Lord.
²¹ And they may not celebrate the Passover in their cities, nor in any place save before the tabernacle of the Lord, or before his house where his name has dwelt; and they shall not go astray from the Lord.
²² “And Moses, command the children of Israel to observe the ordinances of the Passover, as it was commanded unto you; declare to them every year †and the day of its days, and† the festival of unleavened bread, that they should eat unleavened bread seven days, and that they should observe its festival, and that they bring an oblation every day during those seven days of joy before the Lord on the altar of your God. ²³ For, you celebrated this festival with haste when you went forth from Egypt until you entered into the desert of Shur; for, on the shore of the sea you completed it.

²² For the phrase translated ‘declare to them’ (Sparks has ‘draw their attention’), the MSS vary.

JUBILEES 50

¹ “And, after this law, I made known to you the days of the Sabbaths in the Desert of Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai. ² And I told you of the Sabbaths of the land on Mount Sinai, and I told you of the jubilee years in the sabbaths of years: but the year thereof have I not told you until you enter the land that you are to possess. ³ And the land also shall keep its sabbaths while they are living in it, and they shall know the jubilee year. ⁴ Therefore, I have ordained for you the year-weeks and the years and the jubilees: there are forty-nine jubilees from the days of Adam until this day, and one week and two years; and there are yet forty years to come for learning the commandments of the Lord, until they pass over into the land of Canaan, crossing the Jordan to the west. ⁵ And the jubilees shall pass by, until Israel is cleansed from all guilt of fornication, and uncleanness, and pollution, and sin, and error, and dwells with confidence in all the land, and there shall be no more an adversary or any evil one, and the land shall be clean from that time for evermore.

² Sparks has ‘occupy’ in place of ‘possess’.

³ For ‘they’, Sparks has ‘sons of Israel’.

⁴ ‘This day’ was in AM 2410. The literal translation of ‘to come’ is ‘distant’.

⁵ In place of ‘an adversary’, Charles has ‘a Satan’.

⁶ “And behold, the commandment regarding the Sabbaths – I have written them down for you – and all the judgments of its laws. ⁷ Six days shall you labour, but on the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord your God. On it, you shall do no manner of work, you and your sons, and your menservants and your maidservants, and all your cattle and the sojourner also who is with you. ⁸ And the man that does any work on it shall die: whoever desecrates that day, whoever lies with his wife, or whoever says he will do something on it, that he will set out on a journey thereon in regard to any buying or selling: and whoever draws water thereon, which he had not prepared for himself on the sixth day, and whoever takes up any burden to carry it out of his tent or out of his house shall die. ⁹ You shall do no work whatever on the Sabbath day save what you have prepared for yourselves on the sixth day, so as to eat, and drink, and rest, and keep Sabbath from all work on that day, and to bless the Lord your God, who has given you a day of festival and a holy day: and a day of the holy kingdom for all Israel is this day among their days for ever. ¹⁰ For, great is the honour that the Lord has given to Israel, that they should eat and drink and be satisfied on this festival day, and rest thereon from all labour which belongs to the labour of

⁸ In place of ‘his wife’, Sparks has ‘a woman’.

the children of men, save burning frankincense and bringing oblations and sacrifices before the Lord for days and for Sabbaths. ¹¹ This work alone shall be done on the Sabbath days in the sanctuary of the Lord your God; that atonement may be made for Israel with sacrifice continually, from day to day, for a memorial, well-pleasing before the Lord, and that he may receive them always, from day to day, according to what you have been commanded.

¹² “And every man who does any work on them, or goes on a journey, or tills his farm, whether in his house or any other place, and whoever lights a fire, or rides on any beast, or travels by ship on the sea, and whoever strikes or kills anything, or slaughters a beast or a bird, or whoever catches an animal or a bird or a fish, or whoever fasts or makes war on the Sabbaths: ¹³ The man who does any of these things on the Sabbath shall die, so that the children of Israel shall observe the Sabbaths in accordance with the commandments regarding the Sabbaths of the land, as it is written in the tablets, which he gave into my hands that I should write out for you the laws of the seasons, and the seasons according to the division of their days.”

¹¹ In place of ‘atonement may be made’, here following Sparks, Charles has ‘they may atone’.
