THE TRAVELS & MARTYRDOM OF BARNABAS

The work here presented should be considered preliminary. There is a considerable amount of work that could (and should) be done in terms of adding relevant critical notes for the Greek text.

INTRODUCTION

The Travels and Martyrdom of Barnabas (aka, The Acts of Barnabas [by Mark]) narrates the multiple travels of Barnabas and Paul through the first Christian communities in Asia Minor and in Cyprus; it is full of miracles and preaching to the pagans, and tells of the church foundations, the consecration of bishops, and the tomb of the apostle in Cyprus.

The Greek text we present here is (essentially) that of R.A. Lipsius[§], which is itself based on Constantine von Tischendorf's text, published nearly half a century earlier; in a few places, we have applied some minor corrections, following James M. Tucker, in his 2011 'literal translation', which we have marked in brown text. The English text is closely based on Alexander Walker's 1891 translation.

AUTHORSHIP AND DATES

The author's claim that he is John Mark (the Evangelist and companion of St Paul) is not accepted by modern scholars, nor was it by the early Church Fathers. Its language and content suggest a date in the 5th Century, when the Church of Cyprus claimed 'independence' from the Patriarch of Antioch, using the belief that Cyprus was the site of Barnabas' grave as one of its arguments.

The Travels and Martyrdom of St Barnabas the Apostle

¹ Since, from the descent of the presence of our Saviour Jesus Christ, the tireless and benevolent and mighty Shepherd and Teacher and Physician, ² I beheld and saw the ineffable and holy and unspotted mystery of the Christians, who hold the hope in holiness, and who have been sealed; ³ and since I have zealously served him, I have deemed it necessary to give account of the mysteries which I have heard and seen.

TRAVELS & MARTYRDOM OF BARNABAS 1

¹ In place of 'tireless', Walker has 'unwearied'.

² In this context, 'sealed' means 'baptized'.

³ Here, ἐξηγήσασθα has been transposed from Lipsius text, where it appears in 2:1, after the opening ἐγώ Ἰωάννης.

Περίοδοι καὶ μαρτύριον τοῦ Βαρνάβα 2

TRAVELS & MARTYRDOM OF BARNABAS 2

¹ I John, accompanying the holy apostles Barnabas and Paul, being formerly a servant of Cyrillus the high priest of Zeus, ² but now having received the gift of the Holy Spirit through Paul and Barnabas and Silas, who were worthy of the calling, and who baptized me in Iconium.

TRAVELS & MARTYRDOM OF BARNABAS 2

- ¹ Lipsius does not have a paragraph break at the start of this chapter. Also, see #1:3 on the transposition of a word indicated by the ellipsis.
² The narrator here (it is claimed) is the 'John Mark' who later wrote the Second Gospel (cf. 3:2).

Περίοδοι καὶ μαρτύριον τοῦ Βαρνάβα 3

TRAVELS & MARTYRDOM OF BARNABAS 3

¹ After I was baptized, I saw a certain man standing clothed in white raiment; and he said to me, "Be of good courage, John; ² for, assuredly, your name shall be changed to Mark, and your glory shall be proclaimed in all the world. ³ And the darkness in you has passed away from you, and there has been given to you wisdom to know the mysteries of God."

TRAVELS & MARTYRDOM OF BARNABAS 3

¹ After 'baptized', Walker adds 'then'.

² Here, the opening καὶ has not been translated, due to reasons of contemporary English style.

³ In place of 'wisdom', Walker has 'understanding'.

Περίοδοι καὶ μαρτύριον τοῦ Βαρνάβα 4

TRAVELS & MARTYRDOM OF BARNABAS 4

¹ And, when I saw the vision, I fell down trembling at the feet of Barnabas and related to him the mysteries I had seen and heard from that man. ² And the apostle Paul was not there when I disclosed the mysteries. ³ And Barnabas said to me, "Tell no one the about miracle you have seen. ⁴ For, by me also this night the Lord stood, saying, "Be of good courage; for, as you have given your life for my name to death and exile from your nation, thus also shall you be made perfect. ⁵ And, as for the servant who is with you, take him also with yourself; for. he has certain mysteries." ⁶ Now then, my child, keep to yourself the things that you have seen and heard; for, a time will come for you to reveal them."

TRAVELS & MARTYRDOM OF BARNABAS 4

- ¹ Walker opens, "And, when I saw the vision, becoming greatly terrified, I went to the feet of Barnabas."
- ² Here, Walker capitalizes 'Apostle'.
- ³ Walker lacks 'about'.
- ⁴ In place of 'exile', Walker has 'banishment'.
- ⁵ Walker opens with 'Moreover' in place of 'And'.
- ⁶ A more literal reading of 'my child' is 'little child'.

Περίοδοι καὶ μαρτύριον τοῦ Βαρνάβα 5

TRAVELS & MARTYRDOM OF BARNABAS 5

¹ And I, having received these things from, remained in Iconium many days; for, there was there a holy and pious man, who entertained us, and whose house Paul had sanctified. ² Thence, we came to Seleucia and, after staying three days, sailed away to Cyprus; and I was ministering to them until we had gone round all Cyprus. And, setting sail from Cyprus, we landed in Perga of Pamphylia. ³ And there I then stayed about two months, wishing to sail to the regions of the West; and the Holy Spirit did not permit me. ⁴ So, returning, I again sought the apostles; and, having learned they were in Antioch, I went to them.

TRAVELS & MARTYRDOM OF BARNABAS 5

- ¹ In place of 'having received these things from him', Walker has 'having been instructed in these things by him'.
² After 'thence', Walker adds 'therefore'.
³ Walker has 'allow' in place of 'permit'.
⁴ Walker opens with, "Turning, therefore."

Περίοδοι καὶ μαρτύριον τοῦ Βαρνάβα 6

TRAVELS & MARTYRDOM OF BARNABAS 6

¹ And I found Paul in bed in Antioch from the toil of the journey who, on seeing me, was much grieved because of my delaying in Pamphylia. ² And Barnabas coming, encouraged him, and ate bread, and he took a little of it. ³ And they preached the word of the Lord and enlightened many, both of the Jews and Greeks. ⁴ And I only attended to them, and was afraid of Paul to come near him, because he held me as having spent much time in Pamphylia, and because he was angry with me. ⁵ And I gave repentance on my knees on the ground to Paul, and he would not endure it. And, when I remained for three Sabbaths in entreaty and prayer on my knees, I was unable to prevail on him about myself; ⁶ for, his great grievance against me was on account of my keeping several parchments in Pamphylia.

TRAVELS & MARTYRDOM OF BARNABAS 6

- ¹ Paul was 'in bed' because he was sick.
- ² In place of 'ate', Walker has 'tasted'.
- ³ Walker lacks 'both'.
- ⁴ In place of 'angry with', Walker has 'quite enraged against'.
- ⁵ Walker has 'earth' in place of 'ground'.
- ⁶ The translation of this verse, here following Walker, is not entirely certain.

Περίοδοι καὶ μαρτύριον τοῦ Βαρνάβα 7

TRAVELS & MARTYRDOM OF BARNABAS 7

¹ And, when it came to pass that they finished teaching in Antioch, on the first of the week they took counsel together to set out for the eastern parts; and, after that, to go into Cyprus, and oversee all the churches in which they had spoken the word of God. ² And Barnabas entreated Paul to go first to Cyprus and oversee his own people in his village; and Lucius entreated him to take the oversight of his own city of Cyrene. ³ And a vision was seen by Paul in a dream, that he should hasten to Jerusalem, because the brothers expected him there. ⁴ But Barnabas urged that they should go to Cyprus, and pass the winter there, and then that they should go to Jerusalem at the feast.

TRAVELS & MARTYRDOM OF BARNABAS 7

- ¹ In place of 'eastern parts', Walker has 'places of the East'.
- ² For Κυρήνην, Lipsius has Κορίνην.
- ³ Walker has 'in sleep' in place of 'in a dream'.
- ⁴ It is not certain which 'feast' is referred to.

Περίοδοι καὶ μαρτύριον τοῦ Βαρνάβα 8

TRAVELS & MARTYRDOM OF BARNABAS 8

¹ Great contention, therefore, arose between them. ² And Barnabas urged me also to accompany them, on account of my being their servant from the beginning, and on account of my having served them in all Cyprus until they came to Perga of Pamphylia; and I there had remained many days. ³ But Paul cried out against Barnabas, saying, "This man is not permitted to go with us." ⁴ And those who were with us there urged me also to accompany them, because there was a vow on me to follow them to the end. ⁵ So, Paul said to Barnabas, "If you want to take John – who also is surnamed Mark – with you, go another road; for, he shall not come with us." ⁶ And Barnabas, standing up for himself, said, "The grace of God does not desert him who has once served the Gospel and journeyed with us. ⁷ If, therefore, this be agreeable to you, Father Paul, I take him and go." ⁸ And he said, "You go in the grace of Christ, and we in the power of the Spirit."

- ¹ Cf. Ac 15:39.
- ² For ἐπέμεινα, Lipsius has ἀπέμεινα.
- ³ For Paul's answer, Walker has, "It is impossible for him to go with us."
- ⁴ The 'vow' was Mark's lifelong commitment to preach Christianity.
- ⁵ Walker has 'will' in place of 'want to'.
- ⁶ In place of 'standing up for himself', Walker has 'coming to himself'.
- ⁷ As one of the 'first' apostles, Paul was addressed as 'Father' (as also was Peter).
- ⁸ Paul, here, appears to be changing his mind about Mark.

Περίοδοι καὶ μαρτύριον τοῦ Βαρνάβα 9

¹Κλίναντες τοίνυν τὰ γόνατα προσηύξαντο τῷ θεῷ. ²καὶ ἀναστενάξας Παῦλος ἔκλαυσεν, ὁμοίως δὲ καὶ Βαρνάβας, λέγοντες πρὸς ἀλλήλους· ³Καλὸν μὲν ἦν ἡμᾶς κοινῶς καθὼς τὴν ἀρχὴν οὕτως καὶ τὸ τέλος ποιήσασθαι τὸ ἐν ἀνθρώποις. ⁴ἐπειδὴ δὲ οὕτως σοι ἔδοξε πάτερ Παῦλε, πρόσευξαι ὑπὲρ ἐμοῦ ἵνα τέλειός μου ὁ κάματος γένηται εἰς αἵνεσιν· ⁵οἶδας γὰρ πῶς σοι ἐδούλευσα εἰς τὴν χάριν τοῦ Χριστοῦ τὴν δοθεῖσαν ἡμῖν. ⁶πορεύομαι γὰρ ἐν Κύπρῳ καὶ σπεύδω τελειωθῆναι· ⁷οἶδα γὰρ ὅτι οὐκέτι ὄψομαι τὸ πρόσωπόν σου πάτερ Παῦλε. ⁸Καὶ πεσὼν ἐπὶ τὴν γῆν εἰς τοὺς πόδας αὐτοῦ ἔκλαυσεν ἱκανῶς.

TRAVELS & MARTYRDOM OF BARNABAS 9

¹ So, bending their knees, they prayed to God. ² And Paul, groaning aloud, wept; and Barnabas also, saying to each other, ³ "It would have been good for us, as at first, so also at last, to work in common among men; ⁴ but, since it has thus seemed good to you, Father Paul, pray for me that my labour may be finished perfectly; ⁵ for, you know how I have served you also to the grace of Christ that has been given to us. ⁶ For, I go to Cyprus and hasten to be made perfect; ⁷ for, I know that I shall not see your face again, Father Paul." ⁸ And, falling on the ground at his feet, he wept bitterly.

TRAVELS & MARTYRDOM OF BARNABAS 9

- ¹ Walker opens with 'Therefore' in place of 'So'.
- ² For this verse, Walker reads, "And Paul, groaning aloud, wept; and, in like manner, also Barnabas, saying to one another."
- ³ The author is here, perhaps, addressing the (quite common) divisions among the Christians of his time.
- ⁴ Walker ends, "that my labour may be made perfect to commendation."
- ⁵ In place of 'to us', Walker has 'to you' – the difference may reflect variant Greek MSS.
- ⁶ 'Cyprus' is Κύπρῳ in the Greek text.
- ⁷ Before 'Father Paul', Walker adds 'O'.
- ⁸ Walker has 'long' in place of 'bitterly'.

Περίοδοι καὶ μαρτύριον τοῦ Βαρνάβα 10

TRAVELS & MARTYRDOM OF BARNABAS 10

¹ And Paul said to him, "The Lord stood by me also this night, saying, "Do not force Barnabas not to sail to Cyprus; ² for, there it has been prepared for him to enlighten many; ³ and go also, in the grace that has been given to you, to Jerusalem to worship in the holy place, and there it shall be shown you where you shall be martyred."" ⁴ And we saluted one another, and Barnabas took me to himself.

TRAVELS & MARTYRDOM OF BARNABAS 10

- ¹ In place of 'sail', Walker has 'go'.
- ² The translation here follows Walker.
- ³ Walker ends, "where your martyrdom has been prepared."
- ⁴ The narrator (John Mark) is speaking here.

Περίοδοι καὶ μαρτύριον τοῦ Βαρνάβα 11

TRAVELS & MARTYRDOM OF BARNABAS 11

¹ And, having come down to Laodicea, we sought to cross to Cyprus; and, having found a ship going to Cyprus, we embarked. And, when we had set sail, the wind was against us. ² And we came to Corasium; and, going down to the shore where there was a fountain, we rested, showing ourselves to no one, so no one might know that Barnabas had separated from Paul. ³ And, having set sail from Corasium, we came to the regions of Isauria, and thence came to an island called Pityusa; and, a storm having come, we stayed there three days; ⁴ and a pious man entertained us, by name Euphemus, whom also Barnabas instructed in many things in the faith, with all his house.

TRAVELS & MARTYRDOM OF BARNABAS 11

¹ A more literal translation of ‘against us’ is ‘contrary’ (as Walker).

² ‘Corasium’ was an ancient harbour and settlement in the Cilicia Trachea region of Asia Minor (modern-day southern Turkey).

³ The name, ‘Pityusa’, means ‘covered in pine trees’.

⁴ Before ‘pious man’, Walker adds ‘certain’.

Περίοδοι καὶ μαρτύριον τοῦ Βαρνάβα 12

TRAVELS & MARTYRDOM OF BARNABAS 12

¹ And thence we sailed past the Aconesiae and came to the city of Anemurium; and, having gone in, we found two Greeks. ² And, coming to us, they asked whence and who we were. ³ And Barnabas said to them, "If you wish to know whence and who we are, throw away the clothing you have, and I shall put on you clothing that never becomes soiled; for, neither is there in it anything filthy, but it is altogether splendid." ⁴ And, being astonished at the saying, they asked us, "What is the garment you are going to give us?" ⁵ And Barnabas said to them, "If you confess your sins, and submit yourselves to our Lord Jesus Christ, you shall receive the garment that is incorruptible forever."

TRAVELS & MARTYRDOM OF BARNABAS 12

- ¹ The islands referred to as the 'Aconesiae' are not mentioned elsewhere.
² The translation here follows Walker.
³ One could read 'food' for 'clothing' (twice in this verse), but see 13:1, where such a reading is not possible.
⁴ Walker has 'that garment' in place of 'the garment'.
⁵ In place of λαμβάνητε, Lipsius has λαμβάεητε.

Περίοδοι καὶ μαρτύριον τοῦ Βαρνάβα 13

TRAVELS & MARTYRDOM OF BARNABAS 13

¹ And, being filled by the Holy Spirit, they fell at his feet, entreating and saying, "We beseech you, father, give us that garment; ² for, we believe in the living and true God whom you preach." ³ And, leading them down to the fountain, he baptized them in the name of Father, and Son, and Holy Spirit. And they knew that they were clothed with power, and a holy robe. ⁴ And, having taken from me one robe, he put it on the one; and his own robe he put on the other. ⁵ And they brought money to him; and, immediately, Barnabas distributed it to the poor. ⁶ And from them also the sailors were able to gain much.

TRAVELS & MARTYRDOM OF BARNABAS 13

- ¹ In place of 'filled', Walker has 'pricked at heart'.
- ² Walker has 'proclaim' in place of 'preach'.
- ³ Here (but not elsewhere), Walker has 'Holy Ghost' in place of 'Holy Spirit'.
- ⁴ The narrator here refers to himself and Barnabas.
- ⁵ Walker has 'straight away' in place of 'immediately'.
- ⁶ In place of 'much', Walker ends with 'many things'.

Περίοδοι καὶ μαρτύριον τοῦ Βαρνάβα 14

¹ And they having come down to the shore, he spoke to them the word of God; and he, having blessed them, we saluted them, and went on board the ship. ² And one of them who was named Stephanus wished to accompany us, and Barnabas did not permit him. ³ And we, having gone across, sailed down to Cyprus by night; and, having come to the place called Kormakites, we found Timon and Ariston the temple servants, at whose house we were entertained.

TRAVELS & MARTYRDOM OF BARNABAS 14

- ¹ Note that the ship is here preparing to leave – translations such as ‘having come to land’ are not appropriate.
² The man named ‘Stephanus’ cannot be identified in other works.
³ For Κορμακίτῃ (following Tucker), Lipsius has Κρομμυακίτῃ; Walker, following Lipsius, has ‘Crommyacita’.

¹ And Timon was afflicted by a high fever. And, having laid our hands on him, we straight away removed his fever, having called on the name of the Lord Jesus. ² And Barnabas had received documents from Matthew, a book of the word of God, and a narrative of miracles and doctrines. This Barnabas laid on the sick in each place we came to, and it immediately made a cure of their sufferings.

TRAVELS & MARTYRDOM OF BARNABAS 15

¹ In place of 'a high fever', Walker has 'much fever'.

² The book mentioned here is Matthew's Gospel (cf. 22:3).

¹ And, when we had come to Lapithus, and an idol festival being celebrated in the theatre, they did not allow us to go into the city, but we rested a little at the gate. And Timon, after he rose up from his disease, came with us. ² And, having left Lapithus, we travelled through the mountains and came to the city of Lampadistus, of which also Timon was a native; finding also that Heracleius was there, we stayed with him.

TRAVELS & MARTYRDOM OF BARNABAS 16

¹ 'Lapithus' was a town in ancient Cyprus.

² There is a St John Lampadistus (of Cyprus) revered by the Orthodox Church

¹ He was of the city of Tamassos and had come to visit his relations; and Barnabas, looking steadfastly at him, recognised him, having met with him formerly at Citium with Paul; to whom also the Holy Spirit was given at baptism, and he changed his name to Heracleides. ² And, having ordained him as bishop over Cyprus, and having confirmed the church in Tamassos, we left him in the house of his brothers that dwelt there.

TRAVELS & MARTYRDOM OF BARNABAS 17

¹ For Ταμασίων, Lipsius has Ταμασέων.

² In place of 'Tamassos' (a city-kingdom in ancient Cyprus), Walker has the Latinized version, 'Tamasus'.

TRAVELS & MARTYRDOM OF BARNABAS 18

¹ And, having crossed the mountain called 'Snows', we came to Old Paphos, and there found Rhodon, a temple servant, who also, having himself believed, accompanied us. ² And we met a certain Jew, by name Bar-Jesus, coming from Paphos, who also recognised Barnabas, as having been formerly with Paul. He did not wish us to go into Paphos; but, having turned away, we came to Curium.

TRAVELS & MARTYRDOM OF BARNABAS 18

¹ Walker has 'Chionodes' in place of 'Snows'.

² Walker does not hyphenate 'Bar-Jesus'.

¹ And we found that an abominable race was being held in the road near the city, where a multitude of women and men naked were performing the race. And there were great deception and error in that place. ² And Barnabas turning, rebuked it; and the western part fell, so that many were wounded, ³ and many of them also died and the rest fled to the temple of Apollo, which was close at hand in the city, which was called sacred. ⁴ And, when we came near the temple, a great multitude of Jews who were there, having been put up to it by Bar-Jesus, stood outside of the city, and did not allow us to go into the city; but we spent the evening under a tree near the city, and rested there.

TRAVELS & MARTYRDOM OF BARNABAS 19

- ¹ Before 'abominable', Walker adds 'certain'.
² Whether it was part of the road that collapsed, on the city wall, it is not clear.
³ The word here translated a 'sacred' is Ἱερᾷ.
⁴ Walker does not hyphenate 'Bar-Jesus'.

¹ And, on the next day, we came to a certain village where Aristoclianus dwelt. He was a leper, cleansed in Antioch, whom also Paul and Barnabas ordained as a bishop, and sent to his village in Cyprus; for, there were many Greeks there. ² And we stayed in the cave with him in the mountain, and there we remained one day. ³ And, thence, we came to Amathus and there was a great multitude of Greeks in the temple in the mountain, both lewd women and men who were debauched. ⁴ There also Bar-Jesus gathered the people of the Jews, and did not allow us to enter into the city; but a certain widow woman, eighty years old, being outside of the city, and she did not worship the idols, came forward and took us into her house for one hour. ⁵ And, when we came out, we shook the dust off our feet over against that temple where the priests offered libations.

TRAVELS & MARTYRDOM OF BARNABAS 20

¹ In place of 'ordained', Walker has 'sealed'.

² Walker has 'were entertained' in place of 'stayed'.

³ In place of 'both lewd women and men who were debauched', Walker has 'low women and men pouring libations'.

⁴ Walker does not hyphenate 'Bar-Jesus'.

⁵ Walker ends, "where the libation of the abominable took place."

TRAVELS & MARTYRDOM OF BARNABAS 21

¹ And, having gone out thence, we came through desert places, and Timon also accompanied us. ² And, having come to Citium, and there being a great uproar there also in their hippodrome, having learned this, we came forth out of the city, having all shaken the dust off our feet; for, no one received us, except that we rested one hour in the gate near the aqueduct.

TRAVELS & MARTYRDOM OF BARNABAS 21

¹ A more literal translation of 'accompanied' is 'followed'.

² In place of παρήλθομεν, Lipsius has ἐξήλθομεν.

¹ And, having set sail in a ship from Citium, we came to Salamis, and landed in the so-called islands, where there was a place full of idols, where there took place high festivals and libations. ² And, having found Heracleides there again, we told him to proclaim the Gospel of God, and to set up churches and ministers in them. ³ And, having gone into Salamis, we came to the synagogue near the place called Biblia; and, when we had gone into it, Barnabas, having unrolled the Gospel he had received from Matthew his fellow-labourer, began to teach the Jews.

TRAVELS & MARTYRDOM OF BARNABAS 22

- ¹ ‘Citium’ (also known as Kition) was an ancient Phoenician and Greek city-kingdom on the southern coast of Cyprus, in present-day Larnaca.
² The word translated as ‘ministers’ (following Walker) is λειτουργοὺς.
³ Cf. 15:2.

¹ And Bar-Jesus, having arrived after two days, after not a few Jews had been instructed, was enraged, and brought together all the multitude of the Jews; and they, having laid hold of Barnabas, wished to hand him over to Hypatius, the governor of Salamis. ² And, having bound him to take him away to the governor, and a pious Jebusite, a kinsman of Nero, having come to Cyprus, the Jews, learning this, took Barnabas by night, and bound him with a rope by the neck; and, having dragged him to the hippodrome from the synagogue, and having gone out of the city, standing round him, they burned him with fire, so that even his bones became dust. ³ And, straight away that night, having taken his dust, they wrapped it in a cloth; and, having secured it with lead, they intended to throw it into the sea.

¹ Walker does not hyphenate 'Bar-Jesus'.

² The account of Barnabas' death is very short, compared to those of other apostles in the apocryphal acts.

³ In place of 'wrapped it in', Walker has 'cast it into'.

¹ But I, finding an opportunity in the night, and being able along with Timon and Rhodon to carry it, we came to a certain place; and, having found a cave, put it down there, where the nation of the Jebusites formerly dwelt. ² And, having found a secret place in it, we put it away, with the documents that he had received from Matthew. ³ And it was the fourth hour of the night of the second of the week.

TRAVELS & MARTYRDOM OF BARNABAS 24

¹ Remember that the narrator here is John Mark.

² These documents no doubt included a manuscript of the Gospel according to Matthew.

³ The 'fourth hour of the night' was (probably) 3 am.

¹ And, when we were hidden in the place, the Jews made no little search after us; and, having almost found us, they pursued us as far as the village of the Ledrians; ² and we, having found there also a cave near the town, took refuge in it, and thus escaped them. ³ And we were hidden in the cave for three days; and the Jews having departed, we came forth and left the place by night. ⁴ And, taking with us Ariston and Rhodon, we came to the town of Limnes.

¹ It is not clear what 'almost found' means.

² Walker has 'village' in place of 'town'.

³ In place of 'departed', Walker has 'gone away'.

⁴ Walker has 'village' in place of 'town'.

¹ And, having come to the shore, we found an Egyptian ship; and, having embarked in it, we landed at Alexandria. ² And there I remained, teaching the brothers that came the word of the Lord, enlightening them, and preaching what I had been taught by the apostles of Christ, who also baptized me into the name of Father, and Son, and Holy Ghost; who also changed my name to Mark in the water of baptism, by which also I hope to bring many to the glory of God through His grace; because to Him is due honour and everlasting glory. *The travels and martyrdom of the holy apostle
Barnabas have been fulfilled through God.*

TRAVELS & MARTYRDOM OF BARNABAS 26

- ¹ St Mark is widely credited with being the apostles who first preached Christianity to the Egyptians, especially by the Coptic Orthodox Church.
² Lipsius has the text of the 2nd paragraph only in a footnote (an addition following one MS).
